Southern Pines Wins Two From Aberdeen

Boys and Girls Outplay Their Neighbors, But Lose Later to Vass

Southern Pines basketballers racked up a pair of one-sided victories last Friday night on the Southern Pines court at the expense of the Aberdeen teams. The girls smothered their opponents under a 40-11 score, while the boys tallied 42 points to 18 for the Aberdeen youths.

Bob Beck and George Pottle led a smashing offensive drive that, by the middle of the second quarter, carried the locals to a safe lead. Each of these players chalked up 12 points, while Pottle was also the individual defensive star. Carlisle followed the two leaders with 8 markers, while Gifford and Wilson, the other starters, had 6 and 4 respectively. David Park and Sidney Windham starred on offense and defense for Aberdeen, but their team showed a lack of teamwork and practice. Park nabbed 9 points and Windham 5.

Frances Swearingen paced the local misses to their victory as she personally accounted for 18 points. The team as a whole really "clicked" for the first time this year. Eleanor Eddy showed a good eye for the basket. She tallied 8 points in 8 minutes of play. Martha Carlisle, as usual, was the defensive star. Both girls and boys used their second teams during a good part of the contests.

Tuesday night the locals absorbed two licks from the Vass teams in games played at Vass. The boys bowed by 9 to 17 and the girls by 11 to 16.

A pair of home games are on the schedule for the next few days. Tonight, Friday, the locals take on the Cameron teams at the school house, while Tuesday evening the Pinehurst quint will be the guests of the Southern Pines cagers.

PINEHURST

The Business Women's Circle of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Community Church met last week with Mrs. W. Murdoch McLeod and every member present. Mrs. Tom McKenzie and Mrs. Quinley were enrolled as new members, making a total of nineteen in the group.

The Bible study in Psalms was led by Mrs. McLeod. At the close of the program a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Circles 1, 2, and 3 of the Woman's Auxiliary met Tuesday night with Mrs. True P. Cheney, Mrs. Wesley R. Viall and Mrs. Tom Cole as hostesses.

High school classmates of Mrs. Sidney Lee, bride of the past month, entertained in her honor Monday night at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. A. M. Oglesby. The honoree received many useful gifts of linen, crystal and attractive odd pieces. Especially lovely was a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and Gerbera in pastel shades which covered the gift-laden tea wagon. Mrs. Lee, prior to her marriage in December, was Miss Esther Mae Campbell. About forty guests enjoyed the party.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris entertained at dinner Monday night for Mrs. Ethel Journey, Miss Will Frances Journey, W. P. Morton, W. P., Jr., and Lewis Gold.

Reginald Hamor of Bar Harbor, Me., was the guest several days last week of Miss Idall McKenzie at her home on Linden Road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Conant spent Sunday with friends in Raleigh.

Miss Miriam McCollough of Columbia, S. C., spent the past week with Mrs. Wesley R. Viall. Miss McCollough taught in the Pinehurst school for several years and made many friends here.

Leonard Barrett, who has been in New Orleans for some time, came home this week and will spend the remainder of the winter with his father, Alex Barrett.

Mrs. Mary H. Pinkerton left this week to visit her daughter in Spartanburg, S. C. Mrs. Pinkerton has been a guest in the home of her son, Dr. F. C. Pinkerton for the past two months.

Mrs. Fred Utley and Miss Caroline Battley spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

Miss Isadore Poe, who has been visiting in the Pinkerton home the past week, left Monday for her home in Greenville, S. C.

After a few weeks stay at their Pinehurst home, The Ideal Cottage, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Woods returned this week to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Catherine McNeill of Lakeview is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Sledge.

The Aberdeen Kiwanis Club held the weekly meeting and luncheon at the Community Church in Pinehurst on Wednesday. Mrs. A. P. Thompson was chairman of the committee serving and the proceeds were for the benefit of Barium Springs Orphanage.

It took Spanky McFarland, five-year-old screen "veteran" with two days' fluo "experience" to spend 45 minutes to get acquainted with Paramount's little blond picture hero, Baby LeRoy. The tots met when Spanky joined the cast of "Miss Fane's Baby is Stolen," the picture co-starring Dorothea Wieck and Alice Brady at the Pinehurst Theatre Monday, Jan. 22nd, matinee and night. LeRoy plays the role of the son of Miss Fane, movie actress who is kidnapped.

