News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative Telephone Vass 8-F31

Newlyweds Honored
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Caddell, who were recently married, were honored by a group from the Presbyterian Sunday School at a surprise shower on Tuesday night of last week. The group assembled at the church, then went quietly to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Key, where they serenaded the newlyweds before going inside to present their gifts.

After the presents had been opened and admired, each guest wrote advice for the bride and also for the bridegroom and Mr. Caddell was required to read this aloud. Mrs. Gladstone then bound the valuable writings into an attractive booklet for the future guidance of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Caddell are moving into an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Callahan.

Sacred Concert
The public is cordially invited to attend a sacred concert which the Carthage Methodist Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Laverne Womack, will give in the Vass Methodist Church at 8 o'clock Sunday night, August 11. A musical treat is in store for all of those who hear this fine choir.

Observes Birthday
Mrs. W. J. Cameron observed her 83rd birthday quietly at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith Saturday. She received many cards and gifts and a number of friends called. The climax came at 6.00 p. m. when a sister, Mrs. J. A. Patterson, a niece, Mrs. Ned Tyrrell, and the latter's young daughter, Patsy arrived unexpectedly from Winston-Salem. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cameron of Manly, Mrs. Catherine Shaw of Southern Pines, and Mrs. W. T. Cox of Vass joined the group.

Mrs. Cameron returned to Winston-Salem with her relatives for a week's visit.

Good News
Lt. Col. and Mrs. Edwin Finch of Washington, D. C., are guests of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beasley, for a few days. It is good news that this recently released naval officer and his wife, who is a school teacher, have purchased a tract of land adjoining that of Mr. Beasley and are planning to erect a modern home as soon as they can.

Revival Services Close
A series of revival services at the tabernacle, conducted by the Rev. F. G. Bertolet of Reading, Pa., came to a close Sunday night. Attendance was good throughout the twelve nights of the meeting, and much interest was manifested.

Mr. Bertolet went from Vass to Robbins to begin a series of evangelical services there Tuesday night.

Filling Station Entered
The first breaking and entering to take place in Vass in a long time occurred Sunday night when someone who evidently was short of cash entered McGill Esso Station. All that Mr. McGill missed was a small amount of cash—perhaps 150 or 200 pennies—and possibly some cigarettes. Entrance was gained through a side door.

Leave Town
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Parker left Monday to make their home near Gibson. Mr. Parker is employed at Laurinburg, only five miles from his new place of residence. Much regret has been expressed at the Parkers' leaving. He was a member of the Vass Lions Club, and Mrs. Parker was active in the Vass Woman's Club and all community activities. Both were members of the Methodist Church. Sunday morning the woman's class, of which Mrs. Parker was president, and the missionary society gave her an electric hot plate in appreciation of her fine service.

Personals
