Report Shows Busy Year By Maternal Welfare Committee

Work of Miss Margaret McQueen, Prenatal Nurse, Praised by State Officials

That splendid work is being accomplished by the Moore County Maternal Welfare Committee is evident from the report of its activities which reached The Pilot this week. A total of 347 field nursing visits were made by Miss Margaret McQueen, prenatal nurse, during her first year's work, ty clinics between last September and June. Two hundred and four in- and 390 visits were made to maternal- individuals attended these clinics. No deaths occurred from June of last year to April, three since April 1st.

No deaths were reported from estompsia or puerperal septicemia, the two arch-killers of North Carolina mothers. Four cases of eclampsia were reported, all of which were sent to the hospital. Miss McQueen, in her reports, expresses the belief that two of the three deaths occurring might have been prevented had the patients reported earlier to the clinics for treatment. The third death was that of a prospective mother who was suffering from tuberculosis and not chargeable to obstetrical cause.

Dr. Cowper, maternity and infancy head of the State Department of Health, has highly commended Miss McQueen's work in the county. The county committee feels that the people of the county can assist Miss McQueen in her good work and prevent further deaths by reporting to Miss McQueen every indigent maternity case, or by bringing the patients to the clinics. The dates and places of clinics are:

West End, 1st Thursday in the month; Cameron, 2d Tuesday; Hemp, 3d Tuesday; Pinehurst, 4th Wednesday; Carthage, 4th Friday.

BIG CASH PREMIUMS FOR COUNTY FAIR EXHIBITS

The premium list of this year's Moore County Agricultural Fair is being worked up and the largest cash premiums ever offered are to be given this year. Mrs. M. C. Liske, of Mt. Gilead is in charge of the advertising in the book this year. It will be in the hands of every farmer in Moore county within a short while and will portray in detail everything to be expected and offered at this year's fair.

Special emphasis will be given booths put on by the schools of the county. Secretary Waddill believes that by getting the younger folks of the county interested in this feature of the fair it will lay a foundation for better fairs in the future.

The entertainment and amusement features of the fair have been contracted for and Moore county residents are promised the very best in acts and amusements ever staged in this part of the state.

The Pilot will carry full details of the fair's program in later editions and anyone seeking any information regarding any part of the fair are asked to communicate with either Secretary Paul Waddill or Herbert F. Seawell, Jr., president of the Fair Association, Carthage.

Kiwanis Speaker

A. B. CAMERON

Kiwanis Hears Scope of County Welfare Work

A. B. Cameron Lists Multitudinous Duties of Mrs. Gilliam Brown, Superintendent

Former County Superintendent of Schools A. B. Cameron outlined to members of the Sandhills Kiwanis Club on Wednesday the multitudinous duties involved in handling the welfare work in Moore county, and paid a high tribute to Mrs. Gilliam Brown of Carthage, the county's welfare superintendent. He went into the history of the development of this work in the county from the time Mrs. H. F. Seawell started her volunteer efforts for the needy, up through the stages when the superintendent of schools was responsible, then the first concentrated effort of an official nature under Miss Lucile Eifort of West End, and finally the inauguration of a full time welfare head two years ago when Mrs. Brown was appointed.

Mr. Cameron enumerated some of the duties Mrs. Brown has to perform: keeping children in school; visiting the schools, the prison camp and the county home; providing clothing for indigent children that they may go to school; seeing that they have textbooks; investigating the moral condition of communities; arranging for entrance into training schools and asylums of those who must be sent away; visitation of sick people on relief; care of crippled children; providing medicine for indigents; investigating the needs of ex-soldiers and their families; the dispensation of food and clothing to needy families; seeking jobs for youths; keeping an eye on paroled prisoners; the burial of the dead in poor families.

These were but a few, Mr. Cameron said, of the jobs which keep Mrs. Brown and her staff of the Welfare office busy. On top of these now have come additional duties involved around the Social Security Act, old age pensions, aid for the blind and dependent children.

Mrs. Brown herself was to have been the speaker at Wednesday's Kiwanis meeting, held in Mrs. Huntley's Coffee Shop in Aberdeen, but stress of her duties, coupled with the sad death of her nephew, Patrolman George Penn, forced her to cancel her engagement. Mr. Cameron, of the welfare staff, speaking in her stead.

MISS "PAT" LUMPKIN IS BRIDE OF HAROLD P. WEAVER

Miss Virginia Dabney Lumpkin, of Richmond, Va., former member of the faculty of Southern Pines School, and Harold Pendleton Weaver, son of Mrs. Ada K. Weaver of Aberdeen, were married on Wednesday, August 18th in the famous Little Church Around the Corner in New York City, according to announcements received here this week. Mrs. Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dabney Lumpkin of Richmond, taught in the local school for several terms and was a popular member of the younger social set here who knew her as "Pat" Lumpkin. She formerly lived in Danville, Va.

Mr. Weaver is a graduate of Aberdeen High School and attended the University of North Carolina. He is now employed in Chapel Hill where the young couple will make their residence.

Richard Tufts, president of Pinehurst, Inc., played in the national amateur golf tournament in Portland, Oregon last week. He is expected to return to Pinehurst shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCullough, winter residents of Pinehurst, spent several days here during the past week.

