Announce Engagement of Marjorie Jellison to J. J. Spring, Jr.

The engagement of Marjorie Theresa Jellison to James Joseph Spring, Jr., is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Jellison of Southern Pines, and Bethlehem, N. H.

Miss Jellison has been spending the summer with her family at their Inn, The Wayside, Bethlehem. Since her graduation from Southern Pines High School in 1940 she has attended Womans College in Greensboro and later Harbargers Secretarial School in Raleigh.

Mr. Spring is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Spring, Southern Pines. He was a student at the University of North Carolina until he entered the Naval Reserve. As a lieutenant he saw active service in the Atlantic and Pacific, and was an instructor of Naval Recognition at Ohio State University for eight months. At present he is connected with the Stevens Hotel in Chicago and studying at Chicago University.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dean returned to Niagara last Friday from Bath, Maine.

Jean Morrison Hostess

On the afternoon of her eleventh birthday, Friday, Sept. 27, Jean Morrison entertained several of her friends at a movie party. After the theatre they returned to her home on Maine Avenue for refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and coca cola. Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Morrison.

Elizabeth Page and William H. Wardle Married in Aberdeen

Elizabeth Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Page of Aberdeen, and William Hermann Wardle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Wardle of Hobart, Ind., were married in a double ring ceremony Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 1st, at 5.30 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Page, Jr., Aberdeen. The Rev. J. O. Long, pastor of Page Memorial Methodist Church officiated. Before the ceremony, Mrs. I. Frederic Peak played three piano selections, "Ava Maria" and "Serenade" by Franz Schubert, and Claude deBussy's "Clair de Lune." The wedding party entered to "Wedding March" from Lohengrin, and "Liebestraum" by Liszt was played during the ceremony.

The bride descended the stairs and entered the living room with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white duchess satin fashioned with fitted bodice. Her full skirt ended in a court train and her veil of illusion fell the full length of the train from a tiara of pearl orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of gardenias and tube roses tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Mary Page, attending her sister as maid of honor, wore a blue dress of eyelet chiffon with an off-shoulder effect, fitted bodice and hoop skirt with a chiffon ruffle at the hem. She carried a bouquet of fall flowers with yellow roses predominating.

The groom was attended by his father as best man.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace. Wrought iron candelabra with cathedral candles stood behind two tall floor baskets holding white gladioli, chrysanthemums and dahlias. Cibodium fern formed a background for the altar.

Mrs. Page, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of black crepe and chiffon, with corsage of gardenias. The wedding was attended by members of the families and several out of town guests.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The wedding cake was cut by the bride, and Mrs. Martha Page Blackmore and Mrs. Fred Page assisted.

Immediately after the reception the bridal couple left for a trip to the mountains of North Carolina. For traveling Mrs. Wardle wore a suit of grey wool, with a white chiffon blouse and black accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

The bride received her education at Aberdeen high school and Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Va. The groom was graduated from Wheeler High School in Wheeler, Ind. He served for three years in the Army and was stationed at Camp Mackall with the 17th Airborne Division, after which he was on overseas duty with the 431st ASF Band. Since his discharge in April he has been affiliated with radio station WLS in Chicago, Ill.

On Monday night the wedding party and members of the families were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Page at their home in Pinehurst.

Wiener Roast

Members of the B. T. U. of the First Baptist Church were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Olive Monday evening of last week at a wiener roast. The picnic was given on the lawn of the Olive's home on Youngs Road, and after supper the guests enjoyed an evening of games and group singing.

Those present were Anne Field, Janet Johnson, Audrey Epps, Emma Louise Hackney, Dorothy Hendricks, Margaret Muse, Anne Carter, Carol Sue Humphrey, Mary Elizabeth Hackney, Irene and Jean Olive, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Gunter and Lewis Pate.

Bernhardt-McCaskill Vows Spoken Saturday

Of interest in the Sandhills is the marriage of a Candor man, Roger Wayne McCaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McCaskill, and Marion Bernhardt, daughter of Herbert R. Bernhardt of Miami, Fla., and formerly of Buffalo, N. Y.

Palms and baskets of mixed white flowers decorated the Pinehurst Community Church in which the candlelight ceremony was performed at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28. The Rev. Roscoe L. Prince officiated. A program of nuptial music was given by Miss Eloise Wicker, organist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white satin, and her finger-tip veil with lace edging fell from a tiara of small white roses. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses centered with a lavender orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Neville L. Cocker of Buffalo, who wore a gown of powder blue taffeta with full skirt and shirred sleeves, gold accessories, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Dnaiel J. McCaskill attended his brother as best man.

At the Lakeview Hotel, after the wedding, the bride and groom were honored at a reception which was followed by a dinner for members of the wedding party and out of town guests.

The bride, a former resident of Buffalo, attended Bennett High School and is a graduate of the Art Institute in that town. For the three years before her marriage she was photographer for Bell Aircraft in Niagara Falls.

The bridegroom, who attended Candor High School, recently received his discharge from service after three and a half years with the Air Transport Command. Two years of that time was spent in the China-Burma-India theater of operations.

Following their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McCaskill will be at their home in Jacksonville, N. C.
