Clay Road Farm News

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Peele of Greensboro are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rob Biby for a few days. Mrs. Biby has just returned from the hospital after a short illness. Mr. Howard Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Matthews, Mrs. Josh Matthews and Mrs. George Nanopoulos were shopping in Sanford this Wednesday. First Lieutenant Freddie Davis of the US Army Air forces is home for a few days with his family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davis.

Mrs. Ed Johnson has been ill at her home on Clay Road Farms. At the present she is greatly improved.

Jock Biby has bought the old Thaggards school house and adjoining property. He plans to remodel and add on to it to make residence there. His father, Sam Biby, has bought the property across the road from him at the Thaggards Pond and is building a nine-room house. One of his sons who has just returned from the army plans to live there. Mr. Biby had three boys in the service and they all saw action in the European Theatre.

Mr. Jack Matthews and John Monroe have their sawmill ready for action and hope that their neighboring farmers will start bringing their logs in right away.

Mrs. Bill Rogers has been ill with a severe attack of asthma.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Seward of Niagara spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews at their home on Clay Road farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Matthews visited Mr. and Mrs. George Nanopoulos Sunday evening and had a talk by telephone with their daughter Rheba Matthews in Reading, Mass.

Rogers' Matthews visited his mother, Mrs. Ruby Matthews over the weekend. Rogers is out of the navy now and driving for Keith's Truck lines out of Sanford.

Jeff Baker had his car stolen from him this past Tuesday night and at the present he has no clue whatsoever. It was a 1937 Chevrolet roadster, green with a canvas top.

Enough energy is contained in a single new high-energy flashlight battery to lift a 110 pound grill 99 feet straight up.

A HOME OF DISTINCTION, SPACIOUSNESS AND CHARM IN THE HEART OF CAROLINA'S HEALTHFUL MID-SOUTHERN "SAND BELT"

Aside from its original purpose as the highest type of gentleman's estate, SANDY WOODS is well adapted to use as a year-round resort, institution, country club, school or academy. Besides the attractively landscaped Georgian Colonial mansion of 16 rooms, designed in three parts so that each can be cut off if desired, there are 7 estate buildings, all in excellent condition. The main residence is thoroughly modernized with copper leaders, gutters and screens and brass plumbing, convertible oil heat, recessed radiators, oil hot water system, Artesian water, Public Service electricity, Septic sewerage. Adjacent to the house is a 3-car garage and laundry, with 3 room and bath chauffeur's apartment above. And close by, a rustic log cabin of 2 rooms each with fireplace. Main stables accommodate 15 horses, has tack room, groom's room, toilet, etc. Shed stable can shelter 15 more horses. Farm buildings include barn for work horses, shed for equipment, and a 2-cow dairy barn complete with latest equipment.

Its natural attractions are in evidence everywhere!
FOR THE HORSEMAN AND SPORTSMAN, there are excellent facilities for horse-raising and training and sweeps of pine woods traversed by riding paths and shooting coverts. The footing is always secure—never muddy.
FOR THE HUNTER, there is an abundance of quail, wild turkey, gray fox and hare.
FOR THE TENNIS ENTHUSIAST, there is a quick-drying tennis court.
FOR WATER SPORTS, two artificial lakes on the grounds beckon and glisten in the sun.
FOR THE GOLFER, all the world-famous Pinehurst golf courses are within 4 miles of the residence.
FOR THE FARMER, 175 cultivated acres produce peanuts, tobacco, etc.
