

381 Yards in 2 Features Golf at Pine Needles

White Plains, N. Y. Player Scores Deuce on 10th Hole.—Many Arrivals

Golf hit a new high this past week at the Pine-Needles when scores of golfers toured the fairways in earnest endeavor to beat ole man par.

The outstanding feat of the week went to T. A. McGowan, 3rd, of White Plains, N. Y. Playing in a four-ball match with M. G. Edwards and N. J. Booker of New York, and professional Johnny Capello, Mr. McGowan scored a deuce on the 381-yard 10th hole.

Numbered among the honeymooners enjoying the hospitality of the Pine Needles this season are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chadwick, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa., who arrived Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick, devotees of bicycle-riding and golf, are participating in their favorite pastimes daily.

Mr. and Mrs. William Minot of North Stamford, Conn., have arrived to join Mrs. Minot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur L. Summings of Greenwich, Conn.

Among the many arrivals during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Winston H. Pickett of New York City. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller of East Greenwich, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Merrill of Bronxville, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Dodd of Glen Ridge, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. D. W. H. Drukker, r., of Clifton, N. J., who are here on their second visit of the season, and Mrs. Edwin H. Vane Sr., and her daughter well known golfing star, Mrs. Ralph E. Seltzer of Wynnewood, Pa.

MRS. MCKINNEY, NEW COUNTY NURSE, REPORTS

Mrs. Mattie McKinney, nurse, arrived Monday to fill the vacancy on the Moore county health department staff caused by the resignation of Miss Ola Collins, who went from Moore to Alleghany county recently.

Mrs. McKinney, who is a native of Sampson county, recently completed her training in the public health college of William and Mary in Richmond, Va. She is making her home at the Lang House.

PROGRAM OF READINGS AND MUSIC AT CIVIC CLUB

The art exhibit of water colors painted by John Armistron of Newfoundland, N. J., have drawn a constant attendance during the week at the Civic Club and are being held over through today. This afternoon, Friday at 3:00 o'clock, all visitors in Southern Pines are invited to join Civic Club members in their program and tea. Mrs. Walter Scott Milne, of Toronto, Canada will give readings and Mrs. Albert Gilliland of Cleveland, O., accompanied by Mrs. Tod Baxter, will sing two groups of songs. Mrs. McDonald will be tea hostess.

There will be an important board meeting at the clubhouse next Monday morning at 10:00. On Thursday of next week another cafeteria luncheon will be given from 12:00 to 2:00.

DAN A. SMITH, LIFELONG RESIDENT OF VASS, DIES

thern Pines and E. E. Springer of Sanford.

Dan Smith was born September 13, 1898, the oldest child of T. J. Smith and the late Lovedy McKeithen Smith. He attended the Vass schools and Sandhill Farm Life School.

Mr. Smith served as mail carrier on Vass Route 1 for about 18 years, and during this period organized a taxi business in Southern Pines. At the age of around 36, he suffered a stroke of paralysis affecting his left side and was forced to give up his mail route. His indomitable spirit refused to acknowledge defeat, so after a long hard battle in which he became able to get around some with aid, Mr. Smith started up a trucking business, doing much of the business end of the work from his home by telephone. He gradually built up his business until his fleet of trucks operated from Florida to the northern states. As his health improved he assumed closer supervision, occasionally spending weeks in other states during the fruit hauling season.

About three years ago he took over the Esso station in Vass also, and was proprietor of this until his death.

On February 2, Mr. Smith suffered a second stroke which affected his speech and hearing. He returned from the Lee County Hospital on Monday of last week considerably improved and it was hoped that he would again be able to get out, but the third and fatal stroke followed.

Mr. Smith is survived by his widow, the former Miss Carrie Westcott of Manteo to whom he was married in June 1921; his father, T. J. Smith, two sisters, Mrs. N. N. McLean and Miss Agnes Smith, of Vass and a brother, Neill M. Smith of Raleigh. A daughter died in infancy.

MEDICAL WIVES TO PLAN STATE SOCIETY MEETING

The wives of members of Moore and Hoke County Medical Societies will meet at the Carolina Hotel Pinehurst at 10:00 a. m. next Tuesday, March 11th to plan for the State Medical Society meeting in Pinehurst in May.

ENTRIES POUR IN FOR STEEPLECHASE RACES

duPont Scott, Mrs. Fay Ingalls, Pietro Crespi of Charlotte, H. Duane Clark of Syracuse, N. Y., Louis E. Stoddard, Jr., of Aiken, S. C., Kenneth B. Schley of Peapack, N. J., A. A. Baldwin, Cecil Tuke of Hot Springs, Va., John Hay Whitney of Manhasset, L. I., Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark of Old Westbury, L. I., George H. (Pete) Westwick of Aiken, and W. B. Ruthrauff of New York and Camden S. C.

In addition to these two races, there are three others on the card for the 15th: the Catawba, one mile and one-half over hurdles; the Yadin Handicap Steeplechase, two miles over brush, and the Midland, about one mile on the flat for the Randolph Memorial Gold Cup. Richard Wallace, Jr., racing secretary of the Sandhills association, looks for record entries in all three of these events. The purses, increased $700 from the $2,900 offered last year, are attracting the leading steeplechase horses in the country. Wallace says.

The early demand for parking spaces has exceeded all previous years, but there will be plenty of room around the big mile oval on race day. The non-reserved spaces will be on sale at the gates at one dollar per car, with individual tickets at 75 cents. Reserved parking spaces are sold in advance upon applications to the Sandhills Steeplechase and Racing Association, Southern Pines. The first race is called for 3:00 o'clock.

KIWANIANS LEARN ABOUT "YOUR ESSO REPORTER"

The Sandhills Kiwanis Club saw and heard how the Esso News Broadcasts are put on at its Wednesday meeting when G. F. Ball of the Public Relations department of Standard Oil made a most interesting illustrated talk, "News in the Air." A movie was shown of the United Press headquarters in New York, and how the news broadcasts by Esso four times each day is assembled.
