At Pinehurst

A new co-starring team makes its screen appearance at the Pinehurst Theatre, Monday, April 25th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. with the initial performance in the comedy, "Women Are Like That."

Curiously, although they have been at the same studio for several years, the lovely, dark Francis and the genial, rapid-talking Irishman, Pat O'Brien, have never before worked in a picture together.

Pat and Kay are said to make an ideal movie-team. "Women Are Like That" is a gay comedy revolving around a colorful and exciting advertising business. You can imagine Pat with his staccato patter selling advertising accounts and you can also fancy Kay wielding her feminine charms for the same purpose.

A frolicsome comedy, studded with sparkling new songs, under the title of "College Swing," is the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, April 27th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. which stars Burns and Allen, Bob Hope and many others. The dizzy antics that take place on a great college campus when the school dumbbell inherits the University and makes over the place in her own image, form the plot background, with Gracie the happy-go-lucky "educator" and Bob Hope the sly student who shows her how to get by with a minimum of brains and a maximum of nerve. Among the big supporting cast are Edward Everett Horton, Ben Blue, Betty Grable, Jackie Coogan, the Slate Brothers, Bob Mitchell and the St. Brendens Choristers, Tully Marshall and Martha Raye.

The long awaited for production, which promises to be one of the outstanding pictures of the year is coming to Pinehurst Friday, April 29th at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

It is none other than "The Test Pilot," starring Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy, with Lionel Barrymore. In addition there is a story characterized by warm human quality, with the dual phases of a man's love for a woman, one, even more important to the strength of the story, the devotion of two hard-living men for each other, one the test pilot and the other his mechanic.

At Southern Pines

The Southern Pines Theatre will again play return engagements of the "high-lights," including Joan Blondel and Melvyn Douglas in "There's Always A Woman" on Monday and Tuesday, April 25, 26, with a Tuesday matinee; the ever glorious "Maytime" with Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald, on Wednesday and Thursday, April 27, 28, with a Thursday matinee, and Gary Cooper and Claudette Colbert in "Bluebeards Eighth Wife," on Friday and Saturday, April 29, 30, with a Saturday matinee.

Carl Goerch Speaker at Vass Alumni Banquet

Editor Compliments Organization.—Melvin Cameron Elected President for 1938

One of the most enjoyable banquets ever staged by the Vass-Lakeview Alumni Association was that of last Saturday evening, held in Hotel Charmella with Carl Goerch, well known newspaper editor and radio commentator of Raleigh as the principal speaker. The two dining rooms were thrown together for the occasion and the tables were decorated in blue and white, the school colors.

Mrs. C. P. McMillan, president, made the address of welcome and presided. The entire program of toasts and responses centered around the Sandhills, and was as follows: "Dogwood" (to alumni) by Mrs. W. E. Gladstone; "Pottery" (response) by Mrs. P. A. Wilson; "Dewberry Blossoms" (to school) by Melvin Cameron; "The Dewberry" (response) by A. M. Calhoun; "Peach Blossoms" (to seniors) by Herman Parker; "Peaches" (response) by Pauline Jessup, Miss Marian Cameron provided the "Music of the Pines" by playing a beautiful piano solo.

Mrs. McMillan presented W. Duncan Matthews, Southern Pines attorney who formerly was superintendent of the Vass-Lakeview school as "Guide" and he introduced the "Tourist," Carl Goerch.

Mr. Goerch held the undivided attention of the banqueters and a group of townspeople who had assembled in the lobby for his address, as he told many of his funny experiences and interesting stories of oddities which he had discovered in his travels through the state. He congratulated the group on its fine organization.

"I've traveled over the State a great deal," the speaker said, "but so far as I know, yours is the only active high school organization of its kind in the state."

J. Hawley Poole was introduced and he spoke briefly.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected, as follows: President, Melvin Cameron; vice-president, Herbert Eastwood; secretary-treasurer, H. Clifton Blue.

Pageant Delightfully Presented by Forum

"Into Thy Kingdom" Last of Series of Productions of Fellowship Players

"Into Thy Kingdom," the Easter drama presented Sunday evening at the Church of Wide Fellowship, will be remembered as the culmination of the successful series of plays produced this season by the Fellowship Forum. The pageant itself was of a deeply spiritual and moving quality, portraying as it did the crisis in the lives of a group of people centered about Joseph Calphus and his wife Adina in the troubled days immediately following the death of Christ.

L. L. Woolley as Calphus and Dorothy Tate as Adina enacted two most difficult roles with power and emotional appeal; and the supporting cast, Wilbur Whitlock, M. F. Grantham, Blanche Sherman, Charles Boney, Virginia Kane, and Harold Tate, gave unity and beauty to the production as a whole. The setting, with the three crosses in the distance against the sunrise, and the costumes, by Mrs. Harry Pethick and Miss Birdilla Bair, were of exceptional merit. The play was given under the direction of Algene E. Hoskins. The Forum wishes to thank the many friends who made its success possible.
