Mr. and Mrs. Ginsburg Entertain.

One of the most delightful social events of the year was the birth day party and confirmation celebration of Marshall G. Ginsburg on his 13th birth day at their home Sunday.

The home was most tastefully decorated with candles and other decorations appropriate to the occasion. During the dinner Marshal gave an address, the subject was "Love Thy Neighbor As Thy Self," which was very ably delivered. A most delicious coursed dinner was served at 12:30.

Those attending the party from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and son, Julian, of Hamlet; Mr. and Mrs. Al Gold, of New York, and their son, Louis; Messrs. Harry Teush, Leonard Sacks and Jack Snyder, of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Sutky and son, of Greensboro; Mr. Flersher, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Rechter and two sons and daughter, of Mt. Gilead; Mr. and Mrs. J. Polaakavtz and two daughters, Toba and Lena, of Troy; Mr. and Mrs. Moskevitz and daughter and Mrs. Moskevitz, of Richmond, Va.; Mr. Luff, of Glendon; Mrs. Ben Hurwitz, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hurwitz, Misses Rosa and Susa Hurwitz, Mrs. Ida Hurwitz and daughters, Mrs. Ruth McLeod and sons, Arch, Curtis and Charles, and Judge George H. Humber.

After the gifts were admired and appreciation for them expressed, a delicious iced course was served by the hostess.

Death of Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. Ed Cox, of Greensboro, who has been quite ill for many weeks, died at her old home here, Bethlehem, and was buried there Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Cox leaves several children and many relatives to miss her and regret her going.

Death of J. L. Hall.

J. L. Hall, who has been quite ill for many months in hospital at Winston-Salem, and in October was taken from the hospital to his sister's, Mrs. Bennett, of Spatar. After leaving the hospital, Mr. Hall seemed to be getting along nicely, but for the past few weeks he has grown much worse, and died Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Mr. Hall died from rheumatism. The body was brought here to Carthage for burial, interment was made in the Fry burial place. Services were conducted by Dr. Jackson, the Baptist minister. Mr. Hall is survived by his wife and one son, his mother and several brothers and sisters.

Whole Time Health Officer.

We are very glad to announce that we have with us Dr. E. Symington, full-time health officer for Moore county, elected at a recent meeting of the Board of Health of Moore county. Again  -the Greatest Sensation of America's Greatest Industry

Again, Chevrolet has created an automobile so far beyond all expectations in the low-price field that it constitutes the greatest achievement of America's greatest industry.

Built on a 4-inch longer wheelbase—offering numerous improvements in performance, beauty and safety—the Bigger and Better Chevrolet marks a spectacular epoch in the development of luxurious transportation at low cost.

The engine is of improved valve-in-head design with alloy "invar strut" pistons . . . hydro-laminated camshaft gears . . . mushroom type valve tappets . . . AC oil filter . . . AC air cleaner and a new crankcase breathing system.

Throughout the entire car similar advancements are represented—from the four-inch longer wheelbase and the new semi-elliptic shock absorber springs—84% of the wheelbase, to the marvelously beautiful new Fisher bodies in new Duco colors.

Come in and drive this great new car. Drive it through traffic—and get the thrill of its darting pick-up . . . the smooth, certain action of its non-locking four-wheel brakes! Drive it on the open road—and test every point in the speed range for smoothness and roadability! Try it on the hills—and learn the true meaning of Chevrolet power!

Do that—and you will agree with thousands of others that here is the world's most luxurious low-priced automobile.
