In Pinehurst
"In 'Nice Girls?' the attraction at Pinehurst Sunday night, March 9, at 8:30 and Monday, March 10th, at 3:00 and 8:30, Deanna Durbin continues to delight with her singing and to grow up in point of material dealt with, performing here more as actress, a role that would tax most of the maturer leading ladies in motion pictures. Herein she is surrounded by such talent as Franchot Tone, Walter Brennan, Rob Benchley, Helen Broderick, and Elizabeth Laidson, to name the elder side of the cast first, with Robert Stack as the young man of the principal romance. "Hard Boiled Canary," the attraction at Pinehurst Wednesday, March 12th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., is a picture for lovers of music, orchestral, instrumental and vocal, featuring above the profession actors in the cast some scores of children trained at the music center in Interlachen, Mich., plus Richard Bonelli, Richard Hagemen and Irma Pettina of grand opera.

Another exceedingly entertaining attraction is "Footsteps In The Dark," coming to Pinehurst Friday, March 14th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m., starring Errol Flynn, with Brenda Marshall, Ralph Bellamy, Alan Hale, Allen Jenkins, Lucile Watson, Grant Mitchell and a host of others. Here is a mystery-comedy that, in its own way, seems likely to have the success that the first "Thin Man's" picture did, with the result that a series may be due. "Footsteps In The Dark" is a neat combination of smart comedy and a real murder mystery.

In Southern Pines
The attraction at Southern Pines Monday and Tuesday, March 10, 11, with a Tuesday matinee, is a return engagement of that engrossing picture, "The Trial of Mary Dugan," starring Robert Young and Laraine Day.

And on Wednesday and Thursday, March 12, 13, with a Thursday matinee, the best of all the Hardy Family series, "Andy Hardy's Private Secretary" will delight anybody who is so fortunate as to be at the theatre. A new member of the cast is Kathryn Grayson, a charming young lady, with a glorious voice.

What is described by the critics as "not the producers" as "the gayest comedy of the Gay 90's yet made" is "Strawberry Blonde," the attraction at Southern Pines Friday and Saturday, March 14, 15, with a Saturday matinee. Robustly human, blessed with a swell combination of direction and writing topped off with 100 percent performances from a superb cast, "Strawberry Blonde" is automatically a winner. James Cagney's performance will prove one of the best liked in his career and there is Olivia de Havilland, who makes it very easy for the spectator to believe in love.

BOYD, RADIO PROGRAMS ON AIR EACH SUNDAY

fare; and more important, an opportunity to perform a much-needed public service. Since the authors and actors were volunteering their efforts, CBS assumed all costs of production, music and network facilities.

A committee was organized with Robert E. Sherwood representing the writers; Burgess Meredith, representing the actors; W. B. Lewis, vice-president in charge of programs for CBS, representing radio; and Mr. Boyd, national chairman. The committee sought—and very generously received—the working cooperation of men and women who are uniquely qualified to give eloquent expression to the faith millions of Americans hold in their fundamental liberties.

The series opened with a play by William Saroyan, "The People With Light Coming Out of Them." Robert E. Sherwood has written a play about freedom of the press. Marc Connelly has a story of the teacher who has been to Europe to come back to a supervisor who branded her as a "Moscow Agent." James Boyd tells the story of an ordinary American who just doesn't like to be punched around—whether the punching is by his boss or his fellow-workers. Other famed writers who are contributing to the series are Maxwell Anderson, Sherwood Anderson, Stephen Vincent Benet, George M. Cohan, Norman Corwin, Paul Green, Ernest Hemingway, Archibald MacLeish, Elmer Rice and Orson Welles.

Time in next Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock for the third presentation.
