

PINEHURST NEWS

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scout Committee met with Mrs. Thomas L. Black last Thursday evening to discuss several important items of business, first being the problem of meeting the recent debt incurred when the drilling of a new well was completed at the Scout cabin on Dairy Road. The well cost approximately $160.00.

The Committee also voted to extend the use of the property to the Boys' Troop under the supervision of E. J. Hartsell and Earle Petro. Mrs. Black has two assistant leaders, Mrs. Petro and Mrs. James W. Harbison. The Scout committee is composed of the Leaders and Mesdames Thomas McKenzie, Gordon M. Cameron, Frank M. Bost and T. P. Cheney. The Boys' Troop meets every Monday night at 7:30 and the Girls meet each Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Both meetings are held at the Community Church and an invitation is extended to all boys and girls in the community of these age groups.
