

PINEHURST NEWS

Big county-wide plans are being made for an all-day celebration of Armistice Day on Monday, November 12th, at the Fair grounds.

The Sandhill Fair for 1923 was a success from every viewpoint, not only with 20,000 paid admissions at the gate and 5,000 auto admissions, also capacity grandstand receipts, but the Fair was in every way instructive and entertaining and upheld its past record of being clean and unquestionable in every way.

The musical festival given Friday night at the Carolina Theatre under the direction of Mr. Charles Picquet commanded a record house and those present were loud in their praise of this splendid program.

The Southern Berkshire Congress and Sale held during the Fair brought quite a crowd of distinguished guests to Pinehurst from the South and East.

The Harvest Ball which really opened the social season at Pinehurst, which was held at the Country Club on Wednesday night of the Fair, was indeed a success.

Probably one of the most noticeable improvements in the Sandhill Fair this year was in the basket ball tournament. Never has there been seen a more splendid spirit of clean sport.

We feel sure that Pinehurst will be excused if she is guilty of a little boasting, inasmuch as she has won both cups this year. She is to be congratulated for the excellent and consistent playing she exhibited in all the games she played in.

On Wednesday Elise forfeited the girls' game to Pinehurst 2 to 0. On Thursday our boys defeated the Jackson Springs boys 32 to 15, and our girls defeated the Vass girls 36 to 11.

The Pinehurst stables are under new management for the season and a large string of splendid horses furnish the equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peacock arrived Monday to spend the season. Mr. Eric Nelson, of Blowing Rock, came down to Pinehurst last week to attend the Fair and Harvest Ball.

Mrs. E. L. Merrow, of Massachusetts, has arrived in Pinehurst to be at home in the Suffolk.

Dr. and Mrs. Myron Marr and daughter returned from several months in the East.

Mrs. Lloyd Gardner has returned from a delightful visit to Rocky Mount.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graves, a daughter, October 27th. Mrs. Graves and baby are doing nicely at McConnell Hospital.

Miss Callie Battley and Miss Kelly visited Carthage Sunday.

The Filipinos have demanded the recall of General Wood. That's what you'd term "knocking on Wood."

We can hardly wait to get the daily newspapers these days to see who has been shot, arrested or killed in an automobile wreck.

A Boston preacher says young people should be taught how to make love. That's about as useless as teaching ducks how to swim.

Maybe another reason some men hate to ask their wives to sew a button on a coat is they're afraid she'll find the letter she gave them to mail three weeks before.
