Marriage Announced

Of interest in the Sandhills is the announcement by Albert N. DeLaney of the marriage of his daughter, Elizabeth Ann, to Dr. Michael Theodore Pishko on Thursday Aug. 29, at Old Orchard Beach, Maine. The bridal couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Fitzgibbon.

Dr. and Mrs. Pishko are spending several days at Poland Spring House, Poland Springs, Maine, and at the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Marr in Greenville, Maine.

They will be at home after Sept. 15, at their residence on Massachusetts Avenue, Southern Pines. Dr. Pishko is resident physician at Moore County Hospital.

Miss Hine Speaks at League Meeting

A forum discussion of plans for organizing a Moore County unit of the League of Women Voters was held at the Park View Hotel Friday afternoon, Aug. 30. Miss Margaret A. Hine of Washington, D. C., organizer of League study groups in the southeastern states, spoke informally at the meeting. She stressed the fact that the League of Women Voters, which was formed twenty-five years ago, is "an every woman's organization," and its chief business the development of the well-rounded citizen through study of all phases of government and thorough political education. Mrs. Herbert F. Seawell, Sr., of Carthage, a League member in North Carolina of several years standing, also spoke informally telling of League activities in this state.

Tentative plans were discussed for a Moore County League Council, and the forming of smaller groups in each community of the county.

90 Years Old

Clinton W. Kellam of Newton, N. J., and Southern Pines celebrated his ninetieth birthday Tuesday, Aug. 20 at his summer home, Delta Vista, Rolison Woods, Wayne County, Pa. Mr. Kellam, who lived in Newton over forty years, was a building contractor prior to his retirement. He divides his time among Newton, Southern Pines since 1930, and his summer home in Pennsylvania.

On the Sunday before his birthday twenty-seven relatives gathered at Delta Vista to honor Mr. Kellam. The family party was made up of his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and other relatives. He is in good health and takes an active interest in national and international affairs.

Sisters of Mr. Kellam, Mrs. Lena Sweezy and Mrs. Grace Abraham, are residents of Southern Pines.

OLDEST DOG

In the hope that it may be found in this locality, The Pilot has been asked to aid in the search for the oldest dog in America.

The dog is wanted so that it and its owner or owners can be duly honored during the forthcoming observance of National Dog Week, September 22 to 28.

Persons owning or knowing of extremely aged dogs are urged to send complete data and pictures immediately to Harry, Miller, executive secretary, Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York 17, N. Y. In the case of a purebred, a copy of the registration papers should accompany the communication, while in the case of a crossbred, an affidavit from the owner accompanied by sworn statements from persons acquainted with the dog since birth should be sent. The final selection will not be made until the leading candidates have been seen and investigated, according to M. Miller, who adds that any documentary papers submitted will be returned after National Dog Week is over.

GREINER - WHITEHEAD NUPTIAL VOWS SPOKEN IN ILLINOIS CEREMONY

MRS. PHILIP M. WHITEHEAD

Dr. Philip M. Whitehead and his bride, the former Sonja Lee Greiner of Skokie, Ill., will return from their motor wedding trip on Sept. 9 to make their home in Southern Pines.

Their wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, Aug. 31, at seven o'clock in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church at Skokie, Ill. The Rev. P. E. Winger officiated using the double ring ceremony. The bride's wedding gown was of ice-blue sheer net over taffeta in Empire design. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, drop shoulders and net yoke, full skirt ending in a long train over-capped with sequined ruffles of sheer net. Her elbow length gloves of sheer net ended in points below the wrists and were trimmed with small sequined ruffles. Her finger-tip veil of ice-blue net was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and carnations.

Bridal attendants were Dr. Irma Stracke of Chicago as maid of honor; bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Whitehead of Kansas City Mo., sister of the groom, and Miss Marianne Cobb of Chicago; flower er girl, Ellen Greiner, sister of the bride; and ring bearer, Hugo Keim of Chicago.

Dr. Donald Dixon of Des Moines, Iowa, served as best man, and ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Dr. Benjamin Whitehead of Kansas City and David Whitehead of Chicago.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, at the church, with 170 guests attending.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Greiner of Skokie, Ill., and has been a staff member of G. D. Searle and Company in that city for several months.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Whitehead, Kansas City, Mo. Following his graduation from high school in Kansas City he enrolled at Northern Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago and later received his degree there. Dr. Whitehead entered the Army in 1942, serving for fourteen months of that time in the Pacific area, and received his discharge last December. He moved to Southern Pines in June of this year and has opened offices in the Hart building.
