The Pinebluff letter to The Pilot has left the home postoffice every Wednesday morning as usual, but for some reason has failed to reach the printing office in time to be published. I am sending it in one day earlier this week so it will be on time for publication.

On Friday morning the fire signal sounded and on investigation found that the roof of Mrs. Latshaw's residence was on fire, caught from a defective chimney. The fire company responded immediately and soon had it under control. It was the first time that our fire company and engine and new water supply system had been tested by actual fire, but they all proved that they were equal to the occasion.

It has been suggested that Pinebluff hold a get-together picnic at Silver Lake next Saturday. What the result will be remains to be seen. Some feel that we need to be more sociable among ourselves.

There will be a decoration day social held on the lawn at Ivey Hedge May 30 if weather is fair; if not in the home of Rev. C. L. Jackson. Ice cream and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Sandy have moved into the Butler house on Philadelphia Avenue, just vacated by Mrs. Sadie Fiddner.

LIFE'S LESSONS.

(Louine McFadyen.)

I learn, as the years roll onward And I leave the past behind, That much I had counted sorrow But proves that God is kind; That many a flower that I'd longed for Had hidden a thorn of pain, And many a rugged by-path Led to fields of ripened grain.

The clouds that cover the sunshine, They cannot banish the sun, And the earth shines out the brighter

When the weary rain is done. We must stand in the deepest shadow

To see the clearest light; And often through wrong's own darkness Comes the living strength of light.

The sweetest rest is at even, After a wearisome day, When the heavy burden of labor Has been borne from our hearts away; And these who have never known sorrow Cannot know the infinite peace That falls on the troubled spirit When it sees at last release. We must live through the dreary winter If we would value the spring; And the woods must be cold and silent Before the robins sing. The flowers must be buried in darkness Before they can bud and bloom, And the sweetest, warmest sunshine Comes after the storm and gloom. —Selected.

LOW RATES for time payments on these cars

ANY FAMILY entitled to credit may buy a General Motors car and pay for it while using it, under the GMAC Plan. When time payments first became an accepted form of car purchase, General Motors organized its own finance company, the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, to make sure that the sale of its cars on time would be in the buyer's interest and that the finance charges would be fair. GMAC rates have always been low; and the last reduction has saved General Motors' customers more than $12,000,000. The General Motors line includes "a car for every purse and purpose"—a suitable model for every income. You can buy it out of income, paying no more than the cash delivered price, plus only the low GMAC financing charge. And the whole transaction is so conducted as to keep your goodwill and satisfaction.
