

Poultry School To Be Held at Carthage

Will Comprise Five Adjoining Counties.—All Interested Urged To Attend

E. H. GARRISON, JR.,
County Agent

For the last few years now poultry schools have been held in different counties of the State. It is impossible to hold one of these in each county in the State, so they are usually taken in groups of counties. This year the schools for five adjoining counties will be held here at Carthage on Monday, February 19th. We are fortunate in being able to secure this school and we hope that each and every one will take advantage of this opportunity to hear some of the best poultry men in the State. This will be held in Court Room here and will begin around 9.30 o'clock. All of us are especially anxious that every man and woman, boy and girl who is interested in poultry in any way, try to attend this course. The program is as follows:

- 9:45-10:20—"Utilizing our Flocks and equipment more fully"—C. F. Parrish.
- 10:20-10:55—"A Breeding Program for all Piedmont North Carolina Farmers"—Dr. C. H. Bostian.
- 10:55-11:30—"Better Feeding and Sanitation as an Aid in Controlling Disease"—Dr. R. S. Dearstyne.
- 11:35-12:05—"Modern Methods of Marketing Poultry Products"—T. T. Brown.
- 12:05-1:15—Recess for Lunch.
- 1:15-1:45—Showing Film Strip—C. F. Parrish.
- 1:45-2:45 Round Table Discussion led by staff.
- 2:45-3:30—Autopsying Diseased Birds—Prof. R. S. Dearstyne. Demonstration in Grading and Packing Eggs—T. T. Brown. Exhibits and Models—Dr. C. H. Bostian and C. F. Parrish.

Since poultry work is on the increase in the county we sincerely hope that we shall have a large delegation from Moore county attending. With prices on other farm commodities not looking any too bright right now, it looks as if we might have to turn at least a part of our attention to other sources of income. Poultry if properly handled, offers a pretty good sideline. So much so that in places this is the main source of income from the farm. In connection with this Short Course an Egg Show will be held and some right nice prizes offered for both white and brown eggs. We hope that as many as possible can will bring in a dozen eggs with them to enter in this contest. Also urge anyone you see to come. This is a rare opportunity for us and we hope that everyone who possibly can will attend for the whole day. There will be no charge for any part of this.

Continual Low Temperatures Break January Records Here

Skiing, Coasting and Skating Amused Winter Guests in Sandhills

The land of cotton and the dunes of sand shuddered through the month of January with snow, ice, and temperatures continually below the normal expectation. The Sandhills fared not so badly through the winter sports of skiing, coasting and skating while not advertised, all had their followers.

Until this January the lowest temperature of record for the Sandhills stood at 5 degrees above zero, with the all time low for the state of 6 below, at Charlotte in January 1886. A reading of 6 above zero was recorded here in January 1934. With a low of 4 degrees on the 27th, a new record was established for the Sandhills. Highest temperature 66 degrees on the 17th.

The severity of the successive days of abnormal lows forced down the average of the month to 32.6 degrees a drop of 11.4 degrees below normal.

Thirteen days of the month were clear, 12 days partly clear and 6 days cloudy. Four days showed more or less precipitation, 1.18 inches of rain falling on the 8th. Five days had snowfalls ranging from one half inch to three and one half inches. Two and one half inches fell on the 1st, 1 inch on the 7th, one half inch on the 19th, 3 and one half inches on the 24th, one half inch on the 31st. The total rainfall was 2.70 inches, .62 inches less than normal. An ice storm on the night of the 7th and morning of the 8th caused great damage to trees and shrubbery.

New Year's day was cloudy with two and one half inches of snow, maximum temperature 45 degrees, minimum 28 degrees, average 36 degrees.

A Very Very Bad Girl?

Ora Lee Is Condemned and Praised by the Blacks and Whites

Is Ora Lee Hooker a "Joe Louis," a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," a spirited youngster who needs sympathetic guidance, or a "very, very bad girl?"

Ora Lee, a colored girl of Cameron, was in Recorder's court Monday charged with assaulting Annie Laurie McDonald with a deadly weapon. Allegations in the warrant are that she used a rock and knocked Annie Laurie senseless for several minutes.

It appearing that Ora Lee was under sixteen years of age, her case was referred to the juvenile court and it was the duty of the juvenile Judge John Wilcox to decide the question.

A letter addressed to "Honorable Judge and Solicitor" and signed, "affectionately yours, from the colored people of Cameron" has this to say: "Ora Lee Hooker is a wreckless girl of Cameron. She goes as a bully by better they call her Joe Louis. She tries to beat anyone she sees. She has tried to beat Oglatha Barrett 3 or 4 times, Evelyn White and Christine Hamilton, also a girl that went to Carthage school, she jumped her on the school bus. She cursed an old lady out in June on the public highway using vulgar language. She has also cursed Annie Laura McDonald down at the station and post office. She is a very, very bad girl!"

On the Dr. Jekyll side, statements from two well-known white women of Cameron set forth that so far as they knew, Ora Lee's conduct was good. She had been employed by one of the women and had given good service.

Girl Scouts Give Tea

The Girl Scouts gave a tea at the "Cabin" Tuesday afternoon to which their mothers and members of the Scout council were invited. Mrs. J. W. Harbison assisted the Scouts in making invitations, favors and decorations in Valentine motif; also in making and serving a course of dainty sandwiches and cookies with Russian tea. This was the first time they have used the cabin and this was indeed a happy occasion for both hosts and guests.

HOWDY FOLKS!

I'm REDDY KILOWATT

Your ELECTRICAL Servant

Yes sir, REDDY KILOWATT, Your Electrical Servant . . . more than 50 years old but still a willing worker, more spry and youthful than when I first came to work. I can do more jobs, do them better and more quickly and more cheaply. As a member of your family I am pledged to do more than my share of the work. Yet my requirements are modest and my upkeep low. Perhaps this little verse will describe me best . . . read it then call on me!

- I'm happy REDDY KILOWATT, I'd like to shake your hand; But I'm afraid my vitality Is more than you can stand.
- I've done the work of a billion slaves, And I never eat a bite;
- I need no bed in which to sleep, I toll both day and night.
- The more I work, the less I'm paid, I strive for lower wages; I want to work in every home, For folks of various ages.
