Sound Movie Program For Community Hour

Rodeheaver, "Billy" Sunday and Other Notables To Be Seen on Screen Here Sunday

The Community Hour at 7:30 p. m. this Sunday, April 21, at the Church of Wide Fellowship offers an all talking sound-on-film program with these special features. It begins with a church service of worship in which Homer Rodeheaver will appear on the screen leading congregational singing; Dr. Dan Poling will preach the sermon, "A Challenge to Youth;" John Finley Williamson will direct the Westminster Choir, with organ music from the cathedral of St. John the Divine of New York City. This will be followed by a Lake Winona travelogue with Homer Rodeheaver as master of ceremonies, introducing the Rev. "Billy" Sunday, Mel Trotter and Paul Rader. The Winona Choir will sing and other interesting scenes at this famous religious resort will be shown.

Another reel will give a travelogue of Burma, instructive geographically and socially, showing a church of gold with millions of precious stones shining in the dome. The introductory worship service will be led by the minister, Dr. C. Rexford Raymond, and the film program will be shown by Dr. Clyde R. Wheeland of the Homer Rodeheaver Bureau of Chicago, Ill. Everyone is invited. There will be free admission with an offering to pay expenses.