Put twenty people of widely differing temperaments and ideas, together in a great passenger bus on a trans-continental trip, and lots of fun is bound to come out of it. This is the situation which exists in "Cross Country Cruise" comedy drama which is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, January 24th, matinee and night, with Lew Ayres in the starring role. As the journey progresses wise-cracking banter flies thick and fast, with first honors going to a grouchy old gentleman who is continually irked by a steady flow of comment from a voluble fat man. A romance develops between Lew Ayres and June Knight, and less sincere ones between Alice White and various males, and the seed of jealousy flowers into a tragedy which fills the later portion of the story with thrilling moments.

A superlative four-star cast portraying a quartet of characters that match their distinctive personalities is a point whose value can't be exaggerated in favor of Paramount's "All of Me," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Friday, January 26th, matinee and night. Miriam Hopkins, Frederic March, George Raft and Helen Mack comprise this quartet of contrasts. Based on the play "Chrysalis," by Rose Albert Porter, the picture presents the highlights of four interesting lives, with Miss Hopkins possibly portraying the main character, that of a society girl with wayward inclinations.

At Southern Pines

In response to the many requests from those who were not so fortunate as to see this beautiful production at the Pinehurst Theatre, the management announces the return to the Southern Pines Theatre of "I Am Suzanne" on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, January 22, 23, 24 with a Tuesday matinee. Lilian Harvey, the diminutive continental star who met with wide public acclaim in her previous American pictures, "My Lips Betray" and "My Weakness," has the leading role. The romance, the sensational revue numbers and the photographic wonders of the picture, brand, "I Am Suzanne" as one of the most spectacular productions ever to come from Hollywood. The Podrecca Piccoli Marionettes, which are employed throughout the major part of the film, lend a unique background to the production.

Ancient Rome in all its gaily, color and glory in the setting for "Roman Scandals," Eddie Cantor's fourth annual screen musical comedy which is the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 25, 26, 27, with a Saturday matinee. Ruth Etting, Gloria Stuart and David Manners cavort with Eddie in his newest picture, successor to last year's "Kid From Spain." The pageantry and the spectacle of that distant day, with its marching legions in burnished armour, the arenas and the bloody games, the beautiful slave girls in chains and the Emperor's gorgeous favorites in garlands of flowers, the glitter and pomp of a stately court and thundering steeds tearing their chariots through clouds of dust—all helped to give Goldwyn a generous opportunity for another of the lavish productions he makes of the annual Cantor carnival of fun and splendor. Disguised in blackface, Eddie steals into the Imperial Beauty Court, where he watches the dazzling beauties glorified for the Emperor's pleasure. In the great Slave Market scene he is placed on the auction block, while Ruth Etting sings her haunting lament, "No More Love" and dancing girls in their glittering skirts of silver mesh dance a wild bacchanal.

NU-WAY LUNCH TO BE OPERATED BY ED STARNES

The Nu-Way Lunch, for the past few seasons operated by Mrs. Elizabeth Sanford, purchased this week by Ed Starnes, proprietor of Ed's Cafe, and will be operated from now on under the name of Ed's Quick Lunch. Few changes, except in the name, will be made by the new management, it was announced. The popular prices prevailing at Ed's Cafe will be continued at the lunch room and a special Sunday feature will be a turkey dinner for sixty cents.

LICENSE RECEIVED FOR PINEHURST DOG SHOW

Plans for the Third Annual Pinehurst Dog Show are rapidly being perfected. Yesterday Col. Geo. P. Hawes announced that he had received the license for the exhibition, which will be an all-treed affair. It will be held on March 26. (The date was originally announced for the 24th).

Membership in the Pinehurst Kennel Club already totals several hun-

DR. MCGEE INSTALLED AS CAMP COMMANDER, U. S. W. V.

The installation of the newly elected officers of Southern Pines Camp Number 24, United Spanish War Veterans, followed a dinner at Jack's Grill on January 11th. The installing officers were State Commander White, Department Quartermaster Smith and Department Adjutant Moore, all of Raleigh.

Officers of the camp for 1934 are: Anita Newcomb McGee, commander; Frank H. Wilson, senior vice commander; Junius M. Windham, junior vice commander; Robert Skinner, adjutant; Alice Wycoff Symbington, quartermaster; William C. Morton, historian; W. M. Milan, chaplain; Walter T. Ives, officer of the day; S. A. Hennessee, officer of the guard. State Commander White addressed the veterans complimenting them on the full attendance of the camp.

Two hitch hikers, unsuccessful in catching rides, "borrowed" a Ford station wagon from the Ford garage in Aberdeen the other day, drove it until the gas ran out, were nabbed in Hamlet, brought back to Aberdeen, given a night's lodging and freed the next morning.

cred, and an intensive drive is being put on to increase this membership materially between now and the time of the show. No initiation fee is required, the annual dues being the only charge.
