The council decided to change the regular meeting to the second Tuesday in each month, and to meet at a noon luncheon in the high school cafeteria. However, it was understood that in the January meeting they were to hold a court of honor in the evening at the high school auditorium.

As per schedule the court of honor was held in the high school auditorium on the evening of January 11th. W. P. Morton, chairman of the court of honor, presided. The Boy Scouts, under the direction of Scoutmaster P. H. Stephenson, opened the exercises with a most impressive flag ceremony.

The following Scouts presented themselves before the court of honor for one or more honors: Herbert Ehrhardt for first class Scout; Wm. Lyman and Jack Konin, for second class Scout; John B. Cameron, for merit badges in personal health, electricity and firemanship; Roy Kelly, for merit badges in personal health, craftwork in leather, electricity, firemanship and leather. As Roy Kelly had won five merit badges he was made a star Scout.

The court of honor was composed of the following: W. P. Morton, I. C. Sledge, Rev. T. A. Cheatham, A. P. Thompson, Gordon Cameron, Foster Kelly, Elsie Keith and Scout Executive Claude Humphreys. It was decidedly the best meeting yet held by the court of honor.

Mr. Kahler is now living at Princeton, New Jersey, and is a contributor to many periodicals, and has published several books. He is a leading writer for the Saturday Evening Post and is established among the well-known authors of current literature. He has seen much of the world, but the North Carolina Sandhills is his pick of all.

FORT BRAGG IN LINE FOR BUILDING.

Reports from Washington say that new buildings for Fort Bragg are next on the schedule after one job that is now in hand. It is announced that orders for construction will be issued early this spring, and that the plans are for pretentious construction that will extend over a period of considerable time, and revolutionize the situation down at the settlement.

funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Thomas, at Chatham church, in Chatham county.

Miss Mary McNeill, of Lee-line, is spending the week with Mrs. D. W. McNeill and Miss Ada McNeill.

The Merry Makers met Friday evening with Miss Elizabeth Ray. Sparkling wit, brilliant repartee, merry laughter was much in evidence.

The jolly matrons left their "brains" at home with the "gude-man," the maids were whole hearted and free. The hostess, assisted by Miss Jacksie Muse, served pound cake, butter Scotch rolls, sweet pickle, hot coffee and whipped cream.

Mrs. D. A. McDonald, Jr., who before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Bunn, a former music teacher in Cameron high school, died Monday morning in a hospital at Rocky Mount.

The first meeting of the John McNeill Society for the New Year met last week with Miss Elizabeth Ray. Good attendance. Officers elected were: Mrs. Jewel Hemphil, president; Miss Kate Arnold, vice president; Miss Hellen Parker, treasurer; Miss Katharine McDonald, secretary; Miss Effie Gilchrist, leader. A very excellent program. At Christmas, Rev. M. D. McNeill presented the Society with $20.

J. E. Phillips received a telegram early Monday morning from Red Springs, conveying the sad intelligence of the tragic death of W. J. Johnson, a wealthy and influential citizen of Red Springs, who was killed Monday by a freight train while crossing through his farm. Mr.

Johnson was born and reared within three miles of Cameron. He was a self-made man. In early manhood he was a salesman for Muse Bros. in Cameron. He was a near neighbor, boyhood friend, and school mate of the correspondent. Among others who received telegrams were D. W. McNeill, D. J. Pierce, H. P. McPherson and G. S. Cole.

Tar Heel farmers are becoming convinced that cotton alone will not pay.

The four points of successful farming are soil building, balanced cropping, quality production and orderly marketing.

A short course on soil fertility and conservation will be held at State College January 25, 26 and 27.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

This is to notify the public that on the 7th day of January, I, D. A. Smith, did purchase from J. B. Eastwood and wife the Jefferson Davis Filling Station at Lakeview, N. C., and leased the same to A. C. Cox. Neither the purchaser nor the lessee assume any of the previous or future indebtedness of the former owners.

The Sandhill Fruit Growers' Association

wishes to announce that

will act as sales agent for the association in distributing the coming 1927 crop of peaches.

The services of the Association and of Mr. Gentile are at the disposal of all growers in this section whether they are members of the association or not.

It will be the policy of the association to accept as many cars for shipment and sale by Mr. Gentile as presented throughout the season and the growers will have this agency at their disposal without any contract.

Joseph Gentile is recognized as the principal peach distributor in the country and the most successful of all that have ever operated in this section. He states that he is perfectly willing to stand or fall upon his performance without binding anyone to give him their cars unless they want to.

Growers wishing to make arrangements for the coming crop can do so by consulting the secretary.

This sales organization is endorsed and recommended by the North Carolina Agricultural Credit Corporation and the Hartford Insurance Company.

In borrowing from the Credit Corporation you can designate the Association or Joseph Gentile, Jr., as sales agent.

What's Your NET Income

Better a salary of $10 a week with $2 saved out of it than $50 with expenditures of $55.

The difference between success and failure is just that.

It measures the contrast between living on a part of last month's income and spending next month's before you get it.

You can make ten thousand resolutions to cut expenses and save, but you won't until you get an incentive stronger than the things you have been frittering money away on.

That powerful incentive is a Savings Account.
