

Fellowship League Has Hay Ride, Weiner Roast

Sixty Southern Pines Young People Enjoy Gay Trip To Manley Springs-Pinehurst

One of the merriest parties of the fall season was the weenie roast and truck ride held Friday night by the Youth Fellowship League of the Church of Wide Fellowship. Two truck loads of young people left Southern Pines at 7:30 for Manley Springs, where a roaring fire awaited them, with stacks of hot dogs, rolls, marshmallows and toasting sticks. Supper and a round of games were followed by a truck ride to Pinehurst—complete with a bale of hay and a moon. About sixty members of the League and their guests were present. Their chaperones were the Rev. and Mrs. Voight Taylor, Don Jones, and Ruth Burr Sanborn. Among those who attended were: Leonard Daniels, Betsy Barnum, Richard Plummer, Catherine Prizer, Stanley Austin, Mary Grey, Charles Austin, Louise Crain, Raymond Hayes, Ruth Swett, Lawrence Johnson, Dorothy Dorn, Clyde Alexander, Marjorie Jellison, Clyde Dunn, Helen Cameron, Lyle McDonald, Katherine Ferguson, Harry Adams, Mary Alice Tate, Dick Pethick, Rebecca Neal, Duncan Matthews, Alice Eddy, David Spears, Barbara Plummer, Wilbur Sheipers, Frances Council, Bobby Dunn, Janice Kimball, Charles Hackney, 'Pat' Mason, Ross Grey, Marjorie Shepard, Alec Cameron, Sue Ann Milliken, Alfred Chiswell, Ernestine Bailey, Douglas Bailey, Mary Katherine Crain, Robert Bailey, Marie Porter, Bob Johnson, Helen Hilderman, Joe Swett, Helen Grey, E. J. Starnes, Phillis Harwell, Bob Kolb, Catherine Backer, Ralph Daniels, Catherine Newton, Jimmy Ross, Nancy Wren, Ernest Maier and Virginia Broome.

CIVIC CLUB BRIDGE TEA AT TROUSDELL RESIDENCE

On Friday afternoon, November 25th, at 2:30 the day after Thanksgiving, the Civic Club will give a bridge tea at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Trousdel. Tables should be arranged as soon as possible and reservations made with Mrs. John Berry, Mrs. Trousdel or Miss Laura Kelsey. Reservations must be made, but single players will be placed if they desire.

Southern Pines Library In Midst of New Program of Expansion

New Filing System, New Books, New Activities Mark Birth of New Service to Community

By Katherine Martin, Librarian

The Southern Pines Library is a subscription library and has occupied a prominent place in the community since it was founded in 1922. The library now has a book stock of over 11,000 volumes, which is well above other towns of the same size.

The books are now being reclassified and cataloged. The Dewey Decimal classification is being used and the books will fall into the following class: 000, General Works; 100, Philosophy; 200, Religion; 300, Sociology; 400, Philology; 500, Natural Science; 600, Useful Arts; 700, Fine Arts; 800, Literature; 900, History. The cataloging process requires that subject, author, and title cards be made for each book. These cards are filed alphabetically and the final result is a card catalog which is a key to all the information in the library.

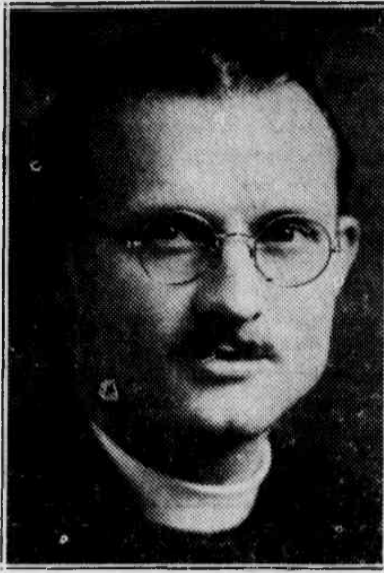

A vertical file service has been started in the library. Such a service is made up of free and inexpensive material in the form of pamphlet circulars, reports, brochures, etc. This material is carefully indexed and kept in pamphlet boxes. It includes pictures, clippings, and pamphlets and all of this material circulates just as the books do. It supplements the information in books and brings it up to date.

A request list is kept at the desk. For a small fee you may have the book you want reserved. If the library does not have the book you want, your request is given to the Book Committee to be considered for purchase.

Children's Books

This fall, a great deal of time and thought is being put upon the children's collection of books. A great effort is being made to increase this part of the book stock. Much is being done toward this end this week—Children's Book Week. The Student membership was inaugurated, 21 new books were purchased for the children's room, and two Story Hour parties were held at the library on Monday and Tuesday afternoons. These parties were highly successful, for about 100 boys and girls attended, and showed a great deal of interest in the new books and the displays, as well as the stories.

