CARTHAGE

by Ruth Harriss Tyson

Better Health Drive
Mrs. W. Gilliam Brown, county membership chairman of the North Carolina Social Hygiene society, has just canvassed the schools of the county. She is very much pleased with the response she has received from the teachers, practically all of whom have joined the society. The membership fee of one dollar includes a year's subscription to the magazine, BETTER HEALTH.

The elementary school raised $60 last week for the Junior Red Cross, the largest amount collected for this cause in the history of the school. Miss Mary Currie is chairman of the local chapter. Mrs. E. S. Adams' sixth grade turned in the largest amount, their total being $25.

Thanksgiving Services
Carthage churches will hold a union Thanksgiving service on Thursday at 10 a. m. in the Presbyterian church with Rev. John Cline of the Methodist church preaching the sermon. The Carthage Music club is in charge of the special music for the service.

School Holidays
Following a custom of long standing, the Carthage schools will be closed for Thanksgiving and the Friday following. They will reopen on Monday, December 2.

Amateur Hour
Neil Clegg was a natural in the role of master of ceremonies last Friday night at the Amateur hour put on by the Girls' Athletic association of the Carthage high school. He carried things right along through a varied program of music, string, band, piano and trombone solos, dancing and comedy acts, in which 37 amateurs displayed their talents in the hope of winning top place.

The judges, Mrs. M. J. McPhail, Mrs. Joe Allen, and Mrs. Colin Spencer, Sr., had themselves a time trying to decide among so many attractive numbers. However, they agreed that Patricia Thomas, dressed in old-fashioned costume, should receive first place, with Rose Miller and Ann Currie coming in a close second in a snappy song and dance number, DARK TOWN STRUTTERS' BALL. Honorable mention was given to the Railroad Act.

Amateur hour was under the direction of Miss Ruth Hall, the high school girls' coach, with the student assistants, Nancy Wallace and Lorraine Petty.

Clay Road Farm News

by Margie Nanopoulos
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woodward of Robbins spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews. Mrs. Hazel Whittenberger returned to her job in Philadelphia, Pa., after having spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hollie Kiser.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson has been very ill in the Moore County hospital. Miss Rheba Matthews who is in Wheelock college, Boston, Mass., writes that she will be home for the Christmas holidays December 13. Her roommate plans to come down with her for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nanopoulos spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woodward in Robbins.

Little Barbara Jean Matthews is the proud owner of a new pair of skates and is now insisting that someone should build a skating rink on Clay Road farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Matthews and small son, Dickie, visited Mrs. Matthews' mother, Mrs. Guinn, in Raeford for a day.

GOOD IDEA

When Dr. Edward Everett Hale was Senate Chaplain, a legislator asked him: "Do you pray for the Senators, Dr. Hale?" "No," he replied, "I look at the Senators and pray for the Country."

DDT should not be mixed with whitewash nor applied on freshly whitewashed surfaces as fresh whitewash is likely to be sufficiently alkaline to decompose the insect eradicant.

SAVE FOOD!

This week's the Big Day. That is for most folks, hereabouts. But they do say that out on some of these . . . farms, certain people's spirits are low. Gobbling has wavered off into a minor key; tail feathers are drooping.

"But think of the stuffing you'll get," says a certain Donald Duck, trying to cheer up his pals. "Sage, and chestnuts, and maybe oysters. . . ! They'll be an awful lot of gobbling going on; you just wait and see. And all for you!"

The biggest . . . look-at him. "Will you please just getthehell out!" he said.

ROBBINS

The Robbins Woman's Club met Monday afternoon at the Community Center with Miss Lou Hardy, Miss Aureade Frye, Mrs. W. J. Dunlap and Mrs. C. C. Frye as hostesses. They had as their speaker Mrs. P. P. McCain of Sanatorium, who spoke on "The Health Program of North Carolina." The club voted to give $25 to the cancer fund drive. The hostesses served fruit cake and Russian tea.

To Market, To Market To Buy A Fat Bond

At a meeting of the state Agricultural Council last week, Allison James, head of the U. S. Savings Bond Division for the state, urged farmers to buy bonds.

"We have had good weather, good crops, and good farm prices for the longest period in our history," James said. "This has created an unparalleled opportunity for farmers to buy financial security for the future by investing a good portion of this year's income in U. S. Savings Bonds—the safest security in the world."

Friendship—Three Thousand Miles Apart

Ever play chess? It's a great game! One of the strongest friendships I know of started with a game of chess—between Dad Hoskins, in our town, and a man named Dalton Barnes, in England.

They've never seen each other, never met. But for the past eight years they've been playing chess by mail together—Dad puzzling over Dalton's latest letter, while he sends a chart of his next move to England.

Dad always thinks best with a mellow glass of beer beside his chessboard. And the Englishman writes him that he does the same. "You know, it's almost as if we shared a glass of beer together, too!" says Dad contentedly.

From where I sit, you can talk about diplomacy and foreign policy, but it's often those little things—like a game of chess or a glass of beer—that can make for tolerance and understanding . . . between people of all nations . . . between neighbors here at home!
