Club Holds Regular Thanksgiving Meet

Barium Springs Orphanage Head Guest Speaker at Dinner at Mrs. Page's

The annual Thanksgiving dinner of the Sandhills Kiwanis Club at the home of Mrs. J. R. Page, for benefit of the Barium Springs Orphanage, brought out 49 members and guests to hear Joseph B. Johnston, superintendent of the orphanage, speak of the achievements of some of the orphanage graduates, and the work at the institution.

Physical well-being, proper education, developing self-reliance, courage, and proper attitudes were described as the most important objectives of an orphanage. Mr. Johnston said that the problems were the same in every institution of its kind.

Saying that over 100 graduates of the orphanage were now serving in the armed forces, Mr. Johnston declared a task of training the younger ones, now growing up was just as important, for they must be ready for the "job of the peace and to re-establish order out of the terrible condition the world is in today."

Dr. T. A. Cheatham spoke briefly of the tuberculosis seal sale campaign and the club voted $10 to the county association.

Guests at the meeting included George Thompson, John H. Howarth, Norman Shenk, Lieut. Titus, Harold McAllister, Major H. V. Carson, James Worthington, all of Southern Pines; Mrs. Meyer of New York, Forrest Lockley, O. O. Seymour, the Rev. E. L. Barber, the Rev. Daniel Lane, H. W. Doub and H. C. Blue, all of Aberdeen, and Mrs. Johnston, wife of the speaker. Proceeds from the dinner went to the Barium Springs Orphanage.

The Fifth and Sixth grade room has a new interest in their Science corner. A friend of theirs sent them a barometer. It has a little girl on it. The little girl's dress can change to three colors. The weather can forecast by it from three to twenty-four hours. They like to watch the dress change colors, and it is a good "Jo-Jo."

and Donald Scheipers are relighting an old flame—If Buddy Perkins gets in much more trouble Barbara Bacon is going to be a nervous wreck about him—What's this I hear about Al Fields and Nancy Regan? Could be! Well, for a little while I thought Jimmy de Berry and Paul Fowler had proven too much competition for Joe Thomas but I see he's making one last desperate stand.

Theatre

Take the sparkling tunes of Jerome Kern, Fred Astaire's nimble toes tap dancing to the music of Xavier Cugat and his orchestra and a gay musical is the result in "You Were Never Lovelier," the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Sunday night, November 29th, at 8:30 and Monday, November 30th, at 3:00 and 8:30 p. m. Singing and dancing with Astaire is lovely Rita Hayworth, while Adolphe Menjou is on hand to do a fine comedy job. It is a gay, gleeful, tuneful and delightful piece of entertainment and is a perfect antidote for these trying times.

On Monday and Tuesday at the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, the favorite radio stars of millions, Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd; Fibber McGee and Molly, Harold Peary (the Great Gildersleeve), Bill Thompson (Wimple), Isabel Randolph (Mrs. Uppington), Ray Noble and his orchestra, Ginny Simms and others, are on the screen in a comedy with music, under the title of "Here We Go Again."

In technicolor hues that fairly take patrons out of this world, 20th Century-Fox retells Sabatini's romantic history of pirate Henry Morgan and his pals, and what happened to them when they took over the British colony of Jamaica to save the Caribbean for the British Empire, in "Black Swan" which is playing a return engagement at the Carolina Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday December 2, 3 at 8:15 with a Thursday matinee at 3:00.
