

Society and Personals of the Sandhills

Piano Students and Hi-School Glee Club to be in Recital

An invitation to the public is extended by Mrs. Claude Hafer to attend the annual recital of her piano students to be given Wednesday afternoon, May 22, at four o'clock in the Jefferson Inn. The Southern Pines High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Hattie May Barber will also take part in program and will sing several musical numbers.

Students who will be presented by Mrs. Hafer are Janet Hamel, Mary Dell Matchett, Dorothy Newton, Julie MacCaskill, Shirley Warren, Peggy Wooten, Carol Sue Humphrey, Mary Allred, Jeanne Overton, Edna Bailey, Dorothy Gale, Patricia Caddell, Carolyn Nelson, Ann Pleasant, Betty Lane Dunn, Gaynelle Gwyn, Grace Eifort, Mary Sue Cummings and James Farrell.

Thistle Club Party

The Thistle Bridge Club will feature a white-elephant party, each guest to bring a wrapped prize for exchange. The party will be a dessert bridge at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, May 18, in the Civic Club building. Players are asked to make their reservations with Mrs. L. D. McDonald.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Louise Martin

Many attractive social affairs have been given complimenting Miss Louise Leach Martin of Aberdeen, whose engagement to Lee Snipes Buchanan was announced recently. Their marriage will be May 24 in Page Memorial Church, Aberdeen.

Miss Martin was honored recently at luncheon and a surprise shower at the Colonial Pines Hotel, Raleigh, given by Miss Idell Buchan and Mrs. Ralph G. Buchan of Raleigh. Covers were laid for sixteen guests.

Among Miss Martin's friends in Aberdeen who have complimented her during the past week were Miss Pearl McMillan who entertained in her home Monday evening with a card party and miscellaneous shower. Thirty-eight guests were in attendance.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. P. J. Chester, Mrs. Leroy Harrington and Mrs. Ira F. Peak were hostesses at a tea given in Mrs. Chester's home. Seventy-five guests called during the hours of four to five-thirty to greet the bride-elect.

Mrs. H. W. Doub, Mrs. F. A. Worsley and Mrs. H. E. Bowman were hostesses Thursday afternoon at a card party in Mrs. Doub's home. The afternoon of bridge was followed by a tea and a surprise shower for Miss Martin.

Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. John T. Wells, III entertained at luncheon and bridge Tuesday afternoon in her home on East Vermont Avenue. Her guests were Miss Marguerite Wolf, Mrs. W. E. Tardy, Mrs. L. D. McDonald and Mrs. C. L. Worsham.

House Party Guests

Miss Florence Campbell will entertain with a house party for five of her former friends from Cleveland, Ohio. All have known each other since their early school days and this is their first reunion in several years. They are driving to Southern Pines for a visit of ten days and will arrive this week-end.

In the party are Mrs. Fred Watkins, Mrs. Walter Cushing Greene, Mrs. Walter Higbee Caskey and Miss Theodora Blake, and driving from Rockport, Mass., are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkness Davis. Mr. Davis will visit his sister in Washington, D. C., and will return for Mrs. Davis next week.

Teddy Hutchison Celebrates Birthday

On the afternoon of Tuesday, May 14, Teddy Hutchison was host to several of his young friends at a party celebrating his fifth birthday. He is the son of Capt. and Mrs. M. L. Hutchison and the party was given at his parent's home on East Vermont Avenue from three-thirty to five o'clock. The children played games and were served birthday cake and ice cream, and each youngster received a favor.

Teddy's guests were Ann and Frank Tadlock, Adrienne Montesanti, Billy Wilson, Jimmy Fosyth, Brooks Reed, Claude and George Ream, Billy Wiggs and Andy Patterson.

DAR Meeting to be in Carthage Saturday

Mrs. F. H. Underwood of Carthage will be hostess to the Alfred Moore Chapter of the DAR in her home Saturday afternoon, May 18, at three-thirty o'clock. Mrs. Robert Footman of Lillington, newly elected regent of the chapter, will preside at the meeting.

