

CAMERON

June may be the month of weddings and roses, but not in this man's town; it is the month of dewberries.

Mrs. Lanie Campbell, Mrs. Oliver, of Jonesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Campbell, of Sanford, were callers Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Janie Muse.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cameron and daughter, Marion, of Vass, were afternoon callers Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

The correspondent was delighted to have Miss Mary Johnson, of Aberdeen, for an afternoon visit Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McLean, of Aberdeen, called Sunday afternoon to see Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Petty.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Teague and children, David, Elizabeth, and Emily, of Sanford, were guests, Sunday, of Mrs. Teague's parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill.

Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly and children, Jean and James, are guests this week of Rev. and Mrs. Millard, of Greensboro. Mrs. Millard is a sister of Mrs. Kelly.

Mr. E. M. Borst, of Wilmington, is spending his two weeks of vacation at his home here, during the dewberry season.

Sunday night at the Presbyterian church Rev. M. D. McNeill preached from the subject: "The Three Graces." We were pleased to see a goodly number of young men in the choir.

Mrs. W. R. McDonald, of Waxhaw, stopped over last week for a visit to the family of Mr. Donald McDonald, as she was returning from Chapel Hill where she was present at the graduating exercises of her son.

Dr. C. D. Dawkins made a business trip to Greensboro last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Henry, of Raleigh, are visiting at Mr. White's on route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spier and Harvey, Jr., who have been visiting Mrs. Spier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, returned, Saturday, to their home in Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Kate Arnold is in Raleigh attending the summer school.

Mr. Angus Cole and son, Joe, Mr. Stafford and son, of Burlington, were afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Sunday.

The Rev. Walter H. Dodd, of Blue Ridge, preached Sunday morning at the Baptist church, from the text "Consider the lilies, how they grow."

Over on his farm, route 2, Mr. J. A. Phillips picked, on Saturday by noon, 70 crates of dewberries.

Mrs. C. C. Yates, of Carthage, and stepson, Mr. Seaton Yates, of Brevard, were supper guests Friday evening of Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill.

Mr. Massie, of South Carolina, is filling the place of operator at the Seaboard station for Mr. H. D. Tally who is buying dewberries.

Mr. John Keith was again a "pleasant caller" in the vicinity of Durham, Sunday night.

The first May apples of the season were presented to the correspondent Monday by W. C. Spivey who has a tree loaded with several bushels. He has to prop it to keep the limbs from breaking. Anyone who has ever eaten of the May apple knows the delicious flavor. A sure enough apple flavor of "ye olden time."

Miss Pauline Snipes is on the sick list.

Mr. Martin McFadyen, the new postmaster at Aberdeen, is on a visit to his mother and sisters, Mrs. Flora McFadyen and Misses Annie and Margaret McFadyen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Denton and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas.

Mrs. Jewel Hemphill called last week to see Mrs. Paul Joyner of Vass.

Charles Picquet is a wonderfully resourceful man in choosing and obtaining his attractions for the Sandhill Fair. Now he has beat his record in bringing the Royal Scotch Highlanders Band to the next Sandhill Fair. What a foregathering there will be of the God-blessed Macks!

They'll all be there, To greet the Scotch Highlanders. At the Sandhill Fair—

Clad in their kilts and tartans.

Our hearts will be filled with the same spirit as that of the great Duke of Argyle, who once said "The heart of MacCailean Mhor, will be as cold as death can make it when it does not warm to the tartan."

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. O'Briant, of Carpenter, Wake county, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Spivey.

Mrs. D. W. McNeill attended the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Charles Knight, at Chatham church near Pittsboro last week.

Messrs. Arch McRae, of Sanford route, and Carlisle Gibson, of Rockingham, were callers in town Sunday, guests of Miss Mabel Muse and Miss Bonnie Muse.

Surprise Birthday Party

On Sunday, June the 15th, Mrs. W. C. Spivey was given a surprise birthday party that exceeded in magnitude, any ever before given in this immediate vicinity. Saturday preceding her birthday her sister, Mrs. Rosa Stout, and son, Garland, of Siler City, arrived, as they told her, to spend the weekend. Mrs. Stout managed to smuggle into the house a box containing a lovely birthday cake, bearing the letters "birthday greetings," and candles for each year of Mrs. Spivey's age.

