

GREAT WEEK AT CAROLINA THEATRES

Three Splendid Productions to be Shown With Mary Pickford Starring.

It was not by accident that the three next productions for the Carolina Theatres were secured, but by a considerable effort.

These productions will not be released to the general public for some time and we are positively assured of the World's Premiere of "A Boy of Flanders," and "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," the latter being scheduled for an extended run in a legitimate theatre in New York at a later date.

On Friday and Saturday, March 28th and 29th, will be presented the world's premiere of Jackie Coogan's new production of "A Boy of Flanders," adapted from the well-known story, "A Dog of Flanders," by Ouida. It is without question Jackie's best production to date and that is saying a "mouthful." A special school children's matinee will be given in Pinehurst on Saturday at 3:00 p. m.

On Monday and Tuesday, comes America's most popular young screen star, Richard Barthelmess, supported by May McAvoy in an adaptation of Sir Arthur Wings' Pinero's successful stage play, "The Enchanted Cottage." A romantic tale alive with the spirit that awakens a responsive glow in the heart of every observer. It promises to be one of the most talked of pictures of the year.

And then on Wednesday and Thursday, April 2nd and 3rd, comes Mary Pickford's crowning achievement, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" on which she has spent nearly a year and close to a million dollars. The presentation of this wonderful production is a great "scoop," for the Sandhills and it comes high, but, like "Beau Brummel" it is worth every cent we had to pay for it and every cent we will be obliged to charge our patrons to see it.

Reserved seats for this attraction will go on sale at Aberdeen, Southern Pines, Crathage and Pinehurst, on Saturday, March 31st at 9 a. m., and our advice is to be there at 8:50 a. m. to get them before some one else beats you to it. THE MANAGER.

PINEHURST

"Dust of the Earth," the play to be given at the auditorium of the Pinehurst school on Thursday evening, April 3rd, will be an event of unusual importance, as it will not only be splendidly staged but the players, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thompson, Mrs. Bertha Freeman and Misses Bevans and Hanna, Profs. Fagleman and Samples, Messrs. Gordon Cameron, Raymond Johnson and Hodnett are all players of more than usual ability and talent. Miss Beverly, the musical instructor, who is from Detroit, Mich., for the school session and has charge of a large piano, voice and violin class, has arranged the musical numbers for this evening's program, which in itself will be a musical treat. The tickets are 75c, 50c, and 35c.

On Sunday afternoon the "Every Member Canvass" of the Presbyterian Church, of Pinehurst, was made. There were six groups with two in each group who did this work, and the entire membership of the church (72) were visited, and without an exception every member made a personal financial pledge. $1,345.00 was pledged for the budget for the current year. This church is making rapid strides in growth under the leadership of Rev. George Hanna.

Plans are being completed for the annual Horse Show to be held at the Fair Grounds at Pinehurst, April 3rd, and 4th. The largest number of entries in the history of the shows have been sent in. Of more than local interest will be the Paddock teas given by the committee of ladies who are sponsoring this feature for the benefit of McConnell Hospital. A Horse Show dinner dance will also be given for the benefit of the County Red Cross Health Work.

Mr. Sample spent the week-end in Raleigh with friends.

Dr. J. F. Smith, of Fayetteville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Pinehurst.

Sunday evening, April 6, the Christian Endeavor will observe the 1st anniversary since their organization, with an evening of special music and a play entitled "Tired of Missionaries." Each of the 17 members who take part in this program are expected to bring 6 members' names and 1924 dues at 5c each.

Polo last week-end was indeed an interesting event. On Saturday afternoon. 14 chuckkas were played by the four teams who were here, and a delightful tea was enjoyed after the game, at the country club. There were about 25 visitors from Charlotte and Winston-Salem for the game.

The many friends of Mrs. W. R. Kelly, of Southern Pines are delighted to learn that she is recovering after a most dangerous illness. During her sickness Mrs. H. F. Kelly has spent much of the time at her bedside.
