

Five Reckless Drivers Sentenced by Recorder

One Had To Steal Car To Drive Recklessly To Get Arrested

In Recorder's Court Monday, Samuel R. Ritchey, white of Aberdeen, entered a plea of guilty to charges of assaulting his wife, driving an automobile while intoxicated, and possessing and transporting liquor unlawfully. He was given eight months on the roads and his driver's license was revoked for twelve months.

R. W. Boles, white, of Carthage, paid the costs in a drunken driving case and was given some time in which to pay the $50 fine, which was required in order to have his 30-day sentence suspended. His driver's license was revoked for a year.

Dannie Lee Sanders, white, of the Hemp section, was given 60 days on the roads for careless and reckless driving, this to be suspended upon payment of a fine of $25 and the costs.

Hobert McKenzie, white, of Pinehurst, found guilty of drunken driving and the unlawful possession and transporting of liquor, was fined $50 and the costs and his driver's license was revoked for twelve months. The sheriff was ordered to destroy the half-gallon of liquor.

For the temporary larceny of an automobile, Charlie Hunter, colored, of Pinehurst, was given 60 days on the roads. He must serve a 30-day term at the expiration of the 60 days for driving without proper brakes and driver's license and at an excessive rate of speed.

ABERDEEN SCHOOLS TO OPEN ON NEXT MONDAY MORNING

The Aberdeen Grammar and High Schools will open at 9:00 o'clock next Monday morning, September 12th, with devotional exercises conducted at the grammar school by the Rev. S. J. Starnes, and similar services at the high school by the Rev. E. M. Harris. The same faculty will teach in both schools this coming season, with the exception of the music teacher, which place will be filled by Miss Lena Stewart of Pinebluff. A commercial course is added to the school's curriculum, and will be conducted by Miss Mildred Mashburn of Greensboro. Miss Ila Blue of Aberdeen will be school librarian this year.

CHURCH NOTES

Services at Emmanuel Church this Sunday morning will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8:00 and a special service with address by the rector at 11:00. The latter service marks the beginning of the fall term of the Church School and should be of interest and importance to every member of the congregation, young and old. All members of the congregation and the Church School are urged to be present. Particularly important is it that parents of Church School pupils be present with their children.

The sermon theme of the pastor this Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock at the Church of Wide Fellowship will be "None Live Alone."

"The Gospel of Power" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. J. Fred Stinson Sunday morning at the Southern Pines Baptist Church.

"Substance" is the subject for the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science Church, East New Hampshire avenue, this Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday School meets at 11:09 o'clock a. m. at the church.
