Miss Christine Allred Weds Wilmer McDonald

Only Relatives Witness Pretty Ceremony on Monday at Home of Bride's Mother

The wedding of Miss Christine Allred of Aberdeen and Wilmer McDonald of Timberland and Raeford was solemnized on Monday afternoon, May 10th at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. F. Allred on Main street in a quiet ceremony attended only by relatives of the bride and groom. The Rev. E. L. Barber, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated.

Preceding the ceremony the wedding music was played by Mrs. Alton Barber of Blasco. "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" were sung by Mrs. Dan Allred and Miss Edna Maurer. Mrs. Ralph Caldwell sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used, and "Trau-mere!" by Schumann. Then Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride entered with her brother, Dan Allred, by whom she was given in marriage. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Neill A. McDonald of Raeford, as best man.

The vows were taken before an improvised altar of pines, smilax, philadelphus blossoms and white tapers, arranged at the mantel. The decorations were of unusual beauty, arranged by Miss Bertie Rivers of Aberdeen.

The bride was becomingly dressed in an imported white net and lace dress. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She is the only daughter of Mrs. J. F. Allred and the late J. F. Allred of Aberdeen, and received her education at Queens-Chicora and Salem College.

Mr. McDonald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neill A. McDonald, Sr., of Timberland. He received his education at Davidson College and the University of North Carolina. He is the assistant cashier of the Bank of Raeford, and also owns a dry-cleaning establishment there.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. The guests were invited into the dining-room where the table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white phlox and four silver candlesticks holding burning white tapers. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. McDuffie Clark of Candor. Mrs. Grace Sloan of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Claude Burkhead of Candor served the ice-cream, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, Mrs. Joe Allred of Aberdeen and Miss Maxine Clark of Candor presided at the punch bowls. Punch was served from an old Sheraton sideboard handed down by the great grand-parents of the bride, John and Polly Chisholm Ewing.

Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left immediately after the ceremony for their wedding trip to New York and other northern points. Mrs. McDonald's going-away costume was a three-piece beige suit with fox collar and accessories to match. They will be at home in Aberdeen on their return about May 15th.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Neill A. McDonald, Sr. of Timberland, Mr. and Mrs. Neill A. McDonald, Jr. of Raeford, Lacy Clark of Raeford, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Covington, Wagram, from Candor, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burkhead, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. McDuffie Clark, Misses Maxine and Louise Clark; from Biscoe, Mrs. Alton Barber and Mrs. George Bruton, Miss Ellen Bruton of Pinehurst; Mr. and Mrs. Moses McDonald from West End, and Mrs. David Jester from Thomasville; Mrs. J. H. Ewing of Biscoe and Miss Beth McDonald of Timberland.

CARD PARTY AND SHOWER FOR CHRISTINE ALLRED

Complimentary to Miss Christine Allred, Miss Edna Maurer entertained at a most enjoyable bridge and rook party at the Community Club House last Friday evening, May 7th, which was universally conceded to be the outstanding social event of the season.

Those attending, numbering about 80, were invited into the living-room arranged with nine tables for bridge and four tables for rook. The hostess presented the honoree, Miss Allred, with a beautiful gift, and also presented Mrs. Ed. Bethune of Raeford and Mrs. O. B. Israel of Sanatorium, recent brides, with gifts. Mrs. L. T. Avery received the high score bridge prize and Mrs. D. B. Herring the high rook prize.

Following the serving of refreshments in which the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Francis Pleasants, Mrs. W. D. Caviness and Mrs. Leonard Russell, a miscellaneous surprise shower was given Miss Allred. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Dan Allred, little Miss Anne Pleasant and Francis Pleasants, Jr., dressed most appropriately as bride and groom, entered dragging behind them a huge hamper basket on wheels covered with pink and green, which contained a large number of gifts from those present and many friends throughout this section. Miss Allred made a charming speech of thanks.

WHAT YOU SAY GOES - if you say BUICK!

THIS year, good things come in eights - get into this bellwether Buick and the other fellow will know who's lead-off man in your neck of the woods!

You're boss of the bunch when you ease in gas to the great valve-in-head straight eight, ables engine of its size anywhere in the world. It's soft of voice but it packs authority - there isn't any fooling when it has work to do!

You're the envy of all eyes, garbed in Buick's princely style - handling these ready controls is the softest job in the whole wide world.

You stream down the straightaway - soar over the tallest hills - you sweep around the corners and curves erect as a dowager making her entrance - why even the back seats chatterproof, so sweetly, smoothly, serenely does this road-wise car conduct itself!

You can't hurt it - it's built rugged and stout as Buick always has been - but still we say, handle with care! For so instant-quick is its lift to your toe-touch, so quietly easy will it outwing the birds, that you never have to force it to make your distance safely with time to spare.

This year say Buick - and whatever you say on the open road will go with the whole parade. Its purchase is as easily managed as its feather-light controls - for today Buick is priced at the lowest figure in history.

Your cue now is to see us. Do that without delay and you'll hold the center of the stage all summer long!