About nine o'clock Sunday morning, cars began to arrive from Randolph county, filled with friends and relatives, and Mrs. Spivey was told that quite a number of her people had come and more coming to spend the day. That they had planned to give her a birthday party, and had come with well filled baskets. The party included relatives and friends from Randolph, Guilford and Chatham counties. Her father, eight-two; her mother, eighty; were the honor guests. Others of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Byrd, of Kemps Mills, Mr. E. H. Byrd and son, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Byrd and son, Howard, and Mrs. J. H. Smith, of Kemps Mills, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Byrd and family, of Ramseur, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Byrd and children, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hammer, of Kemps, Mrs. Spivey's uncle, Mr. Z. F. Byrd and son, Frank, of Asheville, Mrs. Mary Hall and daughter, Gladys and sons, Ivey, Edmund and Gordon, of Asheboro, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon Stack and children, Miss Elizabeth Stack, Mr. Norman Stack, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Byrd and children, of Hemp, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, of High Point, Mr. and Mrs. Wren Brown, of Greensboro, Misses Ava Stout, Pauline Jordan, Mr. Henry Harlee, of Siler City, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bray and children, of Colridge. There were about fifty people in all in the party; a feast of good things, and a very happy birthday reunion of kindred and friends.

A NEW ORPHANAGE

A movement is under way to establish at John Wesley's Stand a home for orphan children. Its official name will be THE PEOPLES' ORPHANAGE, and it is to be administered by a board of trustees drawn from ten different denominations.

So far the prospects are encouraging. Nine acres of land of high grade, located on the county highway in an excellent community, have already been donated, while one-tenth of $5,000, the cash sum required to begin operations has been pledged by a single individual, provided the balance is paid in.

Feed your stock and poultry with Purina feeds. McKeithan & Co.

See J. H. OLDHAM & COMPANY FOR ICE

We feel that this a movement which should have a strong appeal throughout the county. Certainly there are plenty of good men and women who would be glad to subscribe for this good cause. What better investment could be made? Could there possibly be a more meritorious service than caring for helpless, indigent little children and preparing them properly for useful citizenship and the grave responsibilities of life? Remember that the dividends on such an investment will be paid by the Great Paymaster in Heaven.

So open generously your heart and purse and let us hear from you.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS

Having been earnestly requested by many of my friends to enter a second primary to settle the contest for the nomination for the office of Register of Deeds, I hereby announce that a second primary has been asked for and will be held at the various precincts of the county on July 5th, 1924.

I thank my many friends who stood by me in the first primary and as I made no canvass for votes, I consider the vote I received, with so many in the field, very gratifying. I will appreciate your support on July 5th.

Again thanking you, I am, E. C. MATHESON.

TO MOORE COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Unfortunately we are to have a second primary, my opponent, Mr. Matheson, having called for another family contention. This is a surprise to many of his own friends, as after his active canvass before the first primary out of 2077 voters over 1500 voted for a change in the Register's Office, mainly on the ground that his 12 years in office in Moore County is long enough. And so far as I know, the primary was fairly and honestly conducted.

I urge my many friends to be active in getting out our full vote and see that the expressed will of the people be not now set aside. Assuring you of my appreciation in the majority given me in the first primary over Mr. Matheson, and urgently requesting my friends to go to the polls on July 5th, and give me an overwhelming majority and again thanking you, I am,

Respectfully yours, W. J. HARRINGTON. (Ju.5)

SPARKS

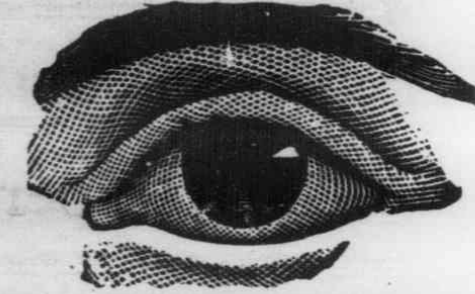

What has become of the old-fashioned girls who used to put on long dresses and play like they were women?

At the present rate we will just about have all of our roads in good shape by the time people get to traveling in airplanes.

This is the time of year when the small boy wishes he was a giraffe, so he could taste ice cream and strawberries that much longer.

This is a fine country to talk about the importance of education when it only pays a school teacher about half what a second-class prize-fighter gets.
