

"BLACKOUT" NOT LEGAL IN MOORE

Negro Fined for Driving Wagon Without Lights; Two Angles to Trespass Case

An unauthorized "blackout" landed Onnie Davis, Niagara Negro, in Recorder's Court Monday, where he was given a 60-day suspended road sentence, and charged costs. Davis pleaded guilty to operating a wagon on a State highway at night without lights.

Found guilty or trespassing on the premises of Alf Cagle, Joe Alston, Southern Pines Negro, was given a 30-day road sentence, suspended upon payment of the costs and condition that he stay away from Cagle's home unless invited there by Cagle himself.

In another case, Joe Alston and Mary Cagle, found guilty of immoral conduct, were given 30 days each, suspended upon payment of the costs.

Alfred Jensen of Southern Pines was found guilty of driving at an excessive rate of speed in Carthage. Prayer for judgment was continued, on payment of costs.

William A. Shamburger and Alex Caviness, Hemp Negroes, pleaded guilty to unlawful possession of illicit whiskey and transporting. They paid costs and their three months sentences were suspended upon condition that they not violate the prohibition laws during the next 12 months.

J. L. Sawyer of Southern Pines paid $50 and costs, and a 60-day road sentence imposed for careless, drunken and reckless driving was suspended. His license was revoked for a year.

Archie McMillan, Addor Negro, was found not guilty of cruelty to a dumb animal, namely, beating and mistreating a mule. Julius Peterson, charged with drunken driving, failed to answer when called and his $100 bond was ordered forfeited. Chester Leak failed to answer to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and his bond of $50 also was forfeited.

Ralph Caviness, Negro of Norman, found guilty of careless, reckless and drunken driving, drew a 60-day road sentence, suspended upon payment of $50 and costs. His license was revoked for a year.

James H. Chappell of Fort Bragg pleaded guilty of careless and reckless driving resulting in an accident. His 60-day sentence was to be suspended upon payment of $25 fine and costs, it appearing that he had agreed to pay the damage to the automobile of the prosecuting witness.

George Ransom, Pinehurst Negro, was given 60 days for the larceny of gasoline, from the property of R. T. Davis.

Jerry Bogan, Pinehurst Negro, was given three months for striking Willie Gaines in the face and threatening to kill him.

Frank Little pleaded not guilty of breaking and entering the barn of John Chalmers Shaw and stealing corn. A nolle pros with leave was taken. John D. Walker, another defendant, was not taken.

Several cases were continued.

Maurice

(Continued from page one) pointed to the house committee. Since 1930 he has been a member of the executive committee, served as chairman from 1934 through 1937, while vice-president of the Hospital Board, and is again this year vice-president.

In 1938, he was elected president of the hospital board and served faithfully in that capacity for three years, through 1940.

"Much of Mr. Maurice's work throughout the community is done in a quiet unassuming manner and he has been a wonderful neighbor, friend and helper to a good many friends throughout the whole community, and the ones that he has helped have been both white and black," it was said of him.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice and daughter, Miss Ellen Maurice, live at Eagle Springs. His son, Stewart, is a professor at University of Tennessee and another daughter is Mrs. John Hammond of Connecticut.
