

Cameron Enrollment Tops Last Year's High

Elementary and High Schools Open With 452 and Four New Courses

The Cameron school opened September 5, with an increased enrollment and curriculum. The enrollment for the first month of 1937-38 was: Elementary School, 306; High School, 107; Total, 413. The figures this year are: Elementary School, 336; High School, 116; Total, 452.

Among the new courses offered are Chemistry, Typing, Public School Music, and Physical Education.

There are also three new faculty members: Malcolm Wall of Enfield, French and Social Science and director of athletics. He is an alumnus of the University of North Carolina and a graduate of William and Mary College. His athletic record shows him to be well fitted to direct the enlarged physical educational program which is designed to reach all students as well as to develop good athletic teams. Mr. Wall is proving quite as able in the classroom as on the playground.

Miss Edna Stallings of Louisville, an extra teacher earned by an increased enrollment last year, teaches public school music. She attended Louisville College, Cox College Conservatory, was graduated in piano and voice at Southern Conservatory, and took special work in public school music at W. C. U. N. C. Prior to coming here she taught music for several years and last year did radio work at Wilson. Miss Stallings is doing excellent work with both music and glee club.

Miss Beulah Thomas of Cameron is teaching the sixth grade. She attended Appalachian State Normal School and received her B. S. degree from George Peabody. Miss Thomas has taught at Broadway and Henderson.

CAMERON

The home economics class of the Deep River School won first prize in the exhibits of home economic departments at the Lee County Agricultural Fair last week. Miss Flora Phillips of Cameron is the popular and efficient head of this department.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Religious Education of the Presbyterian Church, Pete Phillips was named superintendent of the Sunday School and Cone McPherson teacher of the Men's Bible class. Mr. Phillips is a young man of sterling worth, a graduate of P. J. C., Maxton. Mr. McPherson is a graduate of the well-known McCallie School of Chattanooga, Tenn., and was winner of the Bible medal. Both of these young men are well equipped for Sunday School work. The school has recently been reorganized and graded under the supervision of Ernest Arnold.

Donald McDonald, who has been superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday School for a number of years, and periodically tendered his resignation, which the church declined to accept, finally succeeded in having it accepted by the Board of Religious Education at its last meeting. The secretary and treasurer paid a well deserved tribute to Mr. McDonald last Sunday morning, commending and thanking him for his long, faithful service and ardent zeal and deep interest. The whole school rose as Mr. McDonald was unanimously elected honorary superintendent.

Mesdames J. M. Guthrie, H. P. McPherson, Loula Muse and Miss Manda McPherson attended Group Conference at Red Springs last week.

Misses Mary E. McNeill, Mamie Arnold and Mrs. M. D. McKiver attended the home-coming at Old Bluff Church last Sunday.

Mrs. L. B. McKeithen and Miss Jackie Muse spent last Friday in Clarkton. They stopped on their return in Raeford and called on Dr. and Mrs. A. L. O'Brien. The many Cameron friends are delighted to know that Dr. O'Brien's health has been restored and he has resumed his practice in Raeford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tally of Siler City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally.

Prof. J. Clyde Kelly and Herbert Alexander of Trap Hill spent the week-end with Prof. Kelly's family.

Ingram of Sanford, and Mrs. Joe Allen and Mrs. S. H. Miller of Carthage.

Celebrates Fifth Birthday
Little Miss Rose Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lee Miller, celebrated her fifth birthday at her home on Thursday afternoon. A number of interesting games, under the direction of Miss Maxine Jackson and Miss Frances Golden, were enjoyed by the children. Following the games the little guests were invited into the dining room and ice cream and cake were served. Each guest received an attractive favor. Those enjoying the occasion were Max Way, Annie Currie, Jackie McQueen, Helen Street McDonald, Buddy Baker, Katharine Cox, Maxine Jackson, Frances Golden, Worth McDonald, Mary Louise McDonald, Ann Sheffield, Nancy Wallace, Carolyn Hall, Johnny Beasley, Helen Henson, Margaret Neal Carter, Henry Thomas Henson, Lullie Wise, Patricia Thomas, Sandy Thomas, Becky Wallace, Mary Ellen Smith, Bobby Stewart, Joan Mathis.

CONSENT JUDGMENT IN SHAW ACCIDENT CASE
In Superior Court at Carthage this week, in a case entitled John Chalmers Shaw, next friend of James Edward Shaw, versus R. W. Powers and Fletcher Maynard, a consent judgment was entered, it appearing that the defendants had paid the bill for hospital and medical treatment which Shaw received as a result of automobile accident injuries, in the amount of $117, and had agreed to pay $200 net and the cost of the action.

A judgment of non-suit was rendered in the case of Charles McLaughlin, who through his next friend, Carson McLaughlin, was seeking to recover damages from John M. Black. Notice of appeal to the higher court was given.

With the consent of all parties, an order was passed that all creditors and claimants of the defendant Pinehurst Finance Corporation shall present their claims against the defendant in the manner as provided for under the former order on or before the 21st of November in lieu of the 25th of October.

Hammond Brothers were awarded judgment in the sum of $790.95 against E. T. Williams, who served notice of appeal.
