

LAKEVIEW

Miss Hunt Barber and Mrs. H. Y. Poole accompanied a party to Reidsville last Saturday.

Mr. R. W. Cox from Greensboro, was the week-end guest of his brother, Mr. A. C. Cox.

Miss Hattie Frye is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Eastwood.

Mr. Junius Oldham and mother have arrived at the bedside of their brother and son, Mr. A. J. Oldham. Mr. Oldham had been improving until last week, and then he suddenly took a relapse, but at present writing (Tuesday) he is much better, and expects to go to the hospital Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox spent Monday in Sanford.

Miss Elizabeth Bost, of Greenville, N. C., is the charming guest of Miss Elsie Coffey this week.

Mrs. Helen Mar D'Auby and Miss Ruth McNeill spent last Saturday in Marston.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wooley have moved into the Tayntor house.

Misses Frances Blue, Johnnie Eastwood, Ruth McInnis and Messrs. Jessie Gardner and T. M. Carpenter motored to Southern Pines, Saturday, evening to see "Why Men Leave Home." The reports were in favor of the picture.

Mrs. Frederick Williams and Fred, Jr., Misses Letha and Pauline Cross and a party from Durham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Blue last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. McDonald have returned to their home in Lillington, after staying the most of the summer here.

Misses Elsie Coffey, Elizabeth Bost, Messrs. Maurice Krebs and David Coffey motored to Pinehurst Monday evening to see "A Perfect Flapper." If one would watch the larger crowds of today they will find plenty.

Messrs. Jack Davenport and Gilbert Oliver, from Sanford, camped here last week. Mr. Davenport has the "one" when it came to saving a drowning boy last Thursday afternoon. He deserves the best of compliments and admiration for his skilled work in diving and swimming.

Mr. Walter Ferguson from Greensboro was here last week.

Messrs. Sandy Watson, Charles Noggia and Andrew King spent the first of this week in their respective homes, Louisburg, Charlotte and Greer, S. C.

Mr. Ed Porter and son from Raleigh, spent several days here last week.

Mr. Steadman Ballard spent Sunday at his home in Lillington. His sister, Miss Mary Ballard accompanied him here to visit other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Gibbon were in Raleigh, Tuesday, shopping.

Little Miss Rebecca Gardner was a charming little hostess to a number of her little friends Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, in honor of her fifth birthday. Various games were played throughout the afternoon, and later on delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake and candy was served, and after the party was over Miss Rebecca Bacon invited the children for a ride on the swan boat. The very small hostess was laden down with presents and she seemed very happy that so many nice things had been given her and that she was five years old. Those present were: Little Misses Sarah Worthy Stewart, Lucile Haynes, Mildred Causey, Marjorie Coore, Edna Earl Richardson, Caroline Spear, Caroline McLean; Masters Coker Blue, Herbert McLean, James Stutts, Edward Woodard, Tony Trout, Herbert Eastwood.

Miss Evelyn Gardner has returned to her home here after an extended visit to her sister, Mrs. R. P. Andrews in Raleigh.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Helen Mar D'Auby and Ruth McNeill, a party of girls were invited to accompany them on a picnic down to the old McNeill place. Gladly we accepted this invitation. We explored the grounds for a while and decided then and there that they were most beautiful. After a delightful swim in the old swimming hole we had supper under a great oak tree. A bountiful supper soon disappeared and we started for home. O, but I must tell you of the three wonderful things that the three McCraney sisters were kind enough to show us. There were three old, old counterpanes, handwoven and tufted; two were done by Miss Mary McCraney and the other done by Miss Flora Ray. The wool of which they were tufted with was dyed with bark, leaves and indigo. They were tufted in the most beautiful designs and we were told that they were nearly one hundred years old. We count them as priceless, and what else could they be?

Among the week-end guests at the Lakeside Inn were: Shields Cameron, Pinehurst; Daisy C. Dowd, Richmond, Va.; Tina L. Dowd, Richmond, Va.; Grace L. Wingate, Charlotte; W. J. Bryan, Raleigh; Joe Shipp, S. H. Lassiter, Mona Shipp, Mildred Shipp, W. B. Morgan, N. L. Thomas, of Durham; C. H. Isley, Burlington; Mary Wilson; Alice M. Burns, Ivey Stanley, M. P. Ward, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cash, Miss Elsie Connel, of Raleigh; Carrie Moore Neal, Mr. B. Hillon, Mr. Arthur Couch, A. C. Smith, of Durham; J. H. Ricks, R. M. Rice, of Greensboro; A. K. Smith, Raleigh; J. Floyd Goodrich, Durham.

Misses Letha and Bernice Frye from Hamlet, were the week-end guests of Miss Selma Smith last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scalp and little daughter, Doris, and Miss Annie Mae Cameron, all of Durham, visited their aunt, Mrs. W. C. Smith last week-end.

Mr. W. J. Cole has been on the sick list for the past week. He is much better now.

STANDARD TRAINING SCHOOL AT CAROLINA COLLEGE

There will be held at Carolina College, Maxton, N. C., August 25-30, a District Training School for Sunday School and other church workers. This will be a school for the entire district with standard instructors offering courses in various departments of church work. This school offers a great opportunity to superintendents, pastors, secretaries and other officers of the Sunday School, teachers and prospective teachers, those who are interested in Christian service, and wish to become more effective workers in their church.

Dr. W. J. Young, Emory University, will give a course on "The Missionary Message of the Bible." Prof. J. M. Ormand, of Trinity College, will teach "Sunday School Organization and Administration," "Pupil Study" will be taught by Dr. Walter W. Peele, Trinity Church, Durham, N. C. Miss Georgie Keene will give a course in "Primary Worship," and Miss Bruce McDonald will teach "Junior Material."

The Board of Managers have not only provided for real hard work for those who attend, but provision has been made for fun, for play, for a good time for every one. A special committee is in charge of recreation and such games as tennis, indoor baseball, croquet, horse shoe, and so on, will be promoted.

Then there is a music committee headed by a real musician working out plan for an orchestra composed of every known instrument. A choir of fifty or more voices will lead the school in singing.

DON'T BE THE "OTHER FELLOW"

About 15,700 lives were lost in motor vehicle accidents (exclusive of grade crossing collisions between motor vehicles and trains) in the United States during 1923, an increase of nearly 2,000 over the 1922 record. Grade crossing fatalities make a total exceeding 17,000. This estimate was made by the National Safety Committee of the Automobile Department of the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters on the basis of statistics of 135 cities.

It may be all right to insure your car against fire, theft, collision, public liability and property damage, and so long as the accident which may be due to your carelessness merely hurts the "other fellow" you let the insurance company worry about the cost. But if you happen to be the "other fellow," insurance collected by your heirs may not help you in the place to which you go. No insurance has yet been found which will prevent death and injury; hence it pays to be careful.
