CARTHAGE NEWS

by Ruth Harriss Tyson

Jaycee Fourth of July Plans
The boys are on the streets now selling tickets for the Fourth of July ball game at one dollar per. A person would have to have a double dose of sales resistance to keep from buying from those super salesmen, school boys whose high pressure sales talk is a natural talent and very definitely something not learned in the school room. They get you going and coming. But why not give in and buy a ticket? It is at the gall game that the super duper de luxe Plymouth is to be given away. You might be the lucky winner. It has been confirmed by telegram that the car is on the way. So it will be here all right.

The Jaycees are hoping that there will be a large number of floats entered for the grand parade, and that there will also be enough odd turnouts to tickle the fancy of that enormous crowd they're expecting to throng the streets of Carthage come Independence Day. Do you have any of the early types of the horseless carriage? How about an old Model T? Or the surrey with the fringe on top? They would do nicely for the parade. First prize for the best float will be $25.00, second prize, $15.00, third prize, $5.00.

A county-wide beauty contest will also be held in Carthage on the Fourth. The young ladies entering will be sponsored by some business or civic organization in their respective communities. The winner will be given a week at Carolina Beach with all expenses paid. From there, she will go to Wilson where she will be entered in the state Jaycee beauty contest.

Sandwich Shop Changes Ownership

The City Sandwich Shop has recently been purchased by David Ginsberg. From now on Mr. Ginsberg states the shop will remain open until eleven every night and from 3:00 to 11:00 o'clock on Sundays. He hopes to give the customers the very best there is in sandwiches.

Fenced In

As a safety measure, the town commissioners have petitioned the Carthage School Board to put a fence across the front of the elementary school yard on Elm Street. They have received a favorable reply. As the volume of traffic in front of the school is now increased there seemed to be some hazard to the children in crossing the street. In the center of the fence will be a gate through which all the children will be required to pass. The policeman will stand at this point to see that the children get across the street safely. Heretofore a few stragglers would cross at other places than the center in spite of the vigilance of the teachers and the traffic officer. Gates at either end will be opened for the buses to drive on and off the school ground.

Re-election of Teachers

All members of the elementary school and the high school faculties have been re-elected for the coming year. Miss Mary Currie, who has been on leave of absence for a year, will return to the faculty here next year.

Sandhill Visitors

Renewing old ties here and in Aberdeen over the weekend were Mrs. Crayton Williams of Charlotte, and Mrs. Frank Page, Jr., of Winston-Salem. They were the former Miss Dorothy Tyson and Miss Evelyn Tyson, daughters of the late T. B. Tyson of Carthage, where they were born and reared. It was quite a treat to their many friends in Moore County to see them again. Dorothy's husband, a colonel in the army, is now out of the services. They will make their home in Charlotte. Evelyn and Frank have been living in Charleston, where Frank was stationed as an officer in the marines. Their daughter, Evelyn, attended the College of Charleston as a day pupil. Frank is also out of the service, and now holds a position with the Veterans Bureau in Richmond. The family will move to Richmond as soon as they can find a house. They are living temporarily with Mrs. Frank Page, Sr. in Winston-Salem.

NIAGARA

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane of Portsmouth, Va., are visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kelly and Mrs. Leo Kelly, all of Charleston, West Virginia, are visiting near Niagara.
