

DUKE BEATS STATE IN FESTIVAL BASEBALL GAME

 the winners. He gave up 12 hits, but at least four of these could be laid directly to faulty support of his infielders. He fanned seven and not a man received a free ticket to first. Lynn started on the mound for State, but gave way to Lefty Freeman in the third. Freeman, with two out and a man on second, was pulled out of the hole when Kirkman, center fielder, made a beautiful leaping catch of Thompson's long drive to retire the side. After this the south-paw pitched fine baseball, seldom getting in a hole.

Ferris, State catcher, got four singles in as many trips to lead the batting but Corelius of Duke, better known as a football star, secured two very timely singles to drive in three runs and take first honors with the stick.

Kirkman and Lambeth of State and Bell of Duke were the fielding stars in an otherwise indifferently-fielded game.

Theatre

At Pinehurst

Featured by a dramatic and thrilling story, colorful backgrounds and with George Raft in the role of a bull fighter and Adolphe Menjou as a reformed "Robin Hood" turned cattle baron, Paramount's "The Trumpet Blows" comes to the Pinehurst Theatre, Monday, April 16th, matinee and night. Raft, portraying a Latin youth educated in American universities, who, in spite of such an influence, still is determined to be a matador, enacts a role with convincing sincerity. Menjou, as Raft's elder brother and the most determined opponent to the latter's efforts to become a matador, portrays the swaggering and daring caballero in typical Menjou style. Frances Drake appears as a vivacious and fascinating dancer from Mexico City whose charms enamor both of the brothers, making them rivals in love as well as combatants over the issue of Raft's ambition. The story, depending upon such characters for its major appeal, turns out to be a colorful and dramatic piece of entertainment, enhanced by a climatic series of action scenes which are thrilling in the extreme.

If it is true that screen history is made by romantic teams then history is to be in the making when "Men in White" shows at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, April 18th, matinee and night. For heading the cast of the new M-G-M production is a screen team new to the theatre world Clark Gable and Myrna Loy. Richard Boleslavsky, director of the epic, struck the keynote of popular expectation when he said in a recent interview: "Clark Gable and Myrna Loy are natural complements. Alone they are halves which together make nature of each. Clark is virility itself. Myrna is feminine to the point of being feline. Such opposites as these have a natural, powerful attraction for one another. It is evident in their scenes in "Men in White." Jean Harlow made her final rise opposite Gable in "Red Dust" and, while the two women are different in many ways, they have the same basic appeal—complete femininity. I prophesy a tremendous reception for this new team because, like positive and negative polarity in electricity, when they meet there is bound to be fireworks." Critics expect the same future for the Gable-Loy team that Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery know. The cases are parallel. The forte of both Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery is bright sophistication and a youthful romantic appeal. They are alike in their magnetism. The same is true of Gable and Miss Loy. "Men in White" features a highly notable case, including Jean Hersholt, Elizabeth Allan, Otto Kruger, C. Henry Gordon, Russell Hardie, Wallace Ford, Henry B. Walthall and Russell Hopton.

Advance reports give every indication that "All Men Are Enemies," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Friday, April 20th, matinee and night, is a truly epic romance. Certainly it has all the ingredients that go to make a glorious film love story. It is based on the best seller by Richard Aldington, hailed by the critics as a treasure house of beauty. Helen Twelvetees is the heroine of the rapturous romance on the beautiful Isle of Capri. And reports from the previews are to the effect that this dramatic role brings out hitherto unsuspected depths of emotional talent. It is a mature, new Twelvetees that emerges from "All Men Are Enemies."

At Southern Pines

The attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 16, 17, 18 with a Tuesday matinee, is an adaptation of that splendid well known story by Warwick Deeping, "Sorrell and Son" featuring that sterling stage and screen star, H. B. Warner. This picture should not be confused with the former production of the same story, as this is a new production produced in England, by the makers of "Henry The Eighth" and "Catherine the Great" recently shown here. On its powerful appeal, the picture is one that should find a ready acceptance by all audiences who understand the English language. From the point of view of production values it can be said right out that if anything militates against this well-made film in the American market it will only be its foreign origin; for in all other respects it ranges as gripping stuff. Around two thousand persons gave it a rousing reception at its London preview, paying tribute to the outstandingly good acting that comes from its principals, from H. B. Warner down. The picture tells the story of Stephen Sorrell, deserted by his wife and left workless, with a young son to care for. There are many moving sequences to the film, beautifully handled by Director Jack Raymond, who has introduced a finely-judged restraint. It should be emphasized that H. B. Warner stages a definite comeback, his portrayal being even more memorable than the one he gave in the silent version.

The attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 19, 20, 21, with a Saturday matinee, is a return engagement of Clark Gable and Myrna Loy in "Men in White," a write-up of which is noted above.

Military Dance Is Enjoyable Affair

Crowd Taxes Odd Fellows Hall For Party Given by Artillerymen

One of the most enjoyable social affairs connected with the Festival was the dance given by the men of B Battery 17th F. A. at the Odd Fellows Hall last night. The dance orchestra of the Fort Bragg Military Band furnished the music for the occasion which was largely attended by the civilian population.

Refreshments were served during the evening and those attending reported one of the best times they have had this season. Capt. Reeves called time on the boys at 12.30 and they turned in to get in shape for the parade and other features of Military Day today.

A word of praise is due the members of the band—they're on the job all the time and never fail to respond to every call made upon them for their services.

The personnel of the band follows: E. J. Lacoek, band leader; C. V. Luce, assistant band leader; F. A. Thebado, O. Haveg, M. Hochstrasser, W. U. Turton, J. M. Petty, E. J. Smith, E. L. Adams, P. E. Carlton, A. J. Baybay, E. L. Barber, M. D. Blackwell, N. A. Campbell, J. H. Campbell, K. P. Campbell, C. A. Carlton, L. H. Graham, P. O. Harrison, C. H. Miller, D. N. Moorer, M. E. McCary, C. C. McRorie, G. L. Nicholas, E. H. Parker, F. C. Phillips, B. K. Traynor, Z. Watson, G. M. Woodward, J. E. Warbritton, R. L. Foster.

CARTHAGE HEADQUARTERS FOR FOUR COUNTIES

Effective April 12, the demobilization program will reach to the National Reemployment Offices, cutting the number in North Carolina from 100, one in each county, to 29. In this new regional set-up, Moore, Lee, Montgomery and Richmond counties have been grouped together and headquarters will be in Carthage with James A. Davis, who has been at the head of the reemployment office in Carthage, in charge of the four counties.

The Week in Aberdeen

Junior-Senior Banquet

Elwood R. Creel has returned from Highsmith Hospital much improved. Misses Gladys and Rose Hamilton of Hamlet and Asheboro, former teachers in the grammar school, visited Mrs. J. B. Fagan last Sunday.

Misses Frances Lee Caviness, Flora Lee Freeman, Frances Jean Freeman and Dee Batchelor, were visitors in Raleigh last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flinchum, Virginia Butner and Eustice Mills spent Sunday in Charleston, S. C., visiting the magnolia gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. McKeithen and children, Jean and Dan, Jr., of Columbia, S. C., visited home folks here last week.

Dr. and Mrs. P. U. Hawkins of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Harry L. Brown and Miss Annie Campbell of Asheboro were guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Ball at the Methodist parsonage last week.

Mrs. Charles E. Pleasants spent a couple of days in Carthage last week visiting relatives while attending Presbyterian.

Miss Hazel Windham is recuperating from a recent appendicitis operation at the Pitt Community Hospital in Greenville.

Mrs. H. E. Bowman spent several days last week in Atlanta, Ga., visiting her mother.

Miss Mildred Reid, former school teacher with a party of friends from Benson, spent last Sunday visiting Miss Edna Maurer and Bill Maurer, Jr.

Colin Bethune, USN, now stationed aboard the USS Sturtevant, is spending this week visiting his parents.

Miss Josephine Adams of Linden, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. J. Macdon.

Mrs. Donnie Pleasants and son, Charles of Hamlet, spent the weekend in town visiting Mrs. Joe Pleasants.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hendricks, one of twins died in the Hamlet hospital last Saturday, and was brought to Bethesda for burial. Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks made Aberdeen their home until a few months ago.

Mrs. Taylor of Fort Valley, Ga., is spending some time in town as the guest of her son, Jack Taylor.

Miss Annie Belle Thompson of Camden, S. C., spent the week-end here visiting her parents.

Mrs. R. C. Zimmerman and daughter, Miss Gwendolyn, spent several days in Richlands visiting friends.

Mrs. Claude T. Johnson visited Mrs. J. A. Lineberry in Raleigh last week.

