

MISS ERSON, RESIDENT
HERE 40 YEARS, DIES

Wide Fellowship, Southern Pines, with the Rev. Voight O. Taylor officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. Fred Stimson and the Rev. W. J. Dillon. Burial followed in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Honorary and active bearers were Paul T. Barnum, Robert L. Hart, Dorsey G. Stutz, Charles W. Picquet, Carl Thompson, Dr. George G. Herr, Nelson C. Hyde, Dr. William C. Mudgett, Dr. J. S. Milliken, Lawrence Barr, Captain A. Innes-Taylor, C. T. Patch, Claude L. Hayes, and Frank Walsh and A. Montesanti.

By request of Miss Erson, Stuart Cameron sang "Thou Will Keep Me in Perfect Peace" at the church service, and the following quartet sang several numbers: Mrs. L. D. McDonold, Miss Katherine Buchan, Dr. R. P. Shepard and W. P. Whitlock.

Liquor figured in twelve of the 16 cases tried in Recorder's Court Monday and in only two were the defendants found "not guilty."

CHURCHES

Services at Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Southern Pines Sunday will be as follows: Holy Communion at 8:00; Church School at 9:30; Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11:00. On next Wednesday, St. Andrews' Day, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:00 a. m.

At the Southern Pines Baptist Church Sunday at 11:00 a. m., the subject of the sermon by the Rev. J. Fred Stimson will be "Christian Individualism."

Dr. T. A. Cheatham will speak at the Church of Wide Fellowship Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock on the subject: "A Day of Rest—The Seventh Day." This service is presented under the auspices of the Fellowship Forum, with Robert Henderson as leader. There will be special music. Everyone is most cordially invited.

Sunday services at the Church of Wide Fellowship are announced as follows: Church School at 9:45; regular morning worship and sermon, "You Undermine Religion," at 11:00 o'clock; Youth Fellowship League for high school young people at 8:30 p. m.; the Fellowship Forum, a service for everyone; leader, Robert Henderson; speaker this Sunday, Dr. T. A. Cheatham of Pinehurst, 7:00 o'clock, and at 8:00 p. m. the first of a series of union services entered into by the First Baptist Church and the Church of Wide Fellowship. This Sunday the service will be held at the Church of Wide Fellowship. The Rev. S. J. Starnes, pastor of the Methodist Church in Aberdeen, will preach. Mr. Starnes has just returned from the annual meeting of the North Carolina Methodist Conference where he was returned to the Aberdeen-Vass work for his second year.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-nounced," is the subject of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science Church, Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday School meets at 11:00 o'clock at the church.

A service of Thanksgiving was held by Christian Science Society, Southern Pines, in the church Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock. A special lesson for Thanksgiving day was read, consisting of appropriate passages from the Bible, with correlating passages from the textbook, Science and Health, with key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy. This was followed by grateful testimonies from those who have been healed of discordant human conditions, including sin, disease, fear and want.

Theatre

When the Hardys go Wild West in the wide open spaces, Judge Hardy faces the serious problem of keeping his energetic family properly corraled, but with his usual wisdom and understanding he manages to settle Andy's troubles, prevents Marian from making a hasty marriage and solves perplexing legal difficulties of an old sweetheart in "Out West With The Hardys," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Sunday night, November 27th at 8:30 and Monday, November 28th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

This, the fifth of the Hardy pictures, follows them through another action-filled episode of their colorful doings, replete with hilarious comedy, human, heart-warming pathos, trials and tribulations.

Contrasting the glitter and glamour of smart society in Washington and Florida with the romance and adventure of Cowboy Land in the Golden West, Samuel Goldwyn has lavished his unusual showmanship talents on his major production of the new film season, "The Cowboy and The Lady," a comedy-romance of modern-day life, which is the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, November 30th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

To heighten the rich, emotional drama of this exciting story, Mr. Goldwyn has teamed (for the first time on the screen) Gary Cooper, filmland's No. 1 heman, and Merle Oberon, reigning queen of the screen. Cooper is cast as a cowboy who rides the range alone—until he comes East for a rodeo show and meets Merle Oberon spoiled and petted society darling. They immediately join forces in a high-powered, fast-paced romance which is spiked with riotous laughs and down-to-earth drama.

The best preview on "Angels With Dirty Faces" is contained in a copy of a letter written by Franklin K. Mathews, Chief Scout Librarian of the Boy Scouts of America which we quote in full—"I appreciate very much the courtesy of your invitation that made possible my seeing in preview, "Angels With Dirty Faces." Hearing of it the first time, I remarked, 'What a title! Now, I would eagerly add, 'Yes, but what a picture!' It is altogether the most soul-searching I have seen in a long time. Others who saw it must have been in a similar mood, for the quiet that prevailed afterward was decidedly unusual for a projection room. Please, though, I would not imply that it is a solemn picture. Sobering it is indeed, but not sober. Neither is it another gangster picture. True the 'Dead End' kids are there, and full well they play their parts but vastly different is their destiny as determined in this picture. And all without mock heroics or sickening sentimentality. I wish every person, the whole country over, sincerely concerned for the welfare of youth, might see it. I am confident too, movie fans will hail it with equal delight for, to an unusual degree, it poses the kind of stirring situation, combined with jocular humor and farcical fun that keeps it dramatically, and constantly moving forward to a climax that is, even though subdued, simply terrific." "Angels With Dirty Faces," featuring Jimmie Cagney and Pat O'Brien with Ann Sheridan, is the attraction at Pinehurst, Friday, December 2nd, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m.

"Annabel Takes A Tour," the attraction at Southern Pines Monday and Tuesday, November 28, 29, at 8:20 p. m. with a Tuesday matinee is the second of the series of "The Affairs of Annabel" which made such a hit with the movie going public sometime ago. It features the same leading players, Jack Oakie, Lucille Ball, Bradley Page and Ruth Donnelly. Capable performances by Ralph Forbes, Frances Mercer, Alice White, Donald McBride and Edward Gargan also add much to the picture's entertainment merit.

On Wednesday and Thursday, November 30, December 1st, with a Thursday matinee, that delightful comedy, "Young In Heart," with Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Roland Young and Billie Bore, will play a return engagement at Southern Pines and on Friday and Saturday, December 2, 3 with a Saturday matinee, Shirley Temple returns in her new comedy, "Just Around The Corner."
