THANK YOU, SCOUTS

The Southern Pines Camp and Hospital Committee of the Red Cross wishes to thank the Boy and Girl Scouts for their part in Monday's drive to collect articles for the Recreation Rooms at Camp Mackall. Due to the gas shortage, the committee, which is composed of Mrs. Edith H. Mudgett, chairman, Mrs. J. J. Spring and Mrs. E. Levis Prizer, will appreciate it if others who have donations to make will leave them before July 1st in Mrs. Mudgett's garage Ashe street.

WED IN SEBRELL, VIRGINIA

MRS. PHILIP J. WEAVER

Of much interest to residents of the Sandhills is the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Winston Cobb, daughter of Mrs. Linwood Meedius Cobb, Sebrell, Va., and Philip Johnson Weaver of Southern Pines in the Sebrell Methodist Church Friday evening, June 18, at eight o'clock.

In a church softly illuminated by candle light, and decorated with white flowers and ferns, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Linwood Meedius Cobb, Jr., and the ceremony was performed by Dr. Charles Clinton Weaver, father of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Twyman Talmadge, brother-in-law of the bride. Mrs. George Walter Reese, aunt of the bride, rendered the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Louise Clayton who sang "Oh Promise Me" by De Koven, and Capt. Lee Weaver in singing "Because" by d'Hardelot.

The bride's gown of white net over satin was fashioned in fitted bodice with round neckline and long sleeves lace edged, and full skirt with lace edged train. A finger tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of Stephanotis, baby's breath and white orchids. Her only ornament was a bracelet, which had been worn by her mother and grandmother at their weddings.

Mrs. Twyman Talmadge Fowler, sister of the bride and matron of honor wore a gown with fitted bodice of silk jersey, full skirt of chiffon in flamingo, a Juliet cap trimmed with a small cluster of garden flowers matching those in her cascade bouquet.

The gowns and Juliet caps of the bridesmaids, Miss Janie Weaver, Mrs. Robert Gordon Cobb and Miss Mary Owen Cobb, were pale blue styled as that of the matron of honor and they carried similar bouquets. Each attendant wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bride.

L. Stacey Weaver, brother of the groom, served as best man, and ushers were M. F. Grantham of Southern Pines, Sergeant Robert Gordon Cobb of Camp Forrest, Tenn., and Dr. W. E. Woodruff of Winston-Salem.

Immediately following the wedding a reception for the bridal party, relatives and intimate friends was held at the home of Mrs. Linwood Cobb.

Mrs. Weaver, a graduate of Farmville State Teachers College, Farmville, Va., is a former member of the Southern Pines High School faculty and is well known in the Sandhills. Mr. Weaver is a graduate of Duke University and received his Masters degree at the University of North Carolina. After a trip through the south Mr. and Mrs. Weaver will make their home in Southern Pines where Mr. Weaver is Superintendent of Schools.

Among out of town guests attending the wedding were M. F. Grant-ham, Robert Dunn and Harry Lee Brown, Jr., of Southern Pines; Jerrill Dutton, Fort Bragg; Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Weaver, Miss Janie Weaver, and Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodruff of Winston-Salem; Capt. Lee Weaver, Oak Ridge, N. C.; Supt. and Mrs. Stacy Weaver, Statesville; Miss Helen Ricks, Blacksburg, Va.; Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. L. Cobb and Edwin Cobb, Courtland, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reese, Miss Emily Reese and G. W. Reese, Jr., of Richmond; Mrs. C. H. Perkinson, Dolphin, Va.; Miss Louise Clayton and the Rev. and Mrs. T. T. Fowler of Portsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reese of Wakefield, Va.
