News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative Telephone Vass 8-F31

Challenging Program

A challenging program on the topic, "Evangelism As a Strategy in Peace," was presented under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Muse when the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. J. Temple with Mrs. Bill Marshburn as hostess. Others on the program were Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., Mrs. W. P. Parker and Mrs. W. C. Leslie.

"Dedication to the Task Ahead" was the theme of the worship service led by Mrs. W. H. Keith. This was followed by a Bible study conducted by Mrs. A. G. Edwards, assisted by Mrs. Temple and Mrs. C. L. Tyson.

During the social hour Mrs. Marshburn was presented a shower of gifts. Delicious refreshments were served.

Lion Club Officers

The Vass Lions Club at its meeting last week elected the following officers: President, W. C. Stevenson of Cameron; 1st vice president, A. G. Edwards, Jr.; 2nd vice president, A. L. Keith; tail twister, J. H. Bunn; Lion tamer, A. W. Payne; directors, W. E. Gladstone and M. M. Chappell. Mr. Gladstone was elected a delegate to the Lions Club convention.

Woman's Club Meets

The Vass Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. C. Leslie at 8:00 p. m. Friday, June 14, with the Education Department in charge of the program.

New Bulletin Board

By special gifts made through the Sunday School, a handsome new metal bulletin board has been purchased for the Methodist Church and was erected last week. Electricians made the necessary connections Monday so that it can be lighted at night.

Personals

Edgar Klingenschmidt of the Navy visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Klingenschmidt, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Taylor and grandchildren, Leslie Katharine, Anthea Carol and Frederick Harrison, spent from Sunday until Wednesday at Myrtle Beach with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Taylor.

Mrs. Clyde Cox underwent a major operation in Lee County Hospital last Friday, and while quite ill, is getting along as well as could be expected. She had been in the hospital about four weeks before the operation.

Mrs. E. L. Rich has returned from a visit with relatives in Troy.

Betsy Chappell went to Ashboro the first of the week to spend the summer with her father, J. A. Chappell.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Whitsell and their two daughters, of Burlington, visited Mrs. Whitesell's mother, Mrs. J. E. Byrd, and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Craig Sunday.

Mrs. M. B. Clayton was called to Atlanta Sunday night because of the critical illness of her sister. She was accompanied by her younger daughter, Mrs. Clyde Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gschwind moved to Aberdeen last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gschwind visited them Sunday afternoon.

Buster Jessup left Monday for California after spending a full week with his mother, Mrs. Levi Jessup.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Callahan, Mack Callahan and daughter, Bonnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Edison Callahan and baby spent Sunday at Bladenboro.

Miss Glennie Keith of Raleigh and Linwood Keith of Baltimore were here for a weekend visit with their mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith. Vick Keith of Sanford joined them at supper Saturday night. Mrs. Keith returned to Raleigh with her daughter Sunday evening and will spend this week visiting there and in Selma.

Dr. Guy Funderburke, a former pastor of the local Baptist Church who served as a chaplain with the Army overseas, was in town on Wednesday afternoon of last week and called on Mrs. G. W. Brooks. He received his discharge as a captain that day, and was going to the home of his father at Pageland, S. C. His wife and their four children were in Texas while Dr. Funderburke was away.

W. E. Gladstone went to State College, Raleigh, Monday to attend a meeting of vocational agriculture teachers, which runs from Monday to Saturday.

Mrs. O. M. Spurlin and Mrs. C. P. McMillan spent part of last week with their sisters, Mrs. Herbert Banks of Garner and Mrs. Seth W. Lassiter of near Smithfield, returning here Thursday night. Mrs. Spurlin left on Friday for her home in Rutherfordton.

Mrs. Charlie Rich and small son, Lloyd, returned to their home in Wilmington last week after spending several days with relatives here.

Dutch Hudson spent part of last week in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Levi Jessup, Buster and Carol Jessup went to West Virginia last week to see Mr. Jessup, who was badly hurt about three weeks ago while playing the part of a good Samaritan. Seeing a car in a ditch, Mr. Jessup stopped to help get it out, and while thus engaged was struck by a passing automobile. He was able to accompany his family home, but the greater part of his body and one leg are in a cast.

Mrs. W. C. Byrd and children of Albemarle spent part of last week with Mrs. J. A. Keith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tyson visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wallace in Carthage Sunday afternoon. Mr. Tyson's mother, Mrs. J. M. Tyson, accompanied them home to spend some time.

The Rev. Mr. Caudell of Salisbury preached at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and in the afternoon met with the Building Committee to discuss plans for the Sunday School rooms which the church plans to build when materials are available. On the committee are W. D. McGill, chairman; D. E. Cameron, P. A. Wilson, W. E. Gladstone, Herbert Caddell, Mrs. Eugene Hicks and Mrs. N. N. McLean. Mr. Caudell spent the night with the Wilsons at the home of Mrs. D. C. McGill, and he and the Rev. and Mrs. Voyles were Sunday dinner guests of the McLeans.

Henry A. Borst, Jr., who has been a patient at Watts Hospital, Durham, for the past month, was feeling much worse when his parents visited him Sunday than he had been for some time. His many friends are hoping that he will soon be improved.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. T. Young moved to Hotel Charmella from Fayetteville on Monday. They are the new owners.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Evans and children were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Norton at Lakeview.
