

Chevis Family in Limelight in Court

Alex Dowd, colored, of Eastwood, was found guilty in Recorder's Court Monday of trespass, but not guilty of kidnapping a baby boy from the home of Helen and Lee Chevis, as charged. He was given 30 days on the roads, sentence to begin August 1 on account of his physical condition, and it was provided that the sentence be suspended upon payment of the costs and upon condition that he not violate the law during the next twelve months.

Charges of assault with deadly weapon on Alex Dowd, conspiracy and aiding and abetting in the commission of a crime were not prosed with leave as to Lee Chevis and Charlie Goins, but Preston Chevis was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury but not with intent to kill. He was given four months on the roads, but gave notice of appeal. The three defendants are colored from Eastwood. In another case, Preston Chevis was found not guilty of assaulting a female. Still another case, in which he was charged with abducting the wife and children of Alex Dowd, was not prosed with leave by the State, and the witnesses were not allowed fees.

Joe Ervin, white of Cameron was bound to Superior Court under bond of $200 on a forgery charge. He was charged with forging the signature of M. L. Matthews to a check for $8.60 and with forging the endorsement of F. E. Edwards to the same check.

Samuel Dowdy, colored of Carthage, pleaded guilty to drunken, careless, reckless and drunken driving and assaulting J. K. Loving who attempted to arrest him. He was given three months, to be suspended upon payment of a fine of $75 and the costs, and his license was revoked for twelve months. A co-defendant, Edward McGregor, was not taken.

Walter and Margaret Newby, colored, were charged with the unlawful possession of liquor for sale and found guilty. He was given 60 days on the roads and she 60 days in jail, to be suspended upon payment of a $25 fine, each, and the costs. They paid the costs and were given time on the fines.

Lester Smith, white, of West End, was found guilty of failure to pay a board bill of $8 to Mrs. M. L. Morris. He was given 30 days in jail, sentence to begin from the date he was put in jail, this to be suspended upon payment of the board bill and the costs. The court recommended that the county physician examine the defendant and give him whatever treatment his case requires.

For walking off with the pocketbook of Clara Goins beside whom he had been sitting, George Laitner, colored, was given three months on the roads. The pocketbook contained cosmetics and some money.