Informal Dance

Of special interest in entertaining last week was the informal dance given by Louise Milliken and Billy Warner in the attractively decorated Civic Club building. Seventy members of the younger set were guests at the party which marked the birthday anniversaries of the host and hostess.

Dancing was enjoyed between the hours of eight and one. Refreshments of punch, from a punch bowl which was surrounded by an arrangement of red roses against a white background tasty, sandwiches and cookies were served. Chaperones in attendance, and also enjoying the party were Mrs. J. Elmer Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Lennox Forsyth and Herrmann Grover.

Dessert Bridge

On Tuesday afternoon of this week Mrs. Louis Scheipers entertained in her home with a dessert bridge party of three tables.

Her guests were Mrs. W. N. Hutt, Mrs. Paul Pelton, Mrs. James Milliken, Mrs. John G. Harrington, Mrs. W. L. Baker, Mrs. J. T. Overton, Mrs. Morris Johnson, Mrs. George Proctor, Mrs. George W. Case, Miss Margaret Stewart and Mrs. Frank Pottle.

June Blue Back

Cutting short his expected vacation, following his release from the Army Apr. 28, D. Al Blue, Jr., has returned to his former capacity of funeral director with J. N. Powell, Incorporated. Mr. Blue was with Powell's for eight years preceding his enlistment in the Army in 1943.

Evening Bridge Party

Mrs. Currie L. Smith and Mrs. Jack Weatherly were hostesses at five tables of bridge last Friday evening in Mrs. Smith's home on West Illinois avenue.

Their guests were Mrs. Fred Chappell, Mrs. Dante Montesanti, Mrs. J. T. Overton, Miss Kate McIntyre, Miss Millie Montesanti, Mrs. J. D. Sitterson, Mrs. Frank Neely, Mrs. Glenn Gibson, Mrs. D. Al Blue, Jr., Mrs. A. H. Eakins, Mrs. C. L. Worsham, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Walter Harper, Miss Lee Occhipinti, Mrs. Earl Merrill, Mrs. Harold B. Smith, Mrs. Don Squire, Mrs. Thomas Atkinson and Mrs. H. L. Hoffman.

Tally prizes were received by Mrs. Sitterson, Mrs. Overton, Mrs. Neely and Mrs. Chappell.

Former Resident Returns for Visit

Mrs. Inez Bredbeck, a former resident of Southern Pines for many years, arrived from Port Clinton, Ohio, Monday to be the guest of Mrs. Nettie Ayres and her mother, Mrs. Jessie Rogers, this week.

Of interest to their many friends in Southern Pines is the announcement of the January wedding of Mrs. Bredbeck's daughter, Donna, to James Sparks, Jr., of San Francisco and St. Louis, in Port Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks are living in San Francisco.

Nancy Johnson Engaged to Gerald B. Webb, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph K. Trix of Englewood, N. J., and Southern Pines, announce the engagement of Mrs. Trix's daughter, Miss Nancy B. Johnson, formerly of the WAVES, to Gerald B. Webb, Jr., former captain, overseas 28 months in India and China, son of Dr. Gerald B. Webb and the late Mrs. Webb of Colorado Springs.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of the late George W. Johnson of Englewood, and granddaughter of the late Sen. William M. Johnson of Hackensack, N. J. She attended Dwight and Ethel Walker schools.

Mr. Webb was graduated from Deerfield Academy and attended the University of Virginia. He has resumed his position as managing editor of "The Chronicle", a sporting journal published in Middleburg, Va.

The marriage of Miss Johnson and Mr. Webb will unite two families of horse-lovers. Miss Johnson has long been a devotee of hunting, having started her hunting career with the Moore County Hounds. Mr. Webb, steeple-chase rider as well as editor of the sporting "Chronicle", has hunted in Virginia since boyhood. The wedding will be at Lake Placid in August.

