"Last Roundup" Before Thanksgiving

An abundant turkey crop for 1946 promises that the nation will observe Thanksgiving in the established tradition. But not every family will dine on a gobbler chosen "on the hoof." Pretty Marlyss Pascoe, of Detroit, Mich., made sure of her selection by driving her new Chevrolet out to Shady Valley Farms, one of the largest turkey farms in the country, where Orville M. Feilmece assisted in the selection.

Womack Home Sold

The residence of Mrs. Beulah Womack and Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Womack, on the corner of Martin and Saunders Street, one block below the courthouse, was sold to H. G. Poole on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m. at public auction, bringing $7,500. The old separate kitchen was reserved. The sale also did not include the rear lot between the residence and the Baptist Church.

This house is one of the oldest homes in Carthage and was the old Tyson home, formerly occupied by T. B. Tyson, Sr., founder of the Tyson and Jones Buggy Company. It stood on the old Tyson homeplace on Main Street where the Carthage Furniture store now stands. It was rolled away to its present location to make way for the new colonial brick home of T. B. Tyson, Jr., grandson and adopted son of old Mr. Tommie Tyson. This new home was in turn transformed into the Sinclair building by the addition of a store front, the rooms of the residence now being display rooms of the furniture store.

The old home sold Saturday has some good timber in it and several quaint mantels.

Cubs Organized

The Cub Scouts are now in process of being organized here. The Methodist Men's Club have undertaken to launch this work and have asked that a committee from each church be appointed to assist them. The initial meeting of prospective cubs was held Thursday at the grammar school by Mrs. Myrton Stewart.

Double Wedding

A double wedding occurred at historic old Union Church Saturday night, Nov. 9, at 6 p. m., when Miss Bessie McDonald was united in marriage to Fred H. Beck of Lexington, and Miss Vivian Shaw was wed to Theodore W. Klingenschmidt of Vass. The brides are cousins.

Miss Shaw is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw of Moore County and has been employed in the Clerk of the Court's office. Miss McDonald is the daughter of Mrs. Miller McDonald and the late Mr. McDonald, and prior to her marriage held a position with the Moore County Health Department. Rev. C. K. Taffee performed the wedding ceremony. Miss Jerry Muse sang, and Jim Shaw and Hubert McDonald were ushers.

Both young couples will make their home in Southern Pines.

A 325 pound prism—the largest ever made—has been constructed for a Mexican observatory. Ground to a surface tolerance of less than three millionths of an inch, it will record 1000 stars on a single photograph.
