CHURCHES

Edwin C. Gillette, D. D., superintendent of the Southeast District of the Congregational Church Extension Boards, will preach next Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock service in the Church of Wide Fellowship. Before his election to this position Dr. Gillette was pastor of the First Congregational Church of Jacksonville, Florida; his earlier ministry was in Connecticut. He is much sought after as a speaker in the conventions and conferences of his church.

At the Brownson Memorial Presbyterian church, the Adult Bible class meets at 9:45 Sunday morning, with the Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D. D. as teacher. At 7:30 in the evening, the Rev. E. L. Barber will preach, using as his subject, "Gods Fellow-Workers." These services are in the Civic Club.

Dr. J. Elwood Wish of Orangeburg, S. C., who has been conducting services at the Southern Pines Baptist Church this week, will preach Friday and Saturday at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. and on Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock service.

"Mind" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon this Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the Christian Science Church. There will be a free lecture on Christian Science at the church next Thursday, February 24th at 8:00 p. m.

The Village Chapel, Pinehurst announces with distinct pleasure that the Rev. Dr. William Adams Brown of Union Theological Seminary, New York will preach at 11:00 o'clock this Sunday morning. Dr. Brown is a world character and leader, the author of many books and president of the Oxford Conference. His subject will be, "The Re-discovery of the Church, at the Oxford and Edinburgh Conferences." At the recital before the service, Miss Marialta Huron will play several sacred selections on the xylophone. The public is invited.

The Rev. Samuel Holden, who served the Church of Wide Fellowship in Southern Pines for many years, is preaching at the Trinity Chapel, A. M. Zion Church in West Southern Pines on Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. The members of this colored congregation cordially invite their white friends to hear Mr. Holden.

ABERDEEN P.T.A. LISTS PRIZES FOR COMMENCEMENT

(Continued from page one) on Friday night, at which time it is hoped funds will be raised to swell the treasury and provide funds with which to carry the hot lunches project on for the balance of the school year. Mrs. D. J. McLeod, chairman, announced that 886 free lunches and 1,148 paid lunches were served since her last month's report.

Miss Vysta Markham of the County Health Department made a short talk on the Summer Round-up Pre-School Clinic for schools in Moore county, and asked the P. T. A. to help in making this a success. A committee composed of Mrs. Claude Covington, Mrs. F. A. Cummings and Mrs. A. K. Pennington were appointed to assist Miss Markham in arranging for this worthwhile clinic, and select a date that will be convenient to all parties concerned.

Miss Flaherty, ably supported by Mr. Ipock, coach, made a plea for better quarters for basketball games, in which Tony Huntley and Miss Marshall Page joined. They put before the association the need of a gymnasium, and announced their plans for rummage sales, bridge parties, etc., to help build an up-to-date gymnasium during the summer for next year all of which the association pledged support. A finance committee with Mrs. E. L. Barber as its chairman was appointed to work with the Athletic Association in devising ways and means to acquire this gymnasium.

A nominating committee with Mrs. Gordon Keith, chairman, was appointed to select officers to serve the P. T. A. next year to be announced at the next meeting to be held in Pinebluff. The Pinebluff members presented the cookies at this meeting to the eighth grade for having the largest percentage of mothers present.

GYMKHANA SUNDAY, BALL TUESDAY AT THE CAROLINA

Pinehurst will be active over the Washington Birthday holiday. There will be a gymkhana at the Carolina ring Sunday afternoon and on Tuesday night the hotel is having its annual Washington's Birthday Ball, preceded by a special dinner with favors and noisemakers.

Misses Louise Barker of the Sanatorium and Rachel Dixon of Aberdeen, accompanied by Ralph Graham, motored to Oxford last Sunday to visit friends.

Grand Opera Company, Edgar Bergen and "Charlie McCarthy," Phil Baker, Jerome Cowan, Bobby Clark, Frank Shields, the American Ballet of the Metropolitan Opera and the Goldwyn Girls and the Ritz Brothers. Its last word in musicals and a wow. Its two hours long; be there on time!

Paramount long ago discovered the proper ingredients and the right amount of each to stir into its annual "Big Broadcast" extravaganza. The 1938 edition, which is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, February 23rd, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., is much better blending of the same elements than any of its predecessors. Headlong comedy is the base. Stirred up with it are varying qualities of music, dancing, specialties, romance and picturesque spectacle. The brilliant cast of top radio and film stars include W. C. Fields, Dorothy Lamour, Shirley Ross, Martha Raye, Ben Blue, Bob Hope, Lynne Overman, Leif Erikson, Grace Bradley and Tito Guizar, with specialties by Mme. Kirsten Flagstad of the Metropolitan Opera Company and Shep Fields and his Rippling Rhythm Orchestra.

"Gold Is Where You Find It," the all-technicolor production, starring George Brent and Olivia de Havilland is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Friday, February 25th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. This production should be of special interest to the Sandhills due to the fact that the story is by Clements Ripley who formerly lived in this section. It is a story of the famous feud between the wheat growers and the hydraulic miners of California during the 1870's. The beauty of this north California country receives full justice on the screen, for it is photographed in full color.

A Southern Pines

That most delightful comedy of the season, "Paradise For Three" is playing a return engagement at Southern Pines, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, (three days) Feb. 21, 22, 23, with a Tuesday matinee at 3:00 and a "good time by all" is positively guaranteed. Frank Morgan, Robert Young, Mary Astor, Edna May Olivier, Reginald Owen and Florence Rice, ably assisted by Herman Bing and Henry Hull, will keep any audience in stitches from beginning to end.

"Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs" is playing a return engagement at Southern Pines, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, (three days) February 24, 25, 26, at 8:20 p. m. with matinees on Thursday and Saturday at 3:00. The contract for "Snow White" compels the management to increase the matinee prices to 30c for adults and 15c for children, and no children will be admitted (regardless of age) without tickets. There is no advance in the night prices.

Theatre

At Pinehurst

The Carolina Theatre management announces M. G. M.'s great $5,000 prize contest picture, (which by the way was won by a Greenville, S. C. boy) "Of Human Hearts," with Walter Huston, James Stewart, Beulah Bondi, Guy Kibbee, and Ann Rutherford, in the leading roles. Adapted from Honore Morrow's book, "Benefits Forgot" it is honest drama of the old school in which man were what they might be. Directed by Clarence Brown—he waited 18 years for the chance—it packs the wholesome wallop of Town Hall Tonight melodrama with none of the spurious emotionalism of shoddy theatrics of the road company. The Film Daily critic says, "It is a type of production that intelligent and thoughtful theatre-goers will welcome, for it gets down to the fundamental emotions and the things that are really worth while in human relationships, especially those of the family." "Of Human Hearts" is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre Sunday night, February 20th, at 8:30 p. m.

Just as The Pilot was going to press a wire was received confirming Samuel Goldwyn's great new Technicolor Musical extravaganza, "The Goldwyn Follies" for Pinehurst on Monday, February 21st at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., giving Pinehurst two "top" pictures within two weeks, "Snow White," which has now been seen and now "Goldwyn's Follies." The cast includes Adolphe Menjou, Zorina, Kenny Baker, Andrea Leeds, Helen Jepson of the Metropolitan