Navy Man Home

Lt. (j.g.) Collester is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. H. Collester, after ten months duty in the Pacific Area. Lt. (j.g.) Collester was a Corsair pilot attached to the Bombing Fighting Squadron 19 on the USS Hornet. He was separated from active service on May 4 at San Francisco, and has since visited at Cambridge and Newton, Mass., and at points en route from San Francisco here.

Surprise Party

When Group Three of the Church of Wide Fellowship met at Mrs. A. L. Burney's home last Thursday afternoon for their final spring meeting, Mrs. Louis Scheipers, chairman, was surprised to find that members had planned a party in honor of her birthday. Attractive arrangements of flowers decorated the Burney home and favors and refreshments carried out a birthday motif. Mrs. Scheipers was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Sadler and Charles, Jr., are vacationing in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., for four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Inman and young daughter, Mary Leigh, of Norfolk, Va., have returned to their home after a ten day visit with Mrs. H. E. Thrower.

Mrs. Malcolm Grover and children, Joan and Johnny, are visiting Mrs. Grover's parents in Newton, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Eakins left last Saturday for a motor trip to Suffern and Binghamton, N. Y., where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Families Leave for Overseas

Mrs. Robb S. MacKie and children, Katherine and James, are making plans to join Col. MacKie this summer in the Philippines where he is stationed with the AFWESPAC. They expect to sail from San Francisco about the middle of June with the first group to go to the Philippines. Mrs. MacKie and the children who have been spending the winter in Southern Pines in the Ramsey house while the children attended The Ark School, left this week for a visit in New York state before going to the west coast.

Mrs. Benjamin M. Bradin and daughter and son, Miss Jane and Jimmy, left Wednesday for New York City. They expect to sail for Germany within a few days after their arrival in New York and will join Capt. Bradin who is stationed with the 1641st Engineering Utilities Detachment in the Berlin district.

Magnolia Lodge

Among the recent arrivals at Magnolia Lodge are Mrs. B. Ann Teed of Palm Beach, Fla., and New York City, and Mrs. Herman Ditrich of Millerton, N. Y., who will remain for several weeks.

Guests of Mrs. Alice Adams at Magnolia Lodge who have stopped for short visits during the week are R. D. Morris of Greensboro who visited Mrs. Adams on Mother's Day. Mrs. Cameron L. Adams of Pinebluff was here for the week-end, and Mrs. J. C. Adams, also of Pinebluff, was a visitor on Wednesday.

Woman's Society

The Woman's Society of the Church of Wide Fellowship will meet in the church parlor on Thursday afternoon, May 23, at three o'clock. All ladies of the parish are cordially invited to attend.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. John Hendee Bradin and son, Jackie, stopped for an overnight visit Monday with Mrs. B. M. Bradin and family, when returning from a vacation in Florida to their home in West Hartford, Conn. Mr. Bradin is a cousin of Capt. B. M. Bradin.

Mrs. E. J. Austin is spending the week in Raleigh with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brockwell, who have just returned from a trip to Florida.

Mrs. Francis Alba deCosta left Monday night for a two weeks' stay in New York City.

Mrs. W. E. Swan, Jr., of Alexandria, Va., is visiting her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Schwartz and Miss Frances, for two weeks.

Maj. J. D. Sitterson, Jr., who has been a patient in a Fort Bragg Hospital for several weeks, recovering from a leg fracture, is spending his sick leave of a month at the home of his parents on Ashe street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson Neal have been spending the week in Washington, D. C., while Mr. Neal was there on business.

