

CAMERON

Miss McLean is the daughter of Dr. John McLean, of Godwin, and granddaughter of Mrs. James McLean, on Cameron Rt. 2.

Sunday, a swarm of bees came prospecting around my kitchen window—also the dining room window of Mrs. Lula Muse—ostensibly with view of locating, but later on decided to pitch their tent—or hive—in the home of my neighbor, Donald McDonald, Sr. According to the omen, Mr. McDonald will be the lucky one.

Mrs. Janie Muse, W. A. Muse, Miss Mamie Neal Muse, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, Donald, Jr., and Margaret, attended the annual picnic at Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cameron's, given in honor of the 87th birthday of Mrs. Mag Cameron, widow of Hamilton Cameron. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present and a grand dinner enjoyed. Mrs. James Spivey, sister of Mrs. Cameron, was among those present. Mrs. Spivey is 81.

Misses Vera McLean and Effie Gilchrist took their Sunday School class on a picnic and fishing trip to Governor's Creek an afternoon of last week. They parked cars at the Harrington old home place—from where Evelyn Harrington has recently moved. They reveled in the beauty of this old home, the old "stepping stones" for horse back riders of the olden days, are still there. After trying their luck fishing, they enjoyed a picnic supper. Returning, they came by the "Governor Williams" home—now the home of Mr. Wilcox—Moore County's Clerk of the Court. The children were very much interested in the bullet holes in the house made there possibly in the war of the Revolution.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Snow, Margaret McLean, Evelyn Anne Snow attended services Sunday at the new Episcopal Church at Southern Pines. Pleasing and impressive music was rendered by the Sandhill Sixteen.

Miss Minnie Muse was the charming hostess to the Merry Makers Monday evening, and served cake and cream. Mrs. Janie Muse was guest of honor.

I am pleased to acknowledge a very handsome booklet of the graduating exercises at North Carolina State College, sent me by Carey Phillips, who is on the class roll of electrical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Phillips, Cameron Rt. 2, and a promising youth of whom we are proud.

Old timers, when passing through our town, frequently enquire, "What's the matter with Cameron?" It used to be and was the most hospitable looking little town. Doors and windows invitingly open, the latch string, so to speak, hung on the outside. Now, doors are closed, blinds drawn, no one seems to be at home. For reply will say this is the day of automobiles, speeders and fools. Our streets are neither paved or oiled. We are choked with dust. A speeder speeds to his heart's content here. No arrests are made.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maples from Durham, spent Sunday with Mrs. A. M. Snipes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thomas and J. F. Thomas, from Morven, spent Monday night at J. W. Hartsell's.

Bulah Thomas is spending a few days in Washington and New York.

MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE.

On Sunday afternoon, May 29, at 5 o'clock, at the Municipal Building, Southern Pines, Sandhill Post, No. 134, of the American Legion, will hold a brief Memorial Day Service to which all veterans, together with their families and friends are cordially invited and urged to be present. In case of rain the service will be held in the Civic Club.

Mr. Henry A. Page, Sr., will deliver the memorial address.

We have selected Sunday afternoon for holding this service both on account of its appropriateness and also in the hope that we may have a large attendance from the Sandhill community.

Immediately after the service the graves of veterans of all wars in the local cemeteries will be decorated under the direction of special committees. We are very anxious to have donations of flowers from our friends for this purpose and the following ladies will be glad to receive such contributions:

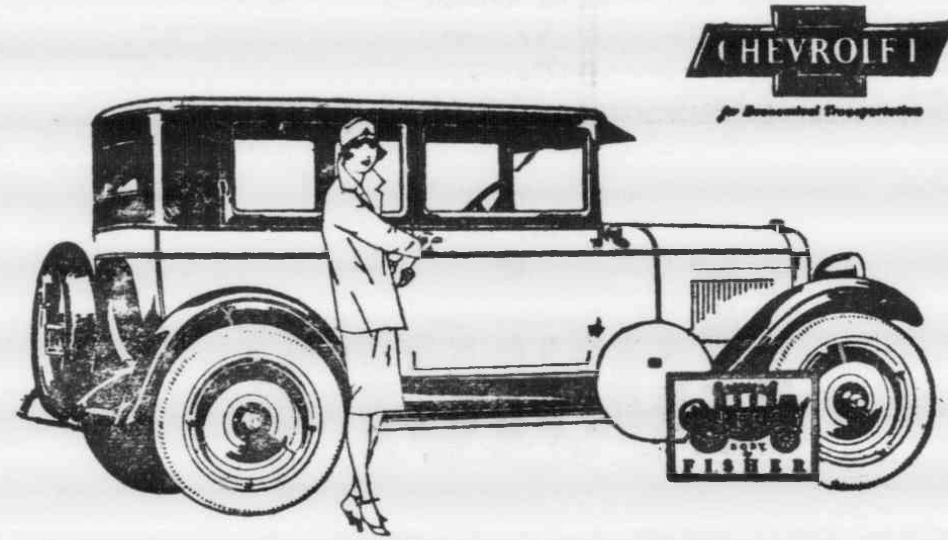

Southern Pines: Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. H. J. Betterley, Miss Lena Cameron.

Aberdeen: Mrs. Nelson Courtway, Mrs. J. F. King, Mrs. W. H. Purdy. Pinehurst: Mrs. True P. Cheney, Mrs. Donald Currie.

West End: Mrs. D. D. Eifort, Miss Lucile Eifort.

Faithfully yours,
PAUL DANA, Com.
MRS. ROBERT LEWIS,
President Ladies' Auxiliary.
REV. W. V. McRAE,
Chairman Memorial Day Com.

The World's Lowest Priced Cars with Supremely Beautiful FISHER BODIES!

Chevrolet is the only car in its price class offering bodies by Fisher — built as only Fisher can build, and styled as low-priced cars were never styled before!

Despite the lowness of Chevrolet prices, there is not the slightest compromise in design, construction or finish. All embody exactly the principles employed on the highest priced cars — a composite construction of selected hardwood and steel. All are finished in beautiful colors of lustrous, lasting Duco.

Enhancing the inherent beauty of the bodies themselves are numerous features of distinction previously considered exclusive to the costliest cars — features typified by heavy full-crown, one-piece fenders and bullet-type headlamps.

Only the economies of Chevrolet's great volume production make possible such quality at Chevrolet prices!
