"The Ark" Ends Nineteenth Year

The Ark School, Southern Pines, completed its nineteenth year Wednesday, May 22nd, after one of the busiest seasons in its history.

The pupils covered excellent work in their studies, and again contributed eagerly to Red Cross work.

With wool generously donated by Mrs. Clark Arkell, and the children themselves, they have woven or knitted over 550 squares for afghans and scarves to be sent abroad. The school has also contributed, "Cloth for the Children of Greece" in response to an appeal from the Near East Foundation which has 17,000 children in centers called "Eagle's Nests" located in the mountains of Greece.

Every opportunity is seized to make the pupils "world minded" especially as several are scattering to various corners of the earth. Kim and Jim McKie are already on their way to the Philippines; Mary Molitor leaves shortly for Italy; Barbara Wallis's destination is Tokyo; Ursula Harrison expects to join her father in Manila, later, and Gail Walsh will be in Latin America.

The school will re-open Monday, October 7, when Mrs. Hayes anticipates a good enrollment.

The Carolinas

Fresh from her triumph in "Week End At The Waldorf," Lana Turner comes to the Pinehurst Theatre, Sunday Night, May 26th, at 8:30 in the most ambitious role of her career in "The Postman Always Rings Twice".

John Garfield co-stars with the glamorous Miss Turner for the first time, as the easy-going vagabond who takes his love where he finds it, and who finds it under strange circumstances in a roadside restaurant run by Lana and her unimaginative husband, played by Cecil Kellaway.

"The Postman Always Rings Twice", also returns to the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, Wednesday and Thursday, May 29-30 at 8:15 P. M. with a Thursday Matinee at 3:00

At the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines, the excitingly different romantic drama, "Gilda", starring Rita Heyworth and Glenn Ford, returns to the Sandhills, on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 26-27-28, at 8:15 P. M. with a Tuesday Matinee at 3:00.

On Friday and Saturday, May 31st, and June 1st, at 8:15 P. M. with a Saturday Matinee at 3:00, that top M-G-M Western "Bad Bascomb" returns to the Sandhills at the Carolina Theatre, Southern Pines.

It was an inspiration on somebody's part to team Wallace Beery and Margaret O'Brien in this rip roaring western story that appeals to children and grownups alike. Little Miss O'Brien, winner in the 1945 exhibitor poll, is perfect as a foil for Beery's portrayal of a rough, tough outlaw with a heart of gold.

Sunrise

Robert Alda, who made his screen debut as George Gershwin in "Rhapsody In Blue", and vivacious Joan Leslie are together again as co-stars in Warner Bros.' new comedy romance, "Cinderella Jones," which plays at the Sunrise Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Adapted for the screen by Charles Hoffman from a successful Saturday Evening Post story by Philip Wylie, "Cinderella Jones" tells the streamlined story of a modern Cinderella who, equipped with youth, beauty and ten million dollars, sets out to stalk a husband on the fertile campus grounds of an all-male university.

Featuring William Prince, S. Z. Sakall, Julie Bishop and Edward Everett Horton in important supporting roles, "Cinderella Jones" was directed by Busby Berkeley, photographed by Sol Polito, A. S. C., and produced by Alex Gottlieb.

VETERAN

LEGISLATOR

WILBUR H. CURRIE

Mr. Currie's long experience in public affairs—Town Commissioner, Mayor of Carthage, Member and for many years Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners—have given him an intimate knowledge of Moore County affairs. His previous great service in both the Lower and Upper Houses of the General Assembly, too, have won for him the confidence and respect of his former colleagues, many of whom will be back in Raleigh, and State Administrative heads, from Governor Cherry on down.

Mr. Currie has been a consistent advocate of Social Security, Workmen's Compensation, Better Schools, Good Roads and Improved Public Health. His record on these important matters is an open book, and to him belongs a lion's share of the credit for the excellent comparative standing of his Native County in Schools, Health and Public Welfare. He is especially alive to the need of Secondary Roads, neglected because of the exigencies of war, and he can be depended upon to secure for Moore County a generous proportion of any Highway Funds allocated for this purpose.

On matters of County Fiscal Affairs, Mr. Currie is regarded as an Expert and has few equals in this respect.

Progressive But Economical

Another very favorable attribute of Mr. Currie, one that should appeal particularly to the voters, is his reputation for economy tempered with progressiveness. In speaking of Mr. Currie, one of his local friends has said: "I have noticed that Mr. Currie, from the day he started serving as County Commissioner more than 12 years ago, has insisted upon economy in Governmental Affairs—strict economy. Yet I have always observed that he supported real, tested progressive measures—such as Better Schools, Improved Health and Better Roads—with an enthusiasm that appeared strange to his reputation for thrift. He is what you would call a safe, sound, sane public servant. He is for the things that better our Community and State, but he wants to see that the Taxpayers get their money's worth. It is also a great compliment to Mr. Currie that in his long public service, as County Commissioner, as a Member of the House and Member of the Senate, not a single questionable action has ever been charged against him."