Albert Bretsch, who entered Moore County Hospital last week, underwent a major operation Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kelsey and Mrs. Wallace Speers have returned to Montclair, N. J., following a recent visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Kelsey, Massachusetts avenue. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kelsey will leave shortly for the west coast to make their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. C. H. Burkhead and daughter, Mrs. Borden Givens, have returned from a few days' visit at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. T. B. Strobe in Lynchburg, Va. Mrs. Strobe is daughter of Col. and Mrs. Burkhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Roy Temple and Peter spent last week-end with Mrs. Grinnell's mother, Mrs. L. M. Temple, in Lakeview, S. C.

Mrs. Ann Alvey of Fort Bragg and Southern Pines left last week for Washington, D. C., where she will be associated in work with the Medical Museum. She has served as laboratory technician in a Fort Bragg hospital for the past four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thayer of May street are vacationing in Hollywood, Fla.

Mrs. John R. Corcoran and daughter, Patsy, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Green, left Sunday for their home in Columbus, Ohio. Lt. Corcoran who has been stationed at Fort Bragg for several months, has been transferred to New York.

Personals

Mrs. Richard Maybin will go to Winston-Salem this Saturday to visit her husband for the week-end. Mr. Maybin is serving his internship at Bowman Gray Hospital.

Mrs. Jean Edson and Miss Erma Fisher are vacationing at Myrtle Beach this week.

Mrs. E. S. Holcomb has returned to Broken Bow, Neb., after several weeks' visit with Mrs. Jessie Rogers and Mrs. Nettie Ayres.

E. C. McBroom of Charlotte and Greensboro, district manager of Western Union, was a Southern Pines visitor for two days this week.

Mrs. L. M. Shiring and her daughters, Miss Norma and Miss Hazel Shiring, left Monday for their summer home at Moreau Lake, Gansevoort, N. Y., after spending the winter in Southern Pines.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Trix left recently for a stay in New York City before going to Lake Placid where they will be during the summer.

Miss Marietta Vanderveer spent Thursday and Friday with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Vanderveer, in Cherry Point.

Mrs. Shields Cameron is expected to return to her home on Ashe street this week-end from Moore County Hospital where she has been a patient for the past two weeks following an appendectomy.

Mrs. Raymond Johnson and children, Ruth and Raymond, of Clarksville, Ga., arrived Thursday for a three weeks' visit with Mrs. Johnson's father and aunt, S. B. Richardson and Miss Mary Richardson.

Mrs. H. W. Dorn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dorn and Louise Dorn will motor to Raleigh Friday for a three days' visit with relatives there and in Willow Springs and Bailey.

Miss Hazel Hackney came from Norfolk, Va., last week-end to spend Mother's Day with her parents.

Mrs. W. E. Cox left Tuesday for a week's visit in Richmond, Va. During her absence Mrs. Lillian Nesbett will stay in Mrs. Cox's apartment at Resthaven before leaving for New York and Hendersonville where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Perkam, who have had an apartment at The Smilax through the winter, have gone to Portland, Me., for the summer months.

While en route from Daytona Beach to their home in Bethlehem, N. H., last week Ralph K. Ebling, one-arm golf pro, and Mrs. Ebling stopped for a short visit with Mrs. J. Elmer Harrington at the Southland Hotel.

Col. and Mrs. John Norton of New York and Lt. and Mrs. Whitney Eby of Kansas have leased apartments in the A. H. Eakins dwelling on May street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barron left last week to spend the summer in Ridgefield Park, N. J., and Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Miss Alexa McColl returned from New York City recently for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Katherine McColl, Massachusetts avenue.

Miss Mary and Miss Helen Finn are leaving for their home at Old Orchard, Me., after spending the winter at Resthaven.

LEGION BENEFIT

All legionnaires and members of the Legion Auxiliary of Sandhills Post No. 134 are urged to attend the Benefit Night to be held on Wednesday night, May 22nd, from 7:30 P. M. till midnight at the Club Casino in the Warehouse Building in Pinehurst.

Chester I. Williams, operator of the Club Casino and Chairman of the Committee in charge of the benefit, announces that all ticket sales and other money paid in will be turned over to the Sandhills Post No. 134 to reimburse the treasury which has been depleted due to the new roof that has been put on the Legion Hut in Southern Pines.

