

Week's News in Army Circles

OFFICERS GET PROMOTED

Among 18 army officers with the rank of Major, stationed at Fort Bragg, who last week were promoted to the temporary rank of Lieutenant Colonel were Lt. Col. R. M. Wicks, 79th Field Artillery, of Southern Pines; Lt. Col. Frank J. Cunningham, 34th Coast Artillery Brigade of Southern Pines; and Lt. Col. John Hinton, Headquarters, 9th Division Artillery, of Pinehurst.

Chalfonte Changes Manager

Mrs. J. J. McCouldrick, who has been managing the Chalfonte since it was turned into apartments to accommodate Army officers' families, left there October 1 to reopen her home, The Maples, in Pinehurst.

Mrs. Edith D. Quale, who was at The Gray Fox last year, will be the new manager of the Chalfonte.

The following families who have been living at the Chalfonte are moving to Fayetteville October 1: Lieut. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Cox, Lieut. and Mrs. James S. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. F. M. Clark, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Moorhead, Lieut. and Mrs. Dinford Bridgers, and Lieut. and Mrs. T. M. Wilson. Capt. and Mrs. Oral Willis and son, Bingo, have taken a house in Southern Pines.

Sponsors Destroyer

At the beginning of two new destroyers, Hambleton and Rodman, at Kearny, N. J. last week, Mrs. Albert K. Stebbins Jr. of Southern Pines, wife of Major Stebbins at Fort Bragg, sponsored the Rodman, named for the late Admiral Hugh Rodman.

To Organize Club

A meeting has been called for two o'clock next Monday afternoon in the lounge room of the Officers' Club at Fort Bragg for the purpose of organizing a Woman's Club for officers' wives stationed at Fort Bragg and in surrounding towns.

Officers will be elected and the club's purposes and plans explained to those who are interested in joining.

Mrs. D. H. Williams entertained at tea Saturday afternoon from two to five o'clock, in honor of the opening of Tall Pines Nursery School for the children of Army officers. The guests were shown the blue and white nursery where classes started Monday, September 29.

Lt. and Mrs. Harold Parsley, who will leave this week for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, were honor guests at a dinner at Montesanti's Spaghetti Camp Thursday evening, when Lt. and Mrs. Julian Herriott, Lt. and Mrs. Carl Paulson and Lt. and Mrs. George B. Schoolcraft entertained for them. Lt. Parsley has been attached to the Field Artillery Board at Fort Bragg.

Lt. and Mrs. Carl Paulson will go to Durham Saturday to attend the Duke-Tennessee game.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter Rogers left Tuesday morning for a ten day visit in New York City. From there they will go to their home in Los Angeles.

Major Victor Baer, of the 101st Engineers, and family, have rented the Rowan house at 18 Ridge Street for the season.

Mrs. Francis A. March III and daughters, Joanna and Carol, of Fayetteville, will be house guests this week-end of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Roger Wicks.

Mrs. Spencer J. Stinemetz of Brookline, Mass., arrived Sunday to visit her daughter Mrs. Walter Thee, and Lt. Col. Thee. Anita Thee, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Thee, who has been spending the summer at camp in Maine, returned to Southern Pines with her grandmother.

4-H CLUBS ARE MEETING FRIDAY

Officers for Farm Youth Organizations to Be Elected at Achievement Night

The 4-H Achievement program will be held in the Court Room at Carthage, Friday night, October 3, at 8 o'clock.

Each 4-H Club will give a report of the work done during the past year and the club with the best report will receive the County Achievement Banner.

Following contests will be held for the girls:

Canning Contest, to consist of a quart of fruit and a quart of vegetables.

Clothing Contest, School or Sport wash dress.

Room Improvement Record.

An inspirational and recreational program has been planned for the meeting. Each club will present a student. County officers for the coming year will be elected.

William Sergeant Dies in Cleveland

William Thomas Sergeant, father of the Rev. Ruth F. Sergeant who several years ago served as assistant pastor of the Church of Wide Fellowship, died September 17 at Miss Sergeant's home in Cleveland, Ohio, where she is pastor of North Congregational Church.

Survivors are three daughters, the Rev. Sergeant, Mrs. Dwight Knapp of Sodus, N. Y., and Mrs. B. S. Rude of Delmar, N. Y., and Southern Pines, where she and Mr. Rude maintain a winter home.

MRS. ROBERT LEATHAM DIES UNEXPECTEDLY AT HOME HERE

Mrs. Robert Leatham, who has been making her home at Robinson apartments, was found dead early Thursday morning. Cause of death was not determined.

