W. D. MATTHEWS,

LUCK

By Helen Mar D'Auby

All life is lucky, here, or there,
No matter when you live, or where,
If you but love it, e'en the grass,
And clover, tell it, as you pass.
It's just the way that life is spent
That makes for beauty, and content;
The woods, and fields, all tell us so
In never ceasing just to grow.
All neighbors they, hate jealousy
and pride
Are all unknown, but peace worldwide,
Reigns all supreme, and love divine
Where grasses low, greet towering pine.

S. S. RICHARDSON ENDORSES F. D. PHILLIPS FOR SOLICITOR

I am not a politician, nor have I ever asked for an office—only a private in the rear ranks. I have almost served out my allotted time—through three and ten years. Have lived through three wars, the Civil War, Spanish-American and the World War. I had two brothers in the Civil War and lost both of them. I have voted for Confederate veterans for office for almost fifty years. I felt that I owed it to them for service rendered in the "Lost Cause." I had three sons in the World War. One son enjoying a splendid law practice, yet above the draft age, answered the call of his country, lost his health in camp, died and is now sleeping in an American uniform.

When our boys were called into service we went with them to the trains and promised them our all when they returned. They went. Those who were not left on the battle fields of Europe returned—many of them wounded. What have we done for them? How have we rewarded them? Four good men are running for solicitor in this district. Three of them I have never seen. For a moment let's examine their records. Where was G. H. Russell in 1917-18-19? At home enjoying the greatest wave of prosperity this country has ever seen. Where was M. W. Nash in 1917-18-19? At home living easy, when this land was flowing freely with milk and honey. Where was F. D. Phillips in the stormy days of 1917-18-19? In the trenches of the battle fields of Europe wading in blood—facing shot and shell for his board and clothes that this country might be made safe for democracy. He returned a wounded soldier—just in time to see the last cloud of prosperity pass by.

While I have never met F. D. Phillips, yet as an appreciation of his service to his country I shall cast my vote for him for solicitor of this district.

I appeal to the men and women of Union county to go to the polls on June 3rd and cast your ballots for F. D. Phillips for solicitor—the soldier boy.

S. S. RICHARDSON.

SCHEDULE OF SCHOOL EXTENSION

West End, May 24th; Eagle Springs, 25th; Farm Life School, 26; White Hill, 27th; Putnam, 29th; Pinebluff, 30th; Ingram Branch, 31st.

Our program is unusually attractive. "T. Haviland Hicks, Jr.," a dandy college story in three reels, a historical reel, "Paul Revere's Ride," and a comedy, "Peggy Mixes In," will fill the evening with fun and interest.

From June 5th to June 17th we will show "The Lost Colony." Our vacant dates are June 14th and 17th. Do you want this film in your community on either of these dates. If so kindly write the director at once.

FLORA McQUEEN, Director.

About the only time we don't care if the world does go to the dogs is when we meet a fellow with a lot of perfume on his clothes.

LINING UP FOR PHILLIPS

Marshville Citizens Publicly Announce Voluntary Support of the Soldier Candidate

Believing that it is the inescapable patriotic duty of fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters, whose sons and brothers offered their lives as supreme sacrifices to "make the world safe for democracy," to avail themselves of opportunity to show gratitude and appreciation, acting under a consciousness that it would brand our declarations of patriotism during the world war as hypocritical and make us appear as unworthy descendants of patriotic ancestry to vote against a soldier candidate, other claims and qualifications being equal, we take this method of publicly expressing our purpose to support Mr. F. D. Phillips, the soldier candidate of Richmond county, for solicitor in the approaching Democrat primaries. This action is taken without knowledge of Mr. Phillips.

TO THE VOTERS OF MOORE CO.

I have had a lot of inquiries from people over Moore county as to my position on law enforcement.

I take this opportunity to say that if elected Sheriff of Moore county, I will endeavor to enforce the laws to the best of my ability. My past record in Moore county will convince the people that I am in favor of enforcing the prohibition laws in every section of the county and I believe in the same enforcement of all the laws of the state as long as they remain laws.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS

By A. B. Cameron

We have hoped all along to be able to hold a County Summer School at Farm Life School this summer for the convenience and accomodation of those teachers and prospective teachers who can attend a County Summer School with profit. We think it an ideal place for such work and expenses would be less for the teachers. But so far we haven't the necessary enrollment. We will have to have an average daily attendance of at least twenty in order to secure the instructors. So far we haven't the required number. We are sending out this last call. We must have the required number within the next few days or not have County Summer School this year.

The salary schedule will be in force for the coming term. We call attention to this so that both teacher and committeemen may have it in mind in making contracts for the coming term.

The salary rating is based upon the class of certificate held and the number of years experience under that certificate.

I wish to urge upon committeemen the importance of making contract with teachers for the coming term as early as possible. If you had a good teacher last term, make a contract for another term if possible and don't delay about doing it. Other places will want good teachers too. If for any good reason you think it will be better for the children's interest to have a different teacher next term, find the one you want and make a contract. Do it now.

Mr. A. C. Cox passed last Friday night with his father, in Randolph county.

Mr. W. E. Blue and family, of Raeford, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Stacy Brewer and children, of Vass, visited relatives here last Thursday.

A very large crowd attended the dance here on Friday night of last week.

Miss Grace Gardner went to Southern Pines, Saturday.

Mrs. W. C. Smith and daughter, Miss Selma spent Thursday in Sanford.

Mr. Randolph Craig is visiting at his home in Charlotte.

The Misses Talford, after spending the latter part of the winter here, returned on Monday to their home in the north.

If there is a man who thinks he has too much money our advice is try running a newspaper for awhile.

With some people the main use in a government is to have something to blame things on.

It has also been the experience of a good many people that the wages of sin never skip a pay-day.

Insofar as Vass is concerned it looks like spring was a long time getting sprung this year.

Both lead to More Milk

PUT your whole herd on the balanced Purina System. It is just as important to save milk as it is to make milk. Purina does both. Cow Chow supplies cows with protein, calcium and every nutrient in which ordinary rations are short. Calf Chow gives calves a perfectly balanced growing ration, that cuts the cost and saves milk.

Make home-feeds bring more profits

You don't need to quit using home-grown feeds. The Purina System supplies what they lack and shows how to use them to get better results. And Purina is certainly getting results all over this part of the country. Are you a Purina feeder?
