AS THE ROAD TURNS

August 1, 1946, marks the completion of Seaboard reorganization and the beginning of operations by the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company.

Seaboard has long rendered to the public the best transportation that modern methods could devise. A stronger Seaboard now emerges, bringing opportunity for greater service to our patrons than ever before.

It is our purpose to provide an efficient, courteous transportation service designed to meet every requirement of the shipping and traveling public. In addition, we shall carry on wholeheartedly our efforts toward the economic development of the territory we are privileged to serve.

To you, our patrons, we express appreciation for the friendly relationship which exists between us. You may look confidently to Seaboard for a continuation of the leadership that has brought transportation progress to the South for more than a century.
