

Comings and Goings in Vass

Church Service

The Rev. C. M. Voyles of Cameron will preach in the Vass Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Visitors Conduct Services

The Rev. A. C. Thompson of West End preached an interesting sermon before a large congregation at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, and that evening a delightful service, sponsored by the Epworth League, was enjoyed. Miss Louise Leslie conducted the devotionals and presented J. Bruce Cameron of Manley, who introduced Miss Nell Simons and Miss Reynolds of Southern Pines. Miss Simons gave an impressive talk on "The Plan of Salvation" which was illustrated with flannel pictures by Miss Reynolds.

A number of visitors from Southern Pines and Manley were present for the service.

Have Your Dog Vaccinated

N O W

See schedule of time and place in next week's paper

You are required by law to have your dog vaccinated. The 1941 law has increased the fee to 75c. This amount will be credited on payment of your dog tax when certificate is presented to Tax Collector. If owner fails to have dog vaccinated at scheduled time and place, he will be required to pay an additional sum of 75c as penalty. The act further provides that if the dog is found without a metal tag, showing the law has not been complied with, and if the owner cannot be found with reasonable diligence, it will be lawful to destroy such dog. Failure to comply with the requirements of this law is a misdemeanor and a fine of not less than $10.00 or more than $50.00 or imprisonment not less than ten or more than thirty days at the discretion of the Court may be imposed.