She and the late Mr. Leatham, who died about three years ago, had made their home here for about 10 years. Mrs. Leatham served as a census taker last year. Relatives from Black Mountain were notified and no funeral arrangements were to be made until their arrival.

CARTHAGE

Mrs. Baxley Honored

Mrs. Myrton Stewart and Miss Mary Gilbert Cole entertained at the home of Miss Cole Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Woodrow Baxley, who before her recent marriage was Miss Pauline Cole.

Bridge and rummy were played at six tables. High score prizes went to Mrs. Earl McDonald and Mrs. Bascom Muse; Low scores to Miss Myrtle McCaskill and Mrs. P. H. McDonald.

Following the play, guests were invited into the dining room. The table was covered with a handsome Irish lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl of white dahlias, gladioli and fern. White tapers burned in silver holders at each end of the table and on the buffet and mantle. A miniature bride and groom were placed at the head of the table. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Emma Cole and Miss Josephine Cole, served ice cream, tiny decorated cakes, and green and white pints.

Mrs. Baxley was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

Those enjoying Mrs. Stewart's and Miss Cole's hospitality were Mesdames Earl McDonald, Hugh Jackson, P. H. McDonald, C. J. McDonald, Joe Caddell, Carlton McCallum, W. S. Golden, Frank McDonald, William Buffalo, Bascom Muse, C. C. Horne and W. B. Kelly, Misses Myrtle McCaskill, Bessie McCaskill, Flora McDonald, Mary Layton, Blanche Wallace, Lillian Flinchum, Anne Wilson, Jack Yow, Mabel Baker and Josephine Cole, all of Carthage, Mesdames Robert Dowd of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Woodrow Baxley, the honoree.

Carthage P. T. A. Meets

The Carthage Parent-Teacher Association met Monday night for the first time this year in the high school auditorium, with Mrs. H. Lee Thomas presiding over the business session.

Reports were heard from Mrs. Eldon S. Adams, membership; Mrs. W. H. Currie, health; and Mrs. Hugh W. Jackson, budget and finance. Mrs. Charles Barringer, program chairman was in charge. Following participated in the program: B. E. Beasley, C. R. Simpson and Miss Betty Kennison. Miss Price rendered two vocal numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Dalrymple.

Orders booked for personal Christmas Cards at Hayes.

PINEHURST

Lt. Col. Alex P. Kelly was the guest of his sister, Miss Margaret Kelly, Saturday and they went to Carthage to spend the week-end with homefolks. Colonel Kelly has the medical regiment from Fort Devins, Mass., on maneuvers, and is stationed outside of Rockingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Verner Z. Reed of Newport, R. I., spent the week-end here. They plan to occupy their home, Sandy Woods, about November first.

The Rev. A. J. McKelway has gone to Washington, D. C., to visit his mother. Friends will be sorry to learn he is suffering with arthritis and is on a two weeks leave. The Rev. T. A. Cheatham will fill the pulpit of the Community Church during Mr. McKelway's absence.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis L. Owens have returned to Mayflower cottage after a six weeks' stay in New York and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Cook of Hartford, Conn., have arrived and are occupying their recently purchased home, Garran Hill. They spent the summer in Hyannisport, Mass.

Major Quincy A. Shaw of Boston has leased the John A. Tuckerman plantation for the duration of the maneuvers.

Mrs. Walter Hyatt has returned to her home, Loblolly. Mr. Hyatt has gone to Saskatchewan, Canada for the Hungarian Grouse season and will join Mrs. Hyatt in several weeks. Their daughter, Miss Darst Hyatt, is a student at Rosemary School in Greenwich, Conn. The Hyatts spent the summer at their home in Rangeley Lakes, Maine.

Hugh W. Carter and children, Betty and Billy, are at Wrightsville Beach.

Dr. and Mrs. Myron W. Marr have returned after spending the summer at Cape Cod and Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leslie and son, John, and daughter, Mrs. James Murray of Akron, Ohio, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gililand.

Miss Louise Fordyce will arrive the first of the week to spend the season at the Marshall cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson and Mrs. Miranda Jackson were week-end guests of Mrs. H. H. Thomas.

Miss Ruth Futrelle spent the week-end in Liberty.

Tommie Currie, who was with the Western Union Telegraph Company in Black Mountain for the summer, has returned to the local office.

New Globes and Atlases at Hayes.
