At Pinehurst

Co-Starring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy for the fourth time, "The Girl of The Golden West," a musical panorama of early California, is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Sunday night, March 20th, at 8:30 and Monday, March 21, at 2:00 and 8:30 p. m. Based upon the original stage play by David Belasco, the picture is presented against the romantic background of the colorful gold mine camps of 1850.

"A Slight Case of Murder," by Daman Runyon, a farce film that makes fun of the whole business of gangsterism and racketeering, is scheduled as the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, March 23rd at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. Edward G. Robinson is the star, but he's no menacing, gun-totting, sinister underworld character this time; he's a fellow who was a beer-baron in dry days and now, since repeal, has been trying to get along as a legitimate brewer. An added attraction is the new March of Time. America's famous Jones family cut America's famous Jones family cuts loose in an uproarious frenzy of grand comedy in "Love On A Budget," the attraction at Pinehurst Friday, March 25th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. This picture takes up the business of Bonnie and her bridegroom starting out where the honeymoon left off. Clean, wholesome, humorous and exciting.
