

BENEFIT PARTY DECEMBER 6 FOR SANATORIUM PATIENTS

The annual benefit party sponsored by the Sunshine Club of the North Carolina Sanatorium will be given on Friday evening, December 6 at the Sanatorium Nurses' Home. The playing of bridge and other games will start promptly at 8:00 o'clock and at the conclusion of the evening the winner at each table will receive an attractive prize. The proceeds will be used to help the indigent patients at the Sanatorium. Friends of the Sanatorium are requested to keep the date in mind and plan to attend this most enjoyable affair. Everyone is invited.

PROF. BLISS ADDRESSES SOUTHEASTERN ALUMNI

Prof. Louis D. Bliss, president of the Bliss School of Electrical Engineering spoke to the gathering at the banquet of the Southeastern Alumni Association held at the Southern Pines Country Club last Saturday evening. Some 50 members and their guests gathered from many distant points of the Southeast heard a splendid address. Men from fifteen classes were present.

Other speakers at the meeting were R. L. Chandler, district manager of the Carolina Power & Light Co.; Philip J. Weaver, superintendent of Southern Pines Schools; R. S. Durant, general manager of the telephone company. The entertainment of the evening consisted of music by Lloyd Woolley, Jr., B. A. Hurley and F. W. Singleton.

Norris Russell of the Southern Bell Telephone Co. of Charlotte also addressed the gathering and presented a special movie reel prepared by

L. J. BARWOOD WILL FILED FOR PROBATE AT CARTHAGE

A copy of the will of Leon J. Barwood, late of Brookline, Mass., has been filed for probate in the office of the Clerk of Court of Moore county.

In addition to members of the family, the Associated Jewish Philanthropies, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, the Cambridge Council, Boy Scouts of America, Inc., and the American Civil Liberties Union of Brookline were remembered in the will. The estate was valued at not more than $85,000.

his company. At the business meeting the following officers were elected for the coming year: Lloyd L. Wooley, president, Robert Henderson, secretary-treasurer; Carl G. Thompson, vice-president. All of these men are located in Southern Pines. It seems that all the alumni like to come to Southern Pines for their meetings as this is the second consecutive one held here.

Prof. and Mrs. Bliss stopped at the Highland Pines Inn while here for several days and were much impressed with this section.
