September means back to school means heavy bicycle traffic in the early morning hours. Have those brakes checked for quick stopping, warns the National Safety Council.

A recent survey shows that among farmers 22 per cent say city folk are too clannish—11 per cent say city people are too proud and superior.

Baptists To Meet At Oakley Today

The one hundred and eighty-ninth session of the Sandy Creek Baptist Association will take place this week at the Oakley Church, which is three miles from Siler City. The moderator of the association, the Rev. E. M. Harris of Southern Pines, gives the dates as October 10th and 11th.

Speakers at the conference will be Dr. S. L. Blanton of Wake Forest College, Mrs. Foy Farmer, president of the N. C. W. M. U., Dr. L. L. Carpenter, editor of the Biblical Recorder, Mr. M. A. Huggins of Raleigh, and Dr. J. A. McMillan of Thomasville.

The association embraces the ham. There are in the Sandy Creek Association fifty-four churches, many of them small country churches with an overall membership of 8972. The contributions last year were $133,104.48; of this amount $27,194.46 was given to missions and benevolences.

Rev. E. M. Harris is moderator. Rev. Roy A. Morris of Sanford is clerk, Mrs. Colon Churchill of Siler City is president of the W. M. U. Rev. K. E. Bryant of Pittsboro is head of the Sunday school work, Rev. J. C. Kidd is the host pastor this year. The program embraces two full days and one evening. The Thursday evening session will be given over to Young Peoples' Work and the young people will have the entire program.

EMMANUEL CHURCH

The Woman's Auxiliary of Emmanuel Church will hold its first meeting of the year in the Church at 2:30 p. m. Monday, Oct. 14th. All are urged to be present.

Nearly 80 per cent of U. S. industrial labor is employed in small plants with less than 1000 employees.
