BASKETBALL TEAMS ARE ENTERTAINED

Last Monday night, January 29, the Southern Pines High School basketball teams enjoyed a dinner given them at the Country Club by some of the townspeople. Guests of honor were Donald Scheipers, Clyde Smith, and David Morrison, who were leaving for the Navy, and Jimmy Harrington, who is leaving for college at a later date. Activities featured games, dancing, and a sports quiz. The three members of the basketball team who are leaving were given scrolls signed by all their team mates, and all four boys were given going-away presents. Those attending the party included Superintendent and Mrs. P. J. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dawson, Miss Aline Todd, and the members of both the boys' and the girls' basketball teams.

Theatre

Back in musical comedy again, after his sensationally successful flight into the finer stuffs of "Going My Way", Bing Crosby comes to the Pinehurst Theatre, Sunday night, Feb. 4th, for a return date in the Sandhills, in "Here Come The Waves", backed by a strong supporting cast including Betty Hutton and Sonny Tufts. Bing Crosby's tricks with his voice and desperate grabbing of the microphone in his burlesque of the current "swoon-croon" craze is one of the funniest things to come out of Hollywood in years. His gift for comedy has been overshadowed by his singing during his many years in pictures but this one brings out his flair to an increasingly greater degree.

Due to circumstances over which we have no control, there will be no attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Wednesday, Feb. 7th.

The New York of 41 years ago provides the colorful background against which an extremely interesting psychological drama unfolds in "Experiment Perilous", the attraction at the Pinehurst Theatre, Friday Night, Feb. 9th, at 8:30. The superb cast is headed by Hedy Lamarr, George Brent and Paul Lukas and includes Carl Esmond, Albert Decker, Margaret Wicherly, Mary Servos and many others.

As a piece of production craftsmanship it is so good it enters the category of an achievement. The horse-and-buggy decade has been captured with a fine fidelity and appreciation.

At the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 4-5-6, at 8:15 p. m., Humphrey Bogart, Walter Brennan and the new screen "find" Lauren Bacall, return to the Sandhills in "To Have And Have Not", which is a grand sequel to Bogart's former success, "Casa Blanca."

The setting is Martinique where DeGaulists are beginning to make things hum for Admiral Robert and his Vichy administrators.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 7-8, at 8:15 p. m. with a matinee, "Experiment Perilous" comes to the Southern Pines Theatre. It is masterfully produced with meticulous attention to details, making most convincing the atmosphere and backgrounds of the gaslight era in which the story unfolds. Performances, without exception are flawless and direction is of like quality.

On Friday and Saturday, Feb. 9-10, at 8:15 p. m. with a Saturday matinee, that hilarious comedy, "Three Is a Family", featuring Charlie Ruggles, Kay Bainter, Helen Broderick and Hattie McDaniel, returns to the Sandhills, at the Southern Pines Theatre. Combining the universal, homely appeal of a pair of chubby twins in three-cornered pants with the laughable side of the current help, housing and husband shortage, the picture is solid fun, in which, through a maze of babies, bottles and bassinets, grandpa, grandma and maiden aunt struggle to keep their dispositions and sanity.

Vitamin A
Vitamin A is not lost in cooking, so both cooked carrots and raw will give the family an essential vitamin. The mature deep-yellow carrot has the most concentrated vitamin A.
