GRADUATION

(Continued from Page 1) These will be for Athletics, Dramatics, Glee Club, and the Scholarship Award will go to First Honor Student, Jane McCain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. McCain, of Sanitorium. Other awards will include the Medal, the Junior Chamber of Commerce Improvement Cup, and the Faculty Plaque to that student who has given most unselfishly of time and effort to the school.

Fifteen students will graduate from Southern Pines High School this year, and two of them - Drennan Geddes Mann and Jane Todd McCain will be Honor Graduates, having averaged 90 or above for each year in High School.

John Boyd Honored

The Veterans of Foreign Wars have chosen a good name for their new post. May they bring it the honor John Boyd would have brought his name had he lived.

The next meeting of the VFW John Boyd Post will be held at the Community Center Monday June 3rd at 8 P. M.

Shaw House Purchase

It was voted that the same Grounds Committee, already appointed by the chairman, should continue in a temporary capacity, in order to assure supervision of the property and, if possible, to begin the work of restoration, during the summer.

With some eighty memberships, and the purchase of the first project well lined up, it was generally felt that the Moore County Historical Association might consider itself a firmly established organization, resting upon well-founded grounds of public support and enthusiasm.

The next meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, June 11th, 8 P. M.

AVC Hold Big Dance

(Continued from Page 1) teen hundred cans have been collected in Southern Pines, Aberdeen, and Pinehurst. This food stuff is now on its way to help those who vitally need it overseas.

The American Veterans Committee is holding this dance to obtain funds to carry on their work in helping the community and the country. Tickets will be sold at $2.40 per couple at the door, by AVC members, and at various localities throughout the area.

The public is cordially invited to come on June 7th, Southern Pines Country Club at 9:30 p. m. and join in the good time.

All God's Chillun

Southern Pines voted 294 for Horner to 89 for Deane; Horner carried the county by 562 votes, but in the district Deane won.

In the election for the state senate the town gave Currie 248 votes to Johnson's 130, the county voted: Currie 2196, Johnson 1061.

In the four-sided race for representative, Sandhill Citizen Publisher H. Clifton Blue demonstrated the superiority of newspapermen over all comers. The town gave him 191 votes, Ransdell 88, Mrs. Guthrie 78, Charles McLeod 23. In the county voting they stood: Blue 1340, McLeod 757, Ransdell 610, Guthrie 603.

In the election of the clerk of the superior court the local boy made good in his home town and, to everyone's surprise, didn't do so badly in the county vote, either. It ran: John Willcox, Southern Pines vote 99, Moore County 1978; Carlton Kennedy, Southern Pines 290, Moore County 1335.

Miss McCaskill beat the young veteran, James E. Monroe, by about the same margin in both places. Southern Pines gave her 205 votes, Moore County 2063, while Monroe got 152 and 1216.

H. G. Poole was elected to the board of education by some hundred votes in Southern Pines and by 500 in the county, while W. H. Jackson scored a big victory over Bethel Dunlap for County Commissioner from District 2, polling 272 votes in Southern Pines and 2428 in the county.

Except for the disappointment over Horner, general satisfaction was expressed in the results of the day. It was felt that the good showing of some of the newcomers indicated a healthy desire for new blood in county affairs. Though all the "regulars" had come through, it was evident that the party would have to make room for other good men and true in the future.

On the whole everyone was satisfied, except, for two angry little groups. These were the twenty or thirty would-be voters who had to be turned down because their names were not on the registration books, and an equally indignant, if even more unreasonable flock of republicans, who were unable to understand that this was a democratic primary election. Convinced that there was some dirty work going on and they were being denied their inalienable right to vote, these forgotten men of the South stormed the polls one after the other in vain attempts to get into the booths.

Finally driven away by the polite if firm objections of the young judges, backed by that old election day eagle Westbrook, they departed muttering darkly. Outside one was heard to burst into song and: "I'll be glad when you're dead, you democrat you!" came drifting back across the street.

Boy Scouts Attend

Sunday morning after breakfast and colors, religious services were held. Reverend Womack was the speaker. At ten fifteen the scouts went to the final lowering of colors and the giving out of ribbons. The scouts of Southern Pines won the third prize. The Chapel Hill Patrol won the Honor Patrol ribbon. The scouts from Southern Pines who attended were Billy Baker, patrol leader, Jimmy Dickerson, assistant patrol leader, Tommy Avery, Roland Bower, Carlton Kennedy, George Straka, David Atherton and Dickie Ray.

Can Collection

Members of the Teen Age Club who made the collections were: Bobby Harrington, Fred Arnette, Jean Schaefer, Sue Hall, Janet Menzel, Bill Warner, John Prizer, Robert McLeod, Carolyn Chester, Jerry Thompson, Gene Brown, David Cameron, Harry Raymond, Jean Murphy, Peggy Phillips, Catherine Sitterson and Jimmy Dickerson.

Pinehurst cars were driven by Mrs. I. C. Sledge, Mrs. Gordon Cameron, Mrs. Harbison and Mrs. Tom Black. The following Boy Scouts helped Jimmie Harbison, Dickie Kelly, Bill Sledge, Teddy Veno, Larry Hartzell, Edward Menefee and Al Watson, Julie Ann McCaskill and Carolyn Nelson also aided in the collection for Pinehurst. Scouts were under the direction of Scoutmaster Ernest Hartzell and Assistant Scoutmaster Curtis McKenzie.

Driving collectors in Aberdeen were: Mrs. Murdoch Muse, Miss Nancy Keith, John Storey and Mrs. Jean Chester ePake.

HORNER THANKS VOTERS

W. E. (Bill) Horner today expressed his appreciation to the Democrats of Moore county for the vote accorded him for Congress in the primary May 25. Final figures show Horner received a total of 18,296 votes against 18,587 for his opponent, a majority of 291 votes. Horner sent a telegram of congratulations to his opponent two days after the primary.

"Despite the closeness of the vote, there will be no request for a recount," Horner said. "I am grateful to all those who voted for me, and have only the kindest feeling toward those who voted for my opponent."

Moore county cast 1,959 votes for Horner and 1,388 for C. B. Deane.