The library has a very satisfactory reference service for a town its size. The library buys no magazines or newspapers because of the limited budget, but there is a goodly number of each every month, donated by very kind members.

The Southern Pines Library takes pride in the fact that it keeps up so well with the newest fiction and non-fiction. A book order is sent off each month and those books are purchased which will allow you to keep "up" with the newest additions to the world of books. For instance, in the last three months the library has added such titles as the following to its shelves: "The Horse and Buggy Doctor," by Hertzler; Rebecca," by du Maurier; "All This and Heaven Too," by Field; "Listen! The Wind," by Lindbergh; "My Son, My Son," by Spring; "With Malice Toward Some," by Halsey; "Power," by Russell; "Benjamin Franklin," by Van Doren; "Three Guineas," by Woolf; "The Coming Victory of Democracy," by Mann; "The General's Lady," by Forbes; "And Tell of Time," by Krey; "Edwin Arlington Robinson," by Hagedorn; "A People's History of England," by Morton; and "The Fifth Column and the First Forty-nine Stories," by Hemingway. These are only a few of the titles.

Informal Atmosphere

The library rooms, consisting of the non-fiction room, reading room, stack room, and children's room, are in the same building with the town clerk's office. It has a very informal atmosphere, and though the building is old, these rooms have been remodeled so that they are quite attractive.

It is hoped that the library will be put upon a public basis in the near future. As it stands now, however, there are three types of memberships: the Student, which is 50 cents a year; the Annual, which is $1.00 a year, with additional fees of ten cents a week for new books and five cents for old books; and the Sustaining membership, which is $5.00 per year. (There are no fees attached to the latter.)

The library is governed by a board of trustees. The members are as follows: Rev. F. Craighill Brown, president, Mrs. James Boyd, Almet Jenks, Miss Ruth Burr Sanborn, A. B. Yeomans, Eugene Stevens, Mrs. J. B. Riddle, Mrs. J. H. Towne, W. D. Matthews, Miss Laura Kelsey, Miss Birjella Bair, Mrs. J. K. Walker, Mrs. J. B. Swett, Frank Webster, Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins and Mrs. George Jenks.

PINEHURST

Sylvia Callaway gave a party for the following playmates Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Callaway: Dorothy and Sally Cheney, Caroline Ann Nelson, Roy Temple and Peter Grinnell, Kay Hampton Coffey, Betsy Sutton, Janice Butner, Gail and Bobby Hobson. The occasion was her fourth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tate entertained about 50 guests Saturday evening at the Sally Cabin. Special guests were members of the school faculty. After a delicious supper, dancing and games were enjoyed. During the evening members of the Set-Back Club presented Mr. A. B. Sally an Aladin Lamp and a set of dishes for the cabin. These gifts were a surprise for his birthday and the presentation was made by Clarence Thomas in his inimitable style.

Edna Gentry spent the week-end at their homes in Sparta, N. C.

Dr. John McSween has returned to his home in Chester, S. C., after holding a series of services at the Community Church during the past week.

Mrs. P. K. Allen has as her guest, her mother, Mrs. Hawley of Fort Bragg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cunningham and son, Bert, were week-end guests of Mrs. Ethel Journey.

Miss Madeline Martin has returned to her home from the Moore County Hospital where she underwent an appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bronsdon and son, Benny, arrived Wednesday from their home on Cape Cod for the season.

Christopher Callaway has arrived from New Hampshire for the season. His son, Clarence Callaway of Charlotte spent Wednesday visiting in the village.

Miss Jane Vaughn Gillett has returned for the season to be with her niece, Mrs. Helen Barnes Von Shrenk. Fred Fields was home from the University, Chapel Hill, for the week-end.

Miss Sydney McMillan has returned from visiting friends in Gastonia. The Business Girl's Circle will meet in the Community Church parlor Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Rosser Jones of Aberdeen is the guest this week of Mrs. David Coffey.

The Pinehurst school will close next Wednesday at 3:00 o'clock for the Thanksgiving Holidays, Thursday and Friday.

Miss Eloise Summerford spent the week-end with her family in Clover, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Fownes, Jr., have as their guests four golf professionals competing in this week's tournament, Emil Lester, Ted Luther, Perry Del Vecchio and Vince Eldred.

The many friends of Miss Benna M. Kirk and W. I. Barbour are congratulating them on their marriage in Fayetteville on November 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Barbour will make their home in the Harvard Apartments.

Miss A. H. Hilton entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koch and Miss Rosemary Hilton at the buffet supper at the Holly Inn last Sunday night.

Mrs. J. Fred Stimson will be hostess to the Junior Willing Workers at her home on Vermont avenue, Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock.