Theatre

Gay Loretta Young, more captivating than ever, with handsome, dashing Don Ameche, who thrills millions as the hit star of radio's biggest Sunday night air-show, go romancing tempestuously in turbulent Spain in the 20th Century-Fox fast moving comedy-drama of romance, intrigue and mad adventure, "Love Under Fire," the attraction at the Southern Pines Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 6, 7, 8, at 8:20 p. m.

Borrah Minevitch and his gang, harmonica wizards who scored a tremendous success in "One In A Million," are featured with Frances Drake, Walter Catlett, John Carradine, Sig Rumann and Harold Hube in the supporting cast.

Bewildering things happen to a Scotland Yard officer who is ordered to arrest a girl with whom he flirts. The situation becomes more absorbing when a revolution breaks about them. The story hits a fast pace when, with the aid of adventure, music and plenty of comedy, it develops into a game of hide and seek to find who has looted the valuable jewels.

The film's rich comedy is expertly handled by Borrah Minevitch and his harmonica band, while Walter Catlett and E. E. Clive deliver characterizations patrons will talk about.

Kipling's colorful characters live glamorously, adventurously and courageously on adventure's last frontier in the picturization of his famed "Wee Willie Winkie," the attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday September 9, 10, 11, with a Saturday matinee, with Shirley Temple and Victor McLaglen in the starring roles. From the heart of mighty India, where all the world is wild and strange, where the British raj ends at Khyber Pass, in the land of the Bengal Lancers, comes this glorious adventure of the Scottish Highlanders in action and of the little girl who won the right to wear their plaid.

The most spectacular production in which Shirley Temple has yet appeared, "Wee Willie Winkie" gives Victor McLaglen a powerful role of a fearless, fighting fool and provides splendid opportunity to C. Aubrey Smith, fighting fool and provides splendid opportunity to C. Aubrey Smith, June Lang, Michael Whalen, Cesar Romero, Constance Collier and young Douglas Scott.

Not only can this be hailed as diminutive Miss Temple's best picture, but it establishes beyond a doubt that Shirley is far from relinquishing her stranglehold on the claim to being motion pictures' best bet.

G-MEN ON TRAIL OF PAYNE, WANTED FOR PENN MURDER

(Continued from page one) Miss Lola Hedges, 16, and Sam Wolfe, 19, both of Swannanoa, were about to enter their car at an Asheville recreation park when they were confronted by a man who forced them, at the point of a gun, to drive him to Thomasville.

The highwayman was hungry, they said, and he apparently had not eaten for some time. They stopped for a sandwich, they added, and the highwayman became ill. At Thomasville, Payne freed the couple and, after warning them not to notify police within three hours, gave them $20 in one-dollar bills. Miss Hedges, who identified Payne from pictures, said that he had told them he had over $600 in his possession.

Last Saturday night V. C. Blount, a Lexington cotton mill worker, was driving toward his Thomasville home when a car drew alongside and three men, armed with either sub-machine guns or sawed-off shot guns, commanded his car, placed a hood over his face and drove him to the outskirts of Siler City where they robbed him of $20, set him free, burned his car and drove away.

In the meantime, police in Darlington, S. C., announce the arrest of Dan Cox, wanted in Asheville for questioning in connection with Penn's murder. Cox is alleged to have been the purchaser of a sawed-off shot gun found in a cab abandoned in Asheville shortly after the slaying.

At the same time, Mrs. Cox and her brother-in-law, Cleo Clark, were arrested in Fayetteville. Mrs. Cox was questioned briefly there and taken out of town, presumably to Asheville. Clark was left in jail in Fayetteville. He is a filling station attendant there, with an excellent reputation as a quiet, hard working young man.

HERE TO INSPECT STABLES

Frederick H. Burke of New York and Will J. Stratton of Princeton, N. J., were here on Wednesday to inspect work on the new Stony Brook stables on Youngs Road. They plan to ship their horses down from Princeton early in October.

CHURCH NOTES

The announcement in last week's Pilot that services would be held at 10:00 o'clock on Sunday mornings during September in the Community Church at Pinehurst, instead of at 11:00, was in error. There will be the usual 11:00 o'clock worship services during the month, with Sunday School at 9:45. The Rev. Mr. McKelway, pastor, has returned from Montreal.

The subject of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science Church on Sunday morning, at 11:00 o'clock, will be "Man." The Christian Science Church is located on New Hampshire avenue near Ashe street, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

During the Rev. J. Fred Stimson's vacation absence, the Rev. Frank Moore of Wake Forest college will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church in Southern Pines. Mr. Moore will preach the sermon at the regular service on Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

"PEACHES" LOSE CLOSE GAME TO DUNN-ERWIN AT NIGHT

(Continued from page one) Gardner retired and Pierce took up the pitching assignment for Dunn-Erwin. Edgar Parker was the first man to face him and he struck out to retire the side and kill the Peaches' rally.

Dunn-Erwin made four hits from the combined deliveries of Thomas and Auman, and the Peaches touched Gardner and Pierce for three singles. Both teams erred twice in the field and there were five wild pitches chalked up against the four pitchers.

The box score: Peaches 100 020 0-3 3 2 Dunn-Erwin 310 000 0-4 4 2 Note book covers, Ring Books and Brief Cases from 10 cents to $8.95 at Hayes.
