

PINEBLUFF

At the M. E. Church, March 16th: Sabbath School, 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. by Rev. George S. Parker. Community Praise Service at 7 o'clock p. m.

At the Baptist Church, March 16: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. L. E. Wheeler. Prayer meeting at 7 p. m. Thursday. Notice the change of time of service in the Baptist Church March 16.

Mr. Roy Petrie, of Gasport, N. Y., started for home the 8th. Mr. Petrie rendered excellent service to Pinebluff on the water system while here. Mr. Billie Mann takes Mr. Petrie's place at the pump.

Mr. Martin James entertained his employer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce from Menhegan Island, Maine, on their return trip from Miami, Florida.

Miss Clara Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Hancock, from Danbury, Conn., arrived last week, to care for her mother who has not improved as fast as was hoped when she came down with her husband for her health in the early winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Newell formerly of Pinehurst, are occupying Miss Kittell's lower flat for a few weeks till their new house is finished enough for them to move in, which will be about April 1st, according to the carpenters' statement.

Mr. Leonard and Robert Barrett spent the week-end at Pinehurst with their grand-mother, Mrs. Bettie Glass.

Miss Attie Newell spent the week-end at Pinehurst as guest of her uncle, Mr. Talmadge Shaw.

Mr. Elliot Fiddner has a new radio outfit installed in his home, where they all listened until 3 o'clock a. m. Monday morning.

Mrs. William Clark who has been visiting her brother and family for the winter, expects to return home this week.

Mr. John Adams is finishing his brother Albert's new house in Southern Pines.

Mr. Jessie Newell is foreman of the coal and wood supply at Pinehurst.

Prof. Edgar Ames who came here on account of asthma, last fall, is improving slowly. Prof. Ames suffered a severe nervous breakdown while teaching in the high school at Troy, N. Y., two years ago.

Mrs. William Fiddner commenced her work at Pinehurst today. She will hold her cousin's position till she returns.

A variety shower was given by Mrs. William Fiddner at her home on Current street in honor of Miss Florence Fiddner's marriage to Mr. Aubry Pruitt. Fruit basket and cross-questions were a few of the games enjoyed by the guests. At eleven o'clock Mr. Pruitt and Miss Fiddner were seated on a bench under a bow of blue and white crepe paper while they examined the many beautiful gifts of linen aluminum and silver. The room was decorated with crepe paper streamers, blue and white being the color scheme. At eleven-thirty a buffet lunch of punch and cake was served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wylig, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Fiddner, Misses Eloise and Madge Pickler, Miss Elma Adcox, Miss Allie Carren, Miss Campbell, Mrs. Elizabeth Atherton, Mr. Leon Wylie, Mr. Eliot Fiddner, Mrs. William Dean, Mrs. Mary Fiddner, Mrs. William Clark, Mr. Theodore Holman, Mr. Peter Renoff, and Mr. Homer Gibson. Miss Fiddner and Mr. Pruitt wish to thank their many friends who sent gifts and were unable to attend.

Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Thomas entertained friends from their home, Mont Clare, New Jersey, over the week-end last week.

Mrs. Beulah McCullan and children who have been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adcox the past week, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooker from New York state, and their friend Henry Miller, from Castile, N. Y., have been camping on the lawn near Glenwood cottage, and visiting Mrs. Rose Crowell and mother, Mrs. Margaret Washbon, on their return trip from Florida, where they have spent the winter. They have lived in camp while there and report Florida a fine state to live and spend the winter in. They enjoyed the week in Pinebluff and feel sure that one can avoid the cold weather and not go any farther south. They expect to reach home about April 1st.

Mrs. Lizzie Hales, of Pinehurst, a grand-aunt of Mrs. R. A. Barrett, died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Frank Lucus a few days ago.