Miss LaNita Wimberly accompanied a party of friends from Durham to the magnolia gardens last week.

Mrs. Bob Goodwyn and daughter, Kathleen, of Raleigh were Sunday guests of Mrs. H. A. Keith and Miss Bertie Goodwyn.

The outstanding social event of the school year was the banquet given by the juniors honoring the Senior class last Friday at the Community House, when some fifty guests were seated at tables in the spacious living-room, which had been arranged to resemble a Night Club, from which was supposedly broadcast a most enjoyable program.

The address of welcome was made by Miss Hazel Adcox, followed by a toast to the seniors by Miss Betsy Johnson, and a toast to the faculty by Miss Dee Batchelor. Splendid talks followed by H. W. Doub, chairman of the school board, and by Professor R. C. Zimmerman. Thumb Nail sketches were given by Miss Marcela Folley, the Senior Prophecies made and other interesting features of entertainment.

The musical numbers given were also most entertaining. Miss Lida Duke Blue went on the air as a "blues" singer; Miss Nancy Beddingfield as a torch singer, the Pickin's Sisters performed and Miss Millie Page gave a tap dance.

The class colors of green and white were most effectively carried out in the course dinner served, and in the decorations and favors.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Stewart Weaver entertained her bridge club and a number of guests last Thursday at her home.

High score club prize was won by Mrs. Richard Page and Miss Edna Maurer won the guest prize.

Special guests present were Mrs. Fred Flinchum Mrs. B. G. Peterson, Mrs. J. D. McLean, Mrs. Alton McLean, Mrs. Roy Harrington, Mrs. Jack Smith and Misses Edna Maurer, Lois McLeod and Bell Heilig.

Auxiliary Meeting

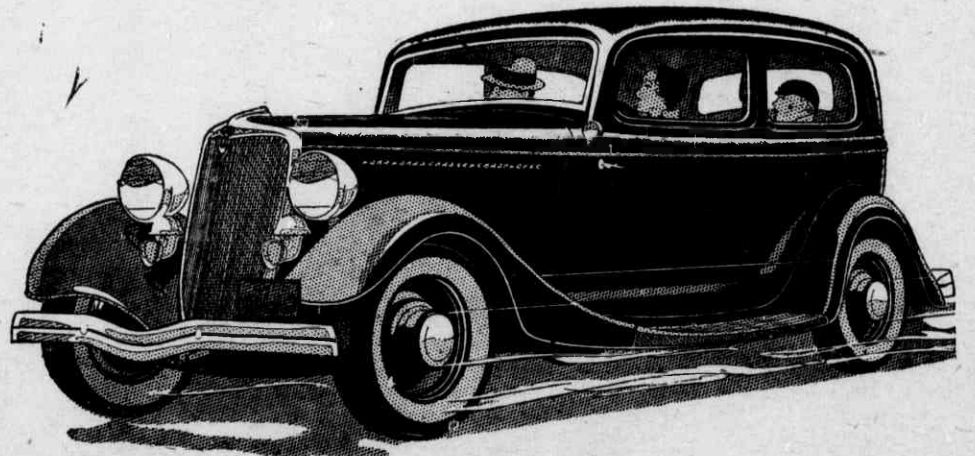

The Womens Auxiliary of Bethesda church will meet in the church Monday, April 16 at half past three o'clock. Miss Lillian Austin of the Church Mission in Korea will speak of her work there. Miss Austin is from Maxton and is a graduate of Flora Macdonald College. She taught a year in Aberdeen and her friends of every denomination are cordially invited to her her.

Match the Performance of the FORD V8 for 1934 against any Car at any Price

THE car that flashed down a Florida beach to the world's land speed record was powered by the V-type engine. The V-type engine knifed an Italian plane through the air at the record-smashing speed of more than 420 miles per hour. On the St. Clair River, the V-type engine swept-boat to the world's record of 124.8 miles per hour. And that's the type of engine that powers the Ford V-8 for 1934. It's the only V-8 engine in a car selling for less than $2,395.

That's why the Ford V-8 will streak down a highway at 50 or better. That's why it will purr along at 50 or 60 without the slightest effort. And why it is unsurpassed in acceleration by any American car! Despite its power, the new Ford V-8 is the most economical car that Ford has ever built. The new Ford V-8 gives you the riding ease of free action for all four wheels—with the safety of strong axle construction. Before you buy any car at any price, drive the new Ford V-8.
