

SOLD BEER, LOST PLACE, NO FINE

Man Testifies Beer Parlor Destroyed; Niagara Girl Convicted

Josephine Ferguson, 21-year-old woman of Niagara, tried in Recorder's Court Monday on a charge of prostitution, was found guilty and sentenced to spend six months in the special division of State's Prison designed for offenders of this type.

Archie Ferguson was found not guilty of maintaining a house of prostitution and allowing females to live therein for that purpose, and Mrs. Annie Ferguson, Myrtle, 19, Anna Belle, 16, and Clara Ferguson, 14, were found not guilty of residing in a house of prostitution.

Charlie Manning pleaded guilty of selling beer without license, but he testified that he had sold beer only eight days and had arranged to pay for his license when his place of business was practically destroyed by a group of regular army men and that he is now out of business. The court decided to allow a nolle pro with leave upon payment of the costs.

Clinton Wade, Carthage Negro, paid the costs and was given a 30-day suspended sentence for unlawful possession of whiskey. Curtis Shaw, a second defendant, was found not guilty.

Tom Baldwin, Pinchurst Negro, charged with swearing falsely in court, was found guilty of contempt and was given a 30-day suspended sentence, charged costs and placed on good behavior for two years.

For violating the health laws Elizabeth Medlin, Southern Pines Negro, was sentenced to 30 days in Moore County jail.

Vester Bowman of Aberdeen pleaded guilty of drunken driving. He was fined $50 and the costs, given a 60-day suspended sentence and deprived of his license for 12 months.

Arthur Burrus of Albemarle was found guilty of operating a motor vehicle on the wrong side of a State Highway and was given 30 days, suspended upon payment of the costs.

Paul Jefferson Fulk of Carthage was found not guilty of careless and reckless driving.

Thad Black of Carthage, found guilty of public drunkenness, disorderly conduct and engaging in an affray, paid a $25 fine and the costs

Comings and Goings in Vass

Peace Program
"Things that Make for Peace" was the topic of an interesting program given at the meeting of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service held Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. C. P. McMillan, president.

The program was presented by Mrs. C. L. Tyson, Mrs. G. W. Griffin, Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. Charles Gschwind, Miss Louise Leslie and Miss Katharine Graham.

The pastor, Dr. S. A. Maxwell, gave a review of a new book on the subject of world peace.

During the social hour a Bible contest was won by Mrs. W. J. Cameron and Miss Louise Leslie, who made a perfect score. Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Mrs. Edwards, Jr., assisted the hostess in serving pie and coffee.

Vass Boy in Arkansas
Linwood Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Keith of Vass, is learning to be a "bird man" at Helena, Ark. His address is Avia, Cadet Keith, J. L., Aero. Tech. Training School, Helena, Ark., for the benefit of friends who would like to drop him a line.

Young People Home
Thanksgiving and the week-end following brought a number of the young people home for visits. Miss Marie Tyson, who recently established her reputation as a horse shoe pitcher by winning over some 30 con-and his 60-day sentence was suspended.

Will Gaddy, Pinehurst Negro, 60 days, suspended, $10 fine and costs for using vile language in a public place and disorderly conduct; Bessie Jones, Negro of Carthage R. F. D., not guilty of larceny of a watch; Addor Davis, Aberdeen Negro, three months, suspended, $50 fine and the costs and license revoked for a year, drunken driving.

William A. Cash, Charlotte, taxed with the costs for driving too fast in restricted zone and given 30 days, suspended; George Rodgers, Southern Pines Negro, guilty of failure to provide adequate support for wife and malicious destruction of property, prayer for judgment continued; Hubert Taylor, Carthage Negro, four months for assault with deadly weapon; Charles Mobley, failure to comply with judgment, capias issued; M. F. Thomas, failure to furnish bond, capias issued, D. H. Henderson, speeding, prayer for judgment continued upon payment of costs; Annie McKeithen, Negro of Carthage, case dismissed as defendant is in State Hospital in Goldsboro.

testants, and Wilbur Edwards, both Louisburg College students, were here, as were George McDermott and John Rosser, students at U. N. C., Chapel Hill.

Robert Rosser, who is doing advanced work at the medical college of the University of South Carolina, John McDermott of State College and Miss Sarah Black McFadyen, who is taking a business course in Raleigh were here for the holiday.

Julian Smith of Raleigh came Saturday to spend a two weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, on route 2.

Purchases Home
Mrs. Dan Cameron of the Cypress Church community has purchased the cottage known as the Mrs. Claude Eyrd house, and plans to move in after making some improvements to the property.

The Reggio family, former occupants, moved to Lakeview last week.

Birth Announcement
Mr. and Mrs. Pete McRae have announced the birth of a daughter at their home in Lakeview on Sunday, November 23. They are considering naming the baby, Myrna Ruth, but have not decided definitely.

Fifth Sunday Service
The regular fifth Sunday preaching service will be held at the Vass Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. Sunday with the pastor, the Rev. C. M. Voyles, bringing the message, Mr. Voyles preaches here every second Sunday evening and fifth Sunday morning.

Christmas Sale
The annual sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals began this week in the business district and within a few days seals will be placed in the hands of school children for sale in the homes.

The local seal sale chairman calls attention to the fact that these little "symbols of health" have done a fine work in helping to finance the hospital treatment of needy tubercular patients from the Vass community, thus alleviating human suffering and protecting our own homes from tuberculosis.

It is urged that the boys and girls selling these seals be welcomed when they ring the doorbells, and that the people buy as generously as possible, realizing that they are not just buying Christmas seals, but investing in home protection.

Personals
Mrs. D. A. Smith went to Manteo last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Westcott.
