Season Gets Under Way
in Sandhills.

The Thursday Bridge Club last week met with Mrs. W. C. Mudgett and spent a delightful afternoon. The usual pleasurable game of bridge was indulged in, after which ice cream and cake were served. The highest score was handed in by Mrs. John Powell and the second highest by Miss Charlotte Erson.

The "Night Club" was entertained last Friday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shamburger, of Aberdeen. After a delightful game of the ever popular bridge, delicious refreshments were served, consisting of a salad course and ice cream and cake. The men's prizes were won by Everest Perkinson and Charlest Everest, and the women's by Mrs. Frank Goodwill, R. E. Hart and Mrs. Ashe received the guest prizes.

The Night Club will meet at Goodwill's home next Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Hart was hostess to her bridge club this week at a lovely party. After the customary rounds of bridge a tasty salad course was served. Among the members Mrs. Frank Shamburger had high score and of the guests Mrs. W. C. Mudgett was high. Mrs. Carl Thompson received the guest of honor prize.

Personals.

S. E. Slaymaker arrived in town last week and will spend the winter here in his beautiful new home in Weymouth. This home is on the site of the old one but, except for the charming English garden, is entirely different from it and does credit to both its builder, C. L. Austin and its architect, Alfred eYomans, for it is one of the most attractive homes up on the hill.

Mrs. L. Cheeny left Monday for a short trip to New York.

Mrs. Florence Everest Tracy, sister of Charles Everest, arrived this week and joins her small son who came down with Mrs. E. Tracy earlier this fall. Mrs. Florence Tracy will live in the Tracy home on Weymouth Road while Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tracy are away on their winter trip. Their trip is to be quite an extended one. They will first go to Florida and then to Cuba, where they will take the steamer for the voyage to California through the Panama Canal. After a visit with friends in Hollywood, they will sail for their final goal, Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wolf and family have returned from their home in Altoona, Pa., for another winter season here.

Miss Birdilia Blair and Miss Ferris have returned for the winter after a pleasant summer spent at Honeywood, a charming country estate on the Susquehanna, near Sunbury, Pa.

Mrs. James Boyd, with her sons, Jamie and Dan and her small daughter Nancy, arrived home Tuesday after spending the summer at Milbrook, New York.

Mrs. Elvin N. Edward, wife of the District Attorney of Nassau County, N. Y., and Mrs. Ashdown visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lyons this week.

Mrs. V. R. Wiley entertained the Farrisish Guild at her home on Massachusetts avenue Tuesday afternoon.

The annual Bazaar which is to be held some time in the early part of December was discussed.

Last Friday night the Boy Scouts of our town had a Father and Son hike to Lemon Springs.

Jack Coursey spent last week end with his parents, returning to Raleigh on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. Etta Lynch attended the Ruby Anniversary of the Baptist Missionary Society at Aberdeen Tuesday. The program was in charge of Mrs. Lewis.

Barnum and Page report the rental of the Wrenn cottage on Ashe street to Mr. and Mrs. James Neville.

John Stubbin and wife, residents of Seal Harbor, Maine, will arrive here Saturday to occupy the Whitaker house.

Mrs. Alfred Lynch, of Lewiston, Pa., will reside in the Ames cottage on May street this season. Mrs. Lynch has two children who will increase the ranks of students at our school.

Mrs. Emma F. Cottle, of Kennebunkport, Maine, arrived on Tuesday and has rooms again at the Ellington.

The Rev. Edward A. Tuck assisted the Rev. George H. Hannon again last Sunday in the special meeting at the Bethlehem church in Carthage. George Markham, of Cambridge, Mass., who is spending the season in Southern Pines, also assisted as soloist.

Master Eugene Clark, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Clark, of Leake street, celebrated his third birthday Monday afternoon. Twenty of his small friends attended the party given him.

Albert Ruggles and William Fisher, students of State College, spent the week end in town with their parents. The Eastern Star Sewing Circle met Monday night at the home of Miss Esther McDaniel. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. B. W. Leavitt is in Rex Hospital in Raleigh to undergo an operation.

J. Fred Stimpson is attending the Baptist State Convention at High Pont this week.

Mrs. A. S. Ruggles left Tuesday for Raleigh, where she will spend several days with her sons, Albert and Edward.

The District Convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies was held at the Church of Wide Fellowship Wednesday afternoon and evening. A buffet supper was served at the church for the guests. A large number of delegates attended the meetings from the different parts of the district, which includes seven counties.

Miss Lillian Roberts, of Pennsylvania avenue, and a carload of friends went to see the House in the Horse-shoe last Tuesday.

Miss Mallet, of Freeport, Maine, has accepted a position at stonegrapher for Dr. Blair.

