

McGILL AND GRAHAM TAKE OVER ESSO STATION

Duncan H. McGill and Albert R. Graham, "Dunk" and "Bert" to their friends, assumed management of the Esso station in Vass formerly operated by Dan A. Smith and opened for business Monday. The interior of the building has been repainted and is in spic-and-span condition.

Both young men are skilled mechanics, having had several years experience in automobile repair work. Mr. McGill is at present instructor of the National Defense Training Course in automobile mechanics being taught here in the evenings.

They do light repair work, with carburetor, generator and starter doctoring a specialty, and carry a full line of Esso products, Atlas tires, batteries and accessories.

BACK ON THE JOB

After an illness of ten days, Miss Bess Stuart was able to resume her duties in the office of the county superintendent of schools Monday.

Why Powells Is Better

You pay regularly—every three months. For the past six years we have operated on eight assessments a year, which are paid in four double payments—or quarterly. We have an ample surplus in the bank. You employ one of the most modern and up-to-date funeral homes in the State. This association is one of the largest in North Carolina.

All White Citizens of Moore and Hoke Counties between the ages of 1 to 65 are eligible to join this Mutual Funeral Association.

Your PROTECTION Is GUARANTEED

$50 for children up to $10 years. $100 for all above 10 years. You can spend this for any part of our funeral service. If you move over 100 miles from Southern Pines and are to be buried there we pay the funeral director $100.00 in cash or merchandise. In a normal lifetime you could not pay in as much as you regain.