Tickets can be secured in Pinehurst at the Carolina Pharmacy or from Chester I. Williams, and in Southern Pines can be had from Lloyd Woolley, L. V. O'Callaghan or Virgil Clark.

LOST IS FOUND

Driving through Southern Pines on April 12, Mrs. M. L. Blaney of Cranston, R. I., lost a camera and exposure meter in the vicinity of May Street, later advertising the missing items in

MEN'S STRAW HATS
Cool
Panamas
Synthetic Braids
Sailor
Straws

TOG SHOP
SOUTHERN PINES

$3.50 to $8.50

We Shall Be Pleased
To Help You
Select
an Appropriate
Gift for a Graduate

from a desirable assortment suitable for the occasion including

Fine Leather Goods, Exquisite Perfumes
Toilet Sets and Accessories,
Bath Powders, Bath Salts, Bath Mats
Cigarette Lighters, Flashlights,
Fountain Pen Sets, Pen and Pencil Sets
Nylon Brushes

We Are At Your Service
SUNDAY, MAY 19th
Hours 9 to 1-3 to 7

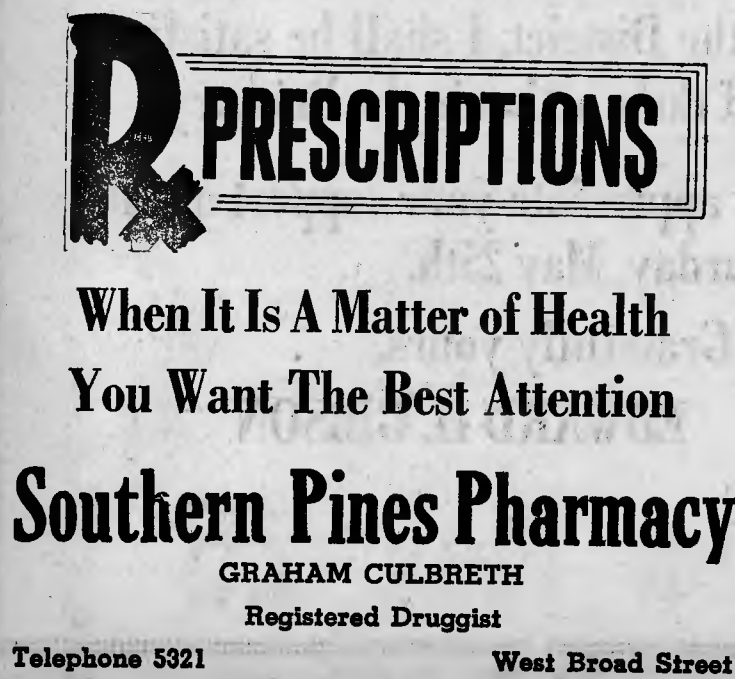

SANDHILL DRUG COMPANY
PRESCRIPTION SPECIALISTS
Telephone 6663 Southern Pines

QUALITY FIRST

Fruits and Vegetables
FARM FRESH EVERY DAY
FINE GROCERIES
Choice Poultry and Sea Foods
Maine Lobsters Every Week End
MONARCH FRUIT JUICES
Orange - Grapefruit
Blended Orange & Grapefruit
in Pints and Quarts

The Modern Market
TELEPHONE 6062 SOUTHERN PINES
BLUE & HACKNEY

PRESCRIPTIONS

When It Is A Matter of Health
You Want The Best Attention

Southern Pines Pharmacy
GRAHAM CULBRETH
Registered Druggist
Telephone 5321 West Broad Street

the classified column of THE PILOT. upon seeing the ad in our April 19 issue—put their find promptly on its way to Rhode Island. So the lost was found. And each of the boys received a crisp dollar bill this week from the grateful owner.