MANY ATTEND SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING AT VASS

A large crowd was present Sunday afternoon for the township Sunday School meeting which was held in the Vass Presbyterian church. W. B. Graham, township vice president, presided, and a very interesting program was given. Miss Blanche Monroe, of West End, spoke for a few minutes on Cradle Roll work. Garland Pierce, of Southern Pines, discussed the various branches of young people's work, and Prof. A. B. Cameron talked with special emphasis on the adult. The last speaker was Atty. W. D. Matthews, who took for his subject, "The Clash of the Ages." Two selections by the high school chorus, with Miss Reed as accompanist, were greatly enjoyed. A business session with election of officers followed.

EUREKA.

A Woman's Club for the Eureka community has recently been organized with Mrs. Z. V. Blue as president; Mrs. Joe Blue, vice president, and Mrs. R. S. Boger, recertary and treasurer. The club's first and best work, so far, is to learn to make hats. The Moore County Home demonstrator, Mrs. Walter Ryles, has been a faithful and patient worker with this line of work.

Sandhill Farm Life School is giving their bet play of the season tonight in the school auditorium. The title of the play is "June."

The Parent-Teacher Association will have its monthly business meeting on Friday night, November 23rd. They have the promise of a talk on Red Cross work at this meeting by one of Moore County's Red Cross nurses.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Eureka church is to meet in the auditorium of the church next Sunday for the purpose of studying stewardship. The Auxiliary president, Mrs. R. S. Boger, has asked that every member of the Auxiliary be present with a well prepared lesson, promptly at 2 p. m. Mrs. Boger is giving unsparingly of her time and talents to Auxiliary work.

Mrs. V. F. Fisher, of Carthage Rt. 2, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. C. R. McDonald.

Mrs. Mary Blue, accompanied by her daughter, Regina, and granddaughter, Margaret Kelly, spent the week end in Lumberton with Mrs. Blue's daughter, Mrs. R. B. Britt.

Mrs. Joe W. Blue has recently returned from a week's visit to her father in Richmond, Va.

Several from the Eureka Sunday School attended the McNeill Township Sunday School conference at Vass last Sunday and report a good program, well carried out, and helpful to all Sunday School workers.

Mrs. W. McC. Blue and Miss Mary McLeod represented Eureka in the Health and Welfare meeting at Pinehurst Tuesday of this week.

Miss Mary A. Black spent last week end with relatives in Lumberton.

J. P. Kiser, principal of Farm Life School, has a well established record as a good instructor in the class room and as a strict executive over all grades and now he displays wisdom in purchasing groceries. After two months as purchasing agent for the boarding department he is able to announce all grocery bills paid, as well as all overhead expenses, and there is a neat little sum left over. To say the community is "well pleased" is expressing it lightly, for had not we watched with abated breath for fear "hard times" might make hard sailing for our boarding department! Much credit, in this good report, is due Mrs. Lannie Bailey, kitchen manager. Yes, the Eureka community are well pleased with the dormitory management of Mrs. Bailey and Mr. Kiser.

LAKEVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vinton left on Tuesday for Mt. Dora, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Coffey and their son David, left on Wednesday for Greeleyville, S. C. Mr. Coffey is in charge of a hunting club owned by Mr. Nash of Nash Motors and Mr. Allen of the Allen Hosiery Co.

Mrs. Nicholas Gibbon has returned from Maine, where she has been spending several weeks with her aunt. Miss Johnsey Eastwood has accepted a position in the Clow Gift Shop at Pinehurst.

Thursday night was a night of much merriment and music, for it was the night of the fiddlers' contest. Fiddlers gathered from all around at the Pavilion of the Lakeview Inn to try their skill. And such fiddlin'. Just like the tales our grand fathers told us about. The prize winners will be announced later. After the contest everyone joined into a real old time square dance.

The Misses Alice McQueen and Ethel Reide, of Winston-Salem, were guests of Mrs. John McQueen on Monday.

Claude Johnson and family have returned to Aberdeen, their former home, after a year in Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Carpenter have returned and are now living in Shingle Sides.

Holt Gardner has left for Florida where he will spend some time.

Mrs. Dan Ray attended the meeting of the Health and Welfare Association at Pinehurst on Tuesday. Mrs.

Ray has been appointed to take the Roll Call at Lakeview.

Mrs. Alfred H. Williams and Miss Katherine E. Williams and Miss Katherine E. Williams, of Utica, N. Y., motored down last week and will spend several weeks in their cottage.

Miss Helene Dougherty has returned to Lakeview after spending the summer in the North, and has resumed her duties in the office of John R. McQueen.

The Community Club held a special business meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Gibbon.

Sunday brought to a close a busy week at the church, for Rev. G. T. Lassiter, of Clayton, Synodical evangelist of the Presbyterian church, held a revival meeting. And each night found the little church more crowded than the night before.

F. M. Dwight of the Lakeview Nursery has been very busy fulfilling contracts to beautify many of the new lots both at Knollwood and Pinehurst.

STATE TOBACCO SALES SHOW BIG INCREASE.

Producers' sales of tobacco on North Carolina markets up until November 1 show an increase of more than fifteen million pounds over the figures for the same date last year, a report issued by the State Department of Agriculture shows.

Sales during the month of October topped those of October, 1927, by about nine million pounds, but the average price received was $2.36 per hundred lower than that received in October last year.

To date there have been 56,753,430 pounds of tobacco sold this year in the Old Bright Belt; 178,998,172 in the New Bright Belt, and in the South Carolina Belt 43,549,614.

STATE'S PER CAPITA DEBT HIGHEST IN THE COUNTRY.

North Carolina has the biggest per capita bonded indebtedness in the United States, each citizen owing $54.54, according to statistics for the beginning of the present year compiled by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Oregon has the next largest per capita debt—$46.07; and Delaware is third—$39.92.

Average net debt for all state governments is $12.79 per inhabitant.

Three states—Arizona, Florida and Nebraska—have no state debt.

Boyd to Address Historical Society

Author, President of Association, to Preside at 28th
Annual Session.

James Boyd, of Southern Pines, author of "Drums" and "Marching On," and president of the State Literary and Historical Association, will be among the speakers at the 28th annual session of the association to be held next Thursday and Friday at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh. Mr. Boyd will deliver the presidential address on Thursday night.

Immediately following the address, there will be a reception to the members and guests of the association and the Folk-Lore and Art Societies, which will hold their annual meetings jointly with the association.

On Friday morning, there will be a program of four brief historical papers, followed by a business meeting of the association. The following papers will be read: "Charles L. Coon," late president of the association, by R. D. W. Connor, Chapel Hill; "Bibliography of North Carolina History and Literature in 1928," by Lois V. Rumph, Raleigh; "Hinton Rowan Helper," by William Polk, Warrenton; and "The Presidential Election of 1824 in North Carolina," by A. R. Newsome, Raleigh.

At the closing session of the association on Friday night in the Hugh Morson Auditorium, Professor Van Tyne will deliver the historical address on "Diplomats in the American Revolution." For a quarter of a century, Professor Van Tyne has been an intensive student of the American Revolution, and his books have an international reputation as standard authorities of the Revolutionary period. Besides being a thorough scholar of wide reputation, he has a pleasing address as a public speaker.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT HERE TO OIL NEW DOUBLE ROAD.

The double road between Southern Pines and Pinehurst is about to receive its coat of oil. The road gang of the State Highway department arrived with the necessary paraphernalia on Wednesday and pitched camp. The new road was being dragged all last week in preparation for its final top dressing, and it begins to look as if the days of dust are over.

VICTOR AND VANQUISHED PLEDGE SERVICE TO STATE.

The following telegrams passed between conqueror and conquered after the excitement of the recent gubernatorial race in North Carolina: Hon. O. Max Gardner, Shelby, N. C.

In addition to my congratulations, may I wish for your administration as Governor all the benefits that may possibly be secured to the State.
H. F. SEAWELL.

Hon. H. F. Seawell, Carthage, N. C.

Thanks for your gracious telegram. My hope is that we may all work together for the building of a finer State.

O. MAX GARDNER.

KIWANIS CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Kiwanis Club of Aberdeen will hold its annual meeting and election of officers at Pinehurst next Wednesday evening, at which time the retiring president, Paul Dana, of Pinehurst, and the other retiring officers will make their final reports for the year's activities.

CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION

State of North Carolina, Department of State. To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Graham-Poole Motor Co., Inc., a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the City of Vass, County of Moore, State of North Carolina (W. B. Graham being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirement of Chapter 22, Consolidated Statutes, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution:

Now Therefore, I, J. A. Hartness, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 10th day of November, 1928, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have here-to set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 10th day of November, A. D., 1928.

J. A. HARTNESS, Secretary of State.
Nov. 16, 23, 30, Dec. 7.
W. Duncan Matthews, Atty.

SAFE!
Wringerless!

EASY engineers have found a better—faster—easier—safer method than wringing. The old-fashioned wringer is obsolete. It is gone from the latest EASY Washer.

The new EASY Damp-Dryer takes a big batch of clothes and damp-dries them ready for the line in less than 2 minutes. And mark this... does it while the big tub washes. Two operations at once! Does it more gently than the most delicate hands can. No broken buttons. No distorted woollens nor cracked silks.

You should know about the latest—the modern way of washing at once. Name the day and we will show you in your home how the EASY Washer saves work and clothes. Phone us today.

EASY WASHER
Gregory & Bushby, Inc.

Electrical Contractors, Radio, Frigidaire.
Daniels Building. Southern Pines.

10 things you will like best about the EASY Damp-Dryer:

1. Safe—no exposed moving parts.
2. Operation simple and automatic.
3. Empties automatically. Eliminates lifting heavy pails of water.
4. No strain on fabrics—does not crack silk or rayon garments.
5. Leaves blankets and woollens fluffy and unstretched.
6. Breaks no buttons nor metal fasteners.
7. Takes out more water than wringing does.
8. Leaves clothes evenly damp and free from deep, hard creases.
9. Makes ironing easier.
10. Damp-dries whole batch of clothes ready for the line in less than two minutes.